ASTROS IN THE COMMUNITY

ASTROS IN ACTION FOUNDATION, FIELDING THE DREAMS OF HOUSTON

Among the many things that made the inaugural season at Enron Field so meaningful is the implementation of the Astros in Action Foundation, Fielding the Dreams of Houston. In our on-going efforts to lend a helping hand to others in our community, we found it necessary to form a fund-raising institution with the sole purpose of making a difference in the lives of those less fortunate.

Funds from the foundation will be used to enhance literacy programs, build new baseball fields that will keep kids off the streets, support area youth baseball programs including the Astros Rookie League and the RBI Program (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities).

The Astros in Action Foundation was formally introduced to the public in September 2000, at the Jim Rome World Tour Stop #22, held at Enron Field. During the event, fans were encouraged to participate in a silent auction that included local and national sports celebrity memorabilia. Fans also made donations to Astros in Action as they entered the ballpark. In a matter of two hours, nearly $10,000 was raised that will go toward the continuing efforts of "fielding the dreams of Houston."

SUNSHINE KIDS

Since 1982, the Houston Astros have pledged to help the Sunshine Kids reach their goals: to provide positive growth activities for children confronted with cancer; to improve the quality of life for a child who is seriously ill; and give love and support to each family member. During the season, the Astros welcome special visits by the Sunshine Kids and their families out to the ballpark. Before the game, the kids get to spend some time with Astros players and coaches for autographs, photos and encouragement.

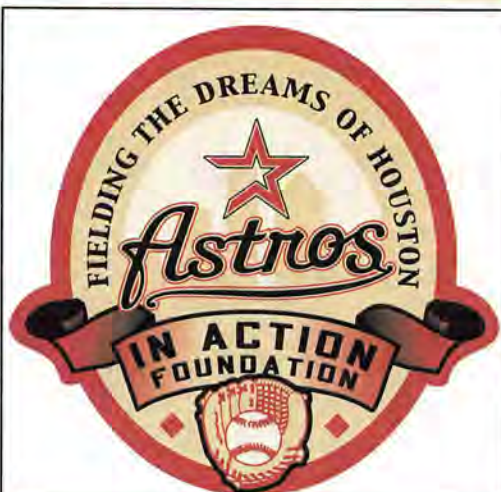

For several years, Astros second baseman Craig Biggio has led the charge as the team's spokesperson for the Sunshine Kids. Although he was on the injured list, Craig and his wife Patty were compelled to follow tradition and host the 9th Annual Sunshine Kids Baseball Game and Party at Enron Field. After the kids showed off their batting skills on the field, they joined Craig and Patty for a buffet lunch and left with Astros goody bags and priceless memories.

THE FUTURE OF THE GAME...

Over the years, the Houston Astros have constantly pressed the issues of being strong role models in the community; urging children to stay off the streets; molding stars of the future by encouraging kids to play organized baseball and teaching them the fundamentals of the game. To further stress these issues, the Astros have teamed with local and national community programs designed to peak children's interest in baseball.

The Astros Rookie League is a joint effort of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Houston and the Astros to provide less fortunate children the opportunity to play organized baseball in a safe environment. The Astros underwrite the costs of t-shirts, umpire fees, equipment and trophies. Each year, in partnership with Major League Baseball, children ages 7 – 14 are given the opportunity to compete and showcase their talents in the Fleur Diamond Skills competition. There the children compete in three categories: batting, fielding/throwing, and base running.

Common goals tie the Astros and RBI (Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities) program together as teammates. Sponsored in nearly 100 cities by Major League Baseball, RBI is designed to promote interest in baseball and girls' softball, increase self-esteem of children and encourage them to stay in school and off the streets. Partnered with the City of Houston Parks and Recreation Department, the Astros support this program because it offers children the

MISSION

Through the strength of the National Pastime, we will enhance the quality of life in our community through educational, health and spiritual endeavors.

We support the efforts of non-profit organizations or programs related to:

- Literacy
- Education/Scholarships
- Health Issues
- Astros Rookie League
- Faith-Based Organizations
- Reviving Baseball in the Inner City opportunity to play organized baseball and softball in their communities.

EDUCATION IS THE KEY...

The Houston Astros believe that with a proper education, you can set your sights for high goals. That's why it's important that we continue programs that stress to children the importance of staying in school, learning how to read, and being an active member of society. As students are encouraged to commit themselves to learning, the Houston Astros are committed to providing students with rewards for a job well done.

To keep kids' energies focused on good educational fun during the summer, the Astros have teamed up with MBNA, Houston Chronicle and the Houston Public Library System for the Summer Reading Program. During the summer months of June through August, children are encouraged to read a minimum of 20 books for a reward of complimentary Astros tickets.

Thanks to joint efforts with MBNA and the Houston Chronicle in the Perfect Attendance Program, Houston-area elementary students learn that going to school every day has its rewards. Students are awarded complimentary Astros tickets by maintaining perfect attendance during a designated grading period.

With the Straight "A" Program, middle and high school students are rewarded Astros tickets when they achieve straight A's over a designated grading period. Each year, thousands of tickets are rewarded to students from schools in Houston, San Antonio, Austin, Lufkin, Victoria, Temple and throughout Louisiana.

HITTING HOME RUNS FOR HOUSTON

Neighborhood Centers Baseball Clinic

This year the Astros teamed up with Banco Popular to host a baseball clinic at the Burnett Bayland Park in the Gulfton-area of Houston. The clinic was designed to stress the fundamentals of hitting, pitching and base running to over 200 children from the Neighborhood Centers summer program, a United Way program administered through Houston Parks and Recreation. Astros players on hand for the clinic included Octavio Dotel and Jose Lima.

Hispanic Heritage Celebration

The Astros joined the nation in celebrating National Hispanic Heritage Month (September 15 – October 15), with events throughout Houston. During Hispanic Heritage night at the ballpark sponsored by Banco Popular, the Caliente Youth Orchestra from the Diaz Music Institute performed live Latin favorites. Hispanic Opera Singer, Christina Fernandez sang the National Anthem. All fans in attendance received a commemorative poster featuring the many Hispanic players on the Astros roster. Also, 10,000 kids left the ballpark with Silly Slammers featuring the voice of Jose Lima.

During the celebration, the Astros also had a dominant presence at the East End "Diez Y Seis" Fiestas at Guadalupe Plaza and the Fiestas Patrias concert at Miller Outdoor Theater. Astros pitcher Jose Lima visited the Downtown Houston Public Library to read bilingual stories to over 50 pre-schoolers from the St. Charles Borromeo Catholic School. Outfielder Roger Cedeno visited children at the Texas Children's Hospital as part of the Major League Players Association "Cover All Bases" program. Moises Alou held a baseball clinic and dedicated a baseball field at the future site of the Spring Branch Boys & Girls Club in conjunction with Claritin's "Step up to the Plate" program.

SHANE REYNOLDS ANNUAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

All-Star pitcher Shane Reynolds remains one of the Astros' most active partners in the community since his arrival in Houston. Every year, he hosts a golf tournament to raise funds for the Epilepsy foundation to help support the services this organization provides for those affected by this condition.

ASTROS WIVES GALA

For more than 10 years, the annual Astros Wives Charity Gala, better known as Black Ties & Baseball Caps, has been an unforgettable evening as the money it raises goes toward the Houston Area Women's Center. During the event's history, Astros wives have raised well over $1 million for the HAWC to help the survivors of sexual assault and family violence through shelter, counseling services and educational programs.

ENRON FIELD

The year 2000 saw something the grand old game of baseball had not experienced since 1964 — a Major League team in Houston playing on natural grass outdoors. While clear skies and real grass were welcome additions for fans, Bayou City hardball faithful also enjoyed another first in Enron Field's 242-foot high, retractable roof. Fans approved the new ballpark overwhelming, resulting in a record of more than 3,000,000 fans through the Enron Field turnstiles.

The Astros drew a franchise-record 3,056,139 fans to Enron Field, their beautiful new ballpark that debuted in 2000.

The latest jewel in the crown of the majestic downtown Houston skyline, Enron Field became the home of the Houston Astros last season and ushered in a new era of Major League sports in the city. The new downtown ballpark continues the proud tradition of visionary innovation in stadium construction, which began with the club's previous home — the Astrodome. Enron Field's retractable roof technology brought open-air baseball to Houston for the first time in 35 years, and the natural grass surface and classic architecture provided Enron Field the atmosphere of the great ballparks of baseball's Golden age. Meshing high tech and heritage, Enron Field is a uniquely individual ballpark of which all Houstonians can be proud.

Approval of the ballpark, however, was not limited to the applause of the fans. In less than one calendar year from its opening, Enron Field had already been recognized on a local, state and national awards level. Following are the first three major awards to honor the new home of the Astros:

Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, 2000 Good Brick Award. The President's Award was presented to owner Drayton McLane, the Astros and the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority for the renovation of the 1911 Union Station building. The Good Brick Awards are presented annually in recognition of leadership and excellence in historic preservation.

Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Project. This honor came from the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), which is the professional organization that represents the vast majority of civil engineers.

National Honor Award for Engineering Excellence. This national recognition for engineering excellence came from the American Consulting Engineers Council (ACEC). This honor stamped Enron Field as one to the Top 24 engineering projects among all buildings and civil works projects nationally.

Location: Enron Field is located at 501 Crawford Street on the northeast end of downtown Houston. Situated near the George R. Brown Convention Center, the ballpark is located one block of U.S. 59 and is bounded by Congress Avenue on the north, Texas Avenue on the South, Crawford Street on the west and Hamilton Street on the east.

Architect: HOK Sports Facilities Group.

Construction Manager: Brown & Root Services, a business unit of Halliburton Company.

History: The idea for a public-private financing drive for a downtown Houston ballpark was conceived in 1996. Fourteen leading Houston companies joined together to form the Houston Sports Facility Partnership. The Partnership agreed to provide a $35 million interest-free loan with no repayment due until 10 years of ballpark operation. With the Partnership's initial commitment, the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority had the support it needed to present a ballpark proposal to the public in November 1996. Voters approved the $250 million project.

First Games: The Houston Astros and New York Yankees played an exhibition game on March 30, 2000, with Houston winning 6-5. The Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies in the first official regular-season game on April 7, 2000, with Philadelphia winning 4-1.

The Name: On April 7, 1999, the Astros and Enron announced an integrated naming rights agreement that included the exclusive right for Enron Energy Services to provide competitive electricity and facilities management services at the new ballpark, which was named Enron Field. Enron paid $100 million for the right to name the ballpark. Under the 30-year agreement with the Astros, Enron Energy Services will manage the energy contracts at Enron Field, as well as provide services for heating, ventilation and air conditioning, and also will administer various subcontracts for maintenance of all mechanical and electrical equipment.

Union Station: According to HOK's design platform, the most literal tie between Houston's past and its new ballpark is a physical line to Union Station. The building is a symbol of the important role the railroad has played in the city's relatively short history, especially early in the 20th century. The director of Enron Field's identity and graphics takes its cue from this period.

The railroad created Houston. Flourishing trade established a base of wealth and culture, and infrastructure of banks, a port and railheads. By 1910, railroads constituted the city's largest industry. In 1911, Union Station – already key to the rail industry's growth and influence – was redesigned and reopened.

Built at a cost of $500,000 at the corner of Texas Avenue and Crawford Street, Union Station was dedicated on March 2, 1911. It has been estimated that between 7,000-10,000 Houstonians passed through its front doors at the 45-foot-high lobby, which included three varieties of polished marble. By the mid-1940's, Union Station was handling 5,000 travelers daily on 36 passenger trains.

Team officials note that approximately 60 percent of fans enter Enron Field via Union Station. Union Station's lobby features The Shed, the Official Astros Team Store and the Ruggles Café and Bakery. Walk-up or booked Enron Field tours, offered year-round, also begin in the Union Station lobby.

Richard Hidalgo connected for the Astros' first regular-season homer at Enron Field, a one-out solo shot in the seventh inning on April 7, 2000.

The second and third floors comprise the Conference Center, open 365 days a year and providing a wide array of meeting rooms that can afford businesses and organizations state-of-the-art facilities. Nestled in different areas of the ballpark are additional meeting rooms and areas that provide the perfect atmosphere for a meeting or luncheon.

The Houston Astros executive offices comprise the fourth and fifth floors. The sixth floor features the Houston and the Union Station site. The train was designed by Uni-systems and built by SMI & Hydraulics, which also provided the transporters for the retractable roof. Weighing close to 50,000 pounds, the train runs along some 800 feet along the low roof track on the west side of the ballpark.

Size: The building dimensions cover 28.97 acres of gross square footage, a total of 1,263,240 square feet. The height is 93 feet to the last seating tread, equivalent to a nine-story building.

The Roof: Architects from the HOK Sports Facilities Group recommended early on that a retractable roof would be appropriate for the Texas climate. Since building the first retractable roof ballpark – the Skydome in 1989 – designers have crafted several kinds of retractable roofs. Some, for instance, open only over a small central section. The roof at Enron Field, however, retracts completely off the ballpark to reveal the largest open area of any retractable roofed baseball stadium in existence today. A total of 50,000 square feet of glass in the west wall of the retractable roof give fans a view of the Houston skyline, even when the roof is in the closed position.

Uni-systems provided the technical expertise to design the best roof structure for Enron Field. Mechanized roof panels open and close in 12-20 minutes. The roof moves back and forth an estimated 160 times a year, a distance of 14.6 miles. To cover the ballpark, steel panels roll in sequence along tracks on the east and west sides of the stadium. When the roof is open, the southern and northern panels, each of which measures 537 by 120 feet and weighs 1,905 metric tons, rest at the north end below the large middle section with its dimension of 589 by 242 feet and a weight of 3,810 metric tons. Designers determined the roof's shape – lower side panels flanking the high center panel – by tracking a batted baseball's hyperbolic flight path.

Forged steel wheels measuring 35 inches in diameter transport the three roof panels. Each of the 140 wheels has its own braking mechanism and 60 are equipped with electric motors.

If the track is slightly out of alignment, all the weight of a roof panel could come to rest on one wheel, causing severe structural damage. To prevent this, a polyurethane suspension pad that acts as a spring is attached above each wheel to distribute the roof's weight. The low track/high track configuration and the roof's built-in glass wall not only offer valuable efficiency, but afford a panoramic view of the surrounding landscape unlike any other roofed ballpark.

Playing Field: Three wall heights, various angles in the corners and power alleys, a 30-degree, uphill slope – "Tal's Hill" – for a center field warning track, and a flag pole in the field of play create unique actions for any ball that gets past an outfielder.

Rook Deck and Club House at Union Station, where private groups of up to 100 can enjoy the game and incredible view of the Houston skyline.

Train: A replica of a 19th century locomotive (circa 1860) and linked coal tender became a fast fan favorite in the inaugural season. The train provides an architectural icon which combines sight, sound and motion for a dynamic entertainment and celebration feature. It also proves a link to the past for Octavio Dotel rifles the first pitch home at 7:08 on April 7, 2000 at Enron Field vs. Philadelphia.

Featuring 419 Tifway Bermuda grass from Milberger Turf Sales, the playing surface covers 6.7 acres or 291,852 square feet. The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 78 irrigation heads help make the job for head groundskeeper Luke Jenkins and his staff much easier.

Sounds: A total of 400 speaker cabinets are scattered throughout the seating areas and almost 1,000 are found along the concourses. The speakers are distributed throughout the ballpark to have cabinets as close to the fans as possible.

Astro legends Nolan Ryan and Craig Biggio enjoy a moment following the ceremonial first pitch prior to Enron Field's first regular-season game on April 7, 2000.

Technology: Enron Field is the first major sports facility to feature a closed caption board for the hearing impaired. The Daktronics black and white matrix board and Daktronics color matrix board present the baseball fans with a unique experience at Enron Field. The primary scoreboard, measuring 35 feet by 131 feet, displays player and team stats on the left side, while the right features graphics and animation, including the recreation of several of the Astrodome's effects of yesteryear. A speed pitch board, four auxiliary scoreboards and an old-fashioned manually operated scoreboard keep fans on the top of the action in the ballpark and in every other big league venue. The state-of-the-art video board high atop Enron Field is a product of SACO Smartvision, providing fans with unmatched instant replays and special video features and effects unlike anywhere in major league baseball.

Seating: With visually redirected seats and baseball only sightlines, Astros fans are as close to the action as any in big league baseball. Seats along the right and left field foul lines are only five feet from the line, while the nearest spectator along the first and third base lines can be as close as 43 feet to the game.

The overall seating capacity of Enron Field is 40,950, featuring nine different seating areas: Dugout Boxes, Field Boxes, Crawford Boxes, Bullpen Boxes, Club Tier I, Club Tier II, Terrace Deck, Mezzanine, and Upper Deck. Each of the ballpark's four levels – Main Concourse, Club Level, Suite Level, and Upper Concourse – afford fans a uniquely different perspective.

Enron Field's seats are a deep green to match the retro look and design of the ballpark. Approximately 6,500 seats in the Diamond Level and Charter Seat License areas in the lower bowl and Club Level include cup holders.

Fans sampling the various Enron Field ticket options will find the following at Houston's new ballpark: seats on top of the action, various one-of-a-kind amenities like the Minute Main Squeeze Play, the Sports Legacy Art Gallery, Ruggles Patio in center field, and panoramic views of the ballpark and spectacular views of the downtown Houston skyline.

Astros manager Larry Dierker greets New York Yankees skipper Joe Torre during pre-game introductions prior to the Enron Field Inaugural Game, March 30, 2000.

One of the most popular seating areas are the Crawford Boxes, located in left field. This on-top-of the action-area provides fans with a unique perspective of what it is like to be a Major League outfielder.

The Diamond Club, Club Level and Suites provide the ultimate in entertaining areas, while groups can take advantage of special mezzanine seating and "The Champions" party room. "Home Run Alley” is a 810-foot long fan arcade, including the fan-favorite “Conoco Home Run Porch” in left-centerfield that is actually over the field of play, and features a classic gasoline pump to keep track of the number of Astros home runs that are hit.

The Astros' Suites, located between the Club Level and Terrace Deck, provide the ultimate in luxury and comfort for watching Major League Baseball. Beautifully appointed with a bar/buffet, socializing area and close-circuit TVs, the suites offer privacy and comfort for personal and business entertainment. Sliding glass doors open to stadium chairs, which are designed to seat guests in two rows.

For the first time since 1964, Houston hardball fans enjoyed Major League Baseball outdoors on natural grass in the Bayou City.

Keeping with Astros tradition, children 14-and-under are still able to purchase a $1 ticket for seats in the Outfield Deck section.

Food courts and concession stands are designed to preserve the spirit of Houston's Union Station. Regional fare and ballpark favorites are located on the main concourse and in the upper deck.

DRAYTON McLANE

Chairman & CEO

Entering his ninth year as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Houston Astros Baseball Club, Drayton McLane has led the Astros and the city of Houston to what can be called the pinnacle of baseball excitement. The completion of the Astros' 40,950-seat, state-of-the-art ballpark and finishing their inaugural season have been milestones. A new era of baseball in the Bayou City has arrived.

Drayton has been the leader and encourager behind the ballpark project which began with a ground-breaking ceremony in late October of 1997 and has since experienced its completion and inaugural season in 2000 in what is referred to as the best facility in all of Major League Baseball. Although Enron Field has brought a new surge of energy to the Downtown area, it also is a salute to the rich history of Houston. Adjacent to historic Union Station, the street-level ballpark has been designed to blend harmoniously into the diversity of its surroundings. Since construction began in 1998, the development around the ballpark area has increased tremendously and the positive economic impact around the area is visible.

During his eight years in Major League Baseball, Drayton has served on several MLB committees, including the Executive Committee, Legislative Affairs, Ownership and Realignment committees, and the MLB Advanced Media committee. Also, during Drayton's ownership the Astros have won the National League Central Division title three times and are committed to staying focused on winning a World Series Championship.

The success of the Astros is not limited to the playing field. When he purchased the team, one of McLane's first goals was to help make a positive difference in the community. This dream is being realized in many ways by both the players and front office staff. The Astros in Action Foundation was founded in 2000 and serves to strengthen outreach in the community. The Astros' organization continuously attends charity events, visits children's hospitals and hosts underprivileged children at games. Drayton serves on and chairs many boards throughout Texas. He is actively involved with the Boy Scouts of America, Children's Miracle Network, South Texas College of Law, Cooper Institute for Aerobics, Greater Houston Partnership, Chase Bank, Scott and White Hospital and Baylor University.

After receiving his graduate degree, Drayton began working in the family business, McLane Company, a grocery distribution firm that grew from a small company in Cameron, Texas to an international firm that now has 18 divisions throughout the United States and distributes to over 30,000 convenience stores and fast-food restaurants. Drayton worked his way through the ranks, beginning in the warehouse. Before merging the business with Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. in 1991, Drayton had served as the company's President, Chief Executive Officer, and Chairman of the Board. He now devotes his time to McLane Group, the family holding company for M-C International, M-Group Computer Software Company, McLane Espana, McLane Polska, McLane Portugal, Classic Foods Chili Company, Leading Edge Beverage Company, Lone Star Plastics and the Houston Astros. In 1999, he was named to the Board of Directors of Peapod, Inc., the nation's leading Internet grocer and a leader in other e-commerce shopping services.

Over the years, Drayton has received many significant awards, but most recently he was presented the Distinguished Herbert Hoover Award from Food Distributors International and the Golden Plate Award in 1997 from the American Academy of Achievement. He also received his honorary doctorate from Michigan State University and was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

Drayton and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Temple, Texas. They have two sons, Drayton III and Denton, both of whom are graduates of Baylor University. They are active members of First Baptist Church of Temple, where Drayton teaches Sunday School, serves as a deacon and is past Chairman of the Deacons.

TAL SMITH

President, Baseball Operations

Having witnessed the birth of two baseball stadiums during his storied baseball career, Tal Smith is the main link between Astros past and present as the club continues a new era in Houston.

Tal was a vital aide to owner Drayton McLane, and to the interests of the club, throughout the many stages of development as the Astros' fabulous new baseball facility, Enron Field, became a reality. The new ballpark's field dimensions and unique angles were designed with Tal's input and assistance. Centerfield boasts a 30-degree hill - "Tal's Hill" - a tribute to his creativity and contribution to the Enron Field project.

Tal filled a similar role in ballpark development in 1963 when he became Assistant to the President of the Houston Sports Association, where he acted primarily as a liaison for HSA during the construction of the Astrodome, a project which changed the face of stadiums and the city of Houston forever.

Tal returned to the Houston organization on November 22, 1994, when he was named President of the Club. Since 1981, he has been owner and operator of Houston-based Tal Smith Enterprises, a firm which provides consulting services and performs specialized functions for professional baseball clubs and other sports interests.

Prior to forming his own company, he worked for 23 years in management and administrative positions with major league clubs, including President and General Manager of the Astros and Executive Vice President of the New York Yankees. Widely respected by his peers throughout the country, Smith was chosen to be one of 25 panelists enlisted by Baseball America in 1999 to provide an overview of baseball in the 20th century, which highlighted the greatest feats, personalities and records of the past 100 years.

Tal was the primary architect of Houston's first playoff club, the 1980 NL West Division champs. That season was followed by a dramatic, five-game NLCS against the Phillies which saw the last four games go into extra innings and left Houston six outs short of its first trip to the World Series. For his efforts, he was recognized by The Sporting News as the Major League Executive of the Year.

Tal started his baseball career in the farm department of the Cincinnati Reds in 1958. He came to Houston in November of 1960 when he was named Assistant to the General Manager of the new National League franchise. He was named Farm Director of the Colt .45s in April, 1961, and held that post for two years. In April, 1963, he became Assistant to the President of the Houston Sports Association, acting primarily as liaison for HSA during the construction of the Astrodome.

Following completion of the Astrodome, he was named Vice President and Director of Player Personnel in December, 1965. In 1972, he was named Vice President and Director of Operations for Astrodome-Astros Hall Stadium corporation. In November, 1973, he left Houston to become Executive Vice President of the New York Yankees where he filled that role until his return to Houston as General Manager of the Astros in August of 1975. He was named President of the club on September 23, 1976.

Tal was born in 1933 in Framingham, MA. He attended Culver (IN) Military Academy and Duke University where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration in 1955. Following graduation, he served as an officer in the United States Air Force for two years.

Tal and his wife, Jonnie, make their home in Houston. They have two children, Valerie and Randy, and a grandson, Quinn Edward. Tal's son Randy was named General Manager of the Detroit Tigers on October 30, 1995.

FRONT OFFICE

BOB McCLAREN

President, Business Operations

Bob McClaren was named President of Business Operations on February 4, 2000 after serving as the club's Senior Vice President of Business Operations since June of 1994.

Bob has played one of the leading roles in the Astros' move to their new state-of-the-art home at Enron Field in downtown Houston. He has been instrumental in the design, construction and naming of the new ballpark. He is responsible for all facets of the Astros business and administrative operations, including Accounting, Advertising, Ballpark Operations, Broadcasting, Community Development, Engineering, Finance, Food Service, Human Resources, Information Technology, Legal, Marketing, Media Relations, Promotions and Sales departments. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Houston Astros Baseball Club.

During Bob's tenure, the Astros have grown into one of the most successful franchises in professional baseball, boasting three National League Central Division titles in the past four seasons. His leadership has led to increases in annual home attendance in each of the past six years including setting new team attendance records in each of the past three seasons. He also played an integral role in Enron Field reaching completion under budget and on time for the inaugural season in 2000, when the Astros drew a franchise record of more than 3,000,000 fans to their new home.

Before moving to Houston, he was Vice President and General Counsel of McLane Group, L.P., of Temple, TX from 1992-94. He also served as General Counsel and a member of the Board of Directors of McLane Company, Inc. in Temple from 1989-92.

Born in Bryan, TX, in 1958, he is a 1976 graduate of South Grand Prairie (TX) High. He earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Texas at Arlington in 1980, and a Juris Doctor from the Texas Tech University School of Law in 1984.

Bob currently serves as a member of the Board of Trustees for Houston Baptist University, as a Director of the Texas Business Hall of Fame and as a Vice Chairman of Deacons for the Second Baptist Church in Houston.

Bob, wife Dana, and daughters Bryn Carol and Ann Ryle make their home in Houston.

GERRY HUNSICKER

General Manager

FRONT OFFICE

Over the past few years, only a few teams in Major League Baseball have enjoyed greater success than the Houston Astros. Since 1996, Gerry Hunsicker's first campaign as General Manager, the Astros are tied for fourth in winning percentage and are fifth in wins among all MLB clubs.

It took Hunsicker only two years to mold a championship-caliber team in Houston, and through his aggressive leadership, he has formed a nucleus to carry the team to three National Central Division crowns in the past four seasons. Since he was named the club's General Manager on November 10, 1995, the Astros have posted a record of 437-373, a winning percentage of .539.

The Astros had an important off-season after the 2000 campaign. Houston signed Jeff Bagwell to a five-year contract extension — meaning the Astros' greatest slugger will remain in the Bayou City for years to come. Houston also inked rising superstar outfielder Richard Hidalgo to an extension. In addition, Hunsicker triggered key off-season moves, which included the reacquiring of catcher Brad Ausmus and bolstering the club's pitching staff with Kent Bottenfield, Doug Brocail, and Mike Jackson.

Gerry's first order of business upon the conclusion of the 1999 campaign — Houston's third straight NL Central Division crown — was to extend the contract of perennial All-Star second baseman Craig Biggio through the 2003 season.

Throughout the 1999 campaign, Gerry was forced to place a record number of players on the disabled list and saw his entire Opening Day lineup, with the exception of mainstays Craig Biggio and Jeff Bagwell, succumb to injury at least once during the season. Despite so many ailments, the Astros claimed their third straight NL Central crown.

In 1998, Gerry assembled what had been called the best team in the history of the Houston franchise and it seemed only fitting that he was named The Sporting News' Executive of the Year upon conclusion of the season. What the '98 season will likely be best-remembered for is the addition of former Cy Young Award winner Randy Johnson, whom Gerry acquired in a trade with the Seattle Mariners on July 31 just minutes before the nonwaiver trading deadline had passed.

Gerry's key acquisitions during the 1997-98 and 1998-99 off-seasons also produced spectacular results. In trading for Moises Alou and Carl Everett, the Astros had superior offensive production which led them through a 102-win season and team record-breaking numbers in such categories as home runs, RBI and runs scored in '98.

Shortly after taking over his current post as General Manager, Gerry wasted no time building his 1996 team by resigning then-free agent Biggio and acquiring third baseman Sean Berry in a trade with Montreal. While battling St. Louis for the NL Central crown that year, he acquired seven players by trades or free agent signings, and dipped into the organization's talent pool using no less than seven rookies, including closer Billy Wagner.

With respect for the history of the Houston organization and building a team designed to play in the Astrodome, Gerry named former Astros pitcher and broadcast analyst Larry Dierker the club's manager on October 4, 1996. Shortly after that move, the club consummated a 10-player trade with Detroit which brought Brad Ausmus, Jose Lima, C.J. Nitkowski, Trevor Miller and Daryle Ward, all of whom appeared on Houston's active roster in 1998.

Gerry returned to Houston after working as the number two man in the baseball operations area of the New York Mets where, since September 27, 1991, his duties were to assist the General Manager in all phases of New York's major and minor league operations. He joined the Mets in November of 1988 as Director of Minor League Operations, then became the Director of Baseball Operations on October 14, 1990, with responsibilities for scouting, player development and assisting with the major league club.

Gerry filled a number of roles with the Astros from 1978-81, including traveling secretary, minor league pitching coach, scout and Assistant to the General Manager. From 1981-83, he worked for Tal Smith Enterprises in Houston and was involved in preparing salary arbitration cases. From 1984 until joining the Mets, he left baseball to join the securities industry and was a Vice President for Paine Webber in Houston.

Born in Collegeville, PA, Gerry, 50, was a three-sport standout in high school and was captain of his baseball, basketball and football teams. He attended St. Joseph's (PA) University on a baseball scholarship and was named to the All Mid-Atlantic Conference team as both a pitcher and an outfielder. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in 1972. In 1998, he was inducted into the SJU Baseball Hall of Fame, and on October 21, 2000, Gerry was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame.

From 1973-78, he was pitching coach and Assistant Athletic Director at Florida International University, where he also earned his Master's Degree.

Gerry and his wife, Irene, have one daughter, Kelly.

ASTROS AMONG BASEBALL'S WINNING ELITE

Houston's winning percentage ranks with MLB's best

The Astros ended the 2000 campaign as the second-winningest team in the National League over the past eight seasons (1993-00). With a composite record of 664-567 (.537), they rank only behind the Atlanta Braves for the NL's best winning percentage since 1993. During this eight-year period, the Astros finished a combined 97 games over the .500 mark and won three division titles:

TIM PURPURA

Assistant General Manager

Tim Purpura is in his eighth year as a member of the Astros organization and his fourth year overseeing the club's player development areas, while also fulfilling his duties as Assistant General Manager.

Over the past three years, the Astros' minor league affiliates have won a league championship at each of the Triple A, Double A and Class A levels.

Tim took on additional duties on October 24, 1997 to direct the operation of the club's player development system and six minor league affiliates. He also assists General Manager Gerry Hunsicker with all aspects of major league operations, including player trades and free agent acquisitions, contract negotiations and coordination of major league scouting efforts. He also has direct responsibilities for compliance with Major League Rules and the Basic Agreement, and administration of the team payroll and major league operating budget.

Tim, 43, has served in several capacities since joining the club in January of 1994, including Assistant Director of Minor League Operations and Director of Player Relations. He joined the Astros after two seasons as a founding member of the staff of the Arizona Fall League, a very successful developmental league operated by Major League Baseball, which serves as a finishing school for top prospects.

He worked as an assistant in player development for the California Angels during spring training from 1990-92 and he headed special projects for the San Diego Padres' minor league department in 1991.

Tim worked in higher education administration from 1984-92 at the University of California, San Diego.

A native of Oak Lawn, IL, Purpura received a bachelor of science degree from Loyola University of Chicago in 1983 and earned a law degree from the Thomas Jefferson School of Law at Western State University in San Diego in 1992. He is a member of the California and Federal bars.

Tim and his wife, Shari, make their home in Houston.

ANDRES REINER

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Andres Reiner, the founder of Houston's highly successful baseball academy in Venezuela, enters his fourth year as the Special Assistant to General Manager Gerry Hunsicker for International Scouting and Development. He was named to his position on July 17, 1997.

Starting his career as the organization's scout in Venezuela, Andres convinced the club to start an academy in his country, similar to ones operated for many years by major league teams in the Dominican Republic. The goal of the Venezuelan academy, which is in Valencia, is to not only find promising young players and develop their baseball skills, but to give them instruction in English language classes, nutrition, social skills and basic finance.

Since the academy produced its first prospect in 1990 after opening on August 1, 1989, more than 90 players have been signed by the Astros out of the program. Through the 2000 season, a total of 12 academy products - including Bobby Abreu, Raul Chavez, Roberto Petagine, Edgar Ramos, Richard Hidalgo, Manuel Barrios, Oscar Henriquez, Melvin Mora, Carlos Hernandez, Freddy Garcia, Carlos Guillen and John Santana - have already played for Major League teams.

Andres oversees the development of new international markets for Houston. The Astros now have 22 international scouts in countries which include Venezuela, the Dominican Republic, Netherland-Antilles, Panama, Nicaragua, and Colombia.

Andres and his wife of 41 years, Carman, have three children: sons Robert and Andres and daughter Sylvia.

In their 37 years in the National League, the Astros have had just three players hit for the cycle. Cesar Cedeno was the first to accomplish it, by driving in four runs against the Reds at Houston in a 10-1 win August 2, 1972. Cedeno repeated his effort on August 9, 1976 when he drove in five runs in a 13-4 win at St. Louis. Bob Watson did it on June 24, 1977, but he took 11 innings. Watson drove in five of the Astros' six runs in a 6-5 win over San Francisco at Houston. Andujar Cedeno accomplished the feat on August 25, 1992 when the Astros lost to St. Louis 5-3 in 13 innings.

ROB MATWICK

Senior Vice President, Operations and Communications

A 16-year veteran of the organization, Rob Matwick was named Senior Vice President of Operations and Communications in the off-season.

After serving for 14 years as the Astros' Director of Media Relations, Rob, 43, was named Vice President, Operations on July 22, 1999 and was promoted to his current post on January 1, 2001. He oversees Media Relations, Ballpark Operations, Tours, the Conference Center, Enron Field Security and Special Events.

During the Enron Field construction process, Rob worked with the architects and construction team on a number of aspects, including all media working areas, audio/visual systems, data and telecommunications, signage and graphics, artwork, parking operations, office relocation and publicity. He also served as chairman of the Public Information Task Force for the Enron Field Traffic Management plan, which was a cooperative effort of nine different local, regional and state agencies and interests.

Prior to joining the Astros in October of 1985, Rob was Sports Information Director at Wichita State University. He also had collegiate sports information experience at the University of South Carolina, was a sports writer for The Aiken (SC) Standard newspaper and an account executive for a South Carolina-based advertising agency. He is a member of the Public Relations Society of America and serves Major League Baseball as a member of the Statistical Uniformity Committee.

A native of McKeesport, PA, Rob earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and a Master of Mass Communications degree, each from the University of South Carolina. He and his wife Kelly make their home in Pearland, TX.

FRONT OFFICE

TERESA PELANNE

Senior Vice President, Finance and Administration

Teresa Pelanne, the Senior Vice President for Finance and Administration, is responsible for all financial operations, information technologies and administrative functions for the Houston Astros.

She is also responsible for accounting and budgeting functions as well as event reporting and settlement for all events occurring at Enron Field and in its Conference Center.

Last year, she brought more than 20 years of experience in the financial management of the sports and exhibition facilities of the Astrodome Complex to Enron Field as the Astros' Vice President of Information Technology. She was promoted to Senior Vice President in January, 2001. Teresa began her career in 1978 as Financial Analyst and was progressively promoted to the position of Vice President of Finance for Astrodome USA.

The native Houstonian received her Bachelor of Business Administration in Quantitative Management Science from the University of Houston. She and her husband Thierry have two children, a son Joel and daughter Bridget.

BARRY WATERS

Director of Baseball Administration

Barry Waters returns for his 16th season of overseeing all aspects of Astros travel and accommodations across the country.

Recognized as one of the best in his business, he was selected to lead the Major League Baseball All-Star tour of Japan following the 1996 season. His peers voted him Traveling Secretary of the Year in 1992.

He was named the club's traveling secretary on an interim basis in July of 1986 before being named to the post on a full-time basis in September of that year. His role was expanded in 1993 when he was named Director of Baseball Administration with duties that include overseeing budget and administration.

A native of Ashland, MA, Barry joined the organization in 1980 and filled several positions before being named traveling secretary. He also worked for the Los Angeles Dodgers for one year before joining the Astros.

He and his wife Judy live in Houston with their children Colin and Claudia.

MIKE ANDERS

Vice President, Human Resources

Mike Anders continues his tenure with the Houston Astros as the Vice President of Human Resources. A senior executive in the human resources field with over 25 years experience, Mike has experience in all HR functions - recruitment, compensation/benefits, performance appraisal systems, labor relations, employee relations, training, job evaluations and organization development.

Mike received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Howard Payne College and his Masters of Business Administration from Pepperdine University. He has held high level positions with companies such as Continental Steel Company, Dobbs Houses, Harris Corporation and McLane Company Inc. Before entering the Human Resource field, he worked in numerous local and state political campaigns.

Mike, his wife Joanne and their daughter Courtney reside in Houston.

MARIAN HARPER

Vice President, Community Development

Marian Harper was named Vice President of Community Development on July 22, 1999 after serving as the Director of that department since November of 1997. Under her direction the department serves over 2,000 organizations annually through appearances, the Astros' mascot program, the organization of community programs, player involvement and school incentive programs.

The Astros' most recent Community Development achievement — The Astros in Action Foundation — was founded in 2000 and serves to strengthen outreach in the community.

She joined the Astros in 1992 as Promotions Coordinator, where she oversaw the purchasing, distribution and account services for in-game activities.

Marian is a native of Pittsburg, TX and graduated from Tyler Junior College in 1989. She currently serves on the Board of the Northeast YMCA, the American Cancer Society Communications Committee, and the HISD Athletic Department Advisory Committee. She makes her home in Houston.

ROSI HERNANDEZ

Vice President, Market Development

Rosi Hernandez joined the Houston Astros in July of 1999 when she was named Vice President of Market Development.

She has been instrumental in the development of the organization's niche marketing and promotional efforts, including the team's award-winning Spanish web site, the Hispanic advertising campaign efforts, as well as the new Women and Baseball marketing initiatives aimed at attracting the female segment of the market to Enron Field. Rosi also leads the club's efforts in developing special cultural events such as the Astros' Hispanic Heritage Day, and works closely with international journalists in producing articles for both the team's web site and the Astros' monthly, in-season magazine.

Prior to joining the Astros, Rosi served as Vice President of Sykes Communications in Houston for almost four years. During her tenure at Sykes, she received three ADDY awards from the Houston Ad Federation for excellence in Hispanic advertising.

The 33-year-old native of San Juan, Puerto Rico received her bachelor's degree in newspaper journalism in 1989 and her master's in public relations in 1991, both from Syracuse University.

Rosi and her husband Jorge make their home in Clear Lake.

JAMIE HILDRETH

Vice President, Sales and Broadcasting

Jamie Hildreth, a 30-year veteran of Houston radio, was named Vice President of Sales and Broadcasting in 1999 after serving as the Astros' Director of Broadcasting since July of 1987. His radio career in Houston has spanned roles from sales to management, including Sales Manager of KTRH Radio from 1984-87 prior to joining the Astros.

Jamie is responsible for building the Astros Radio Networks in English and Spanish and coordinates all television broadcast productions. He oversees the Astros broadcasting team for both home and road games.

Jamie also leads the sales team for all revenue categories for the Astros, including print, radio and television inventory at Enron Field.

Jamie and his wife Theresa have two sons: Jeff and Shane.

FRONT OFFICE

BERT POPE

Vice President, Engineering

Vital to the construction, on-time completion and continuing maintenance of Enron Field, Bert Pope is the Vice President of Engineering. He has more than 40 years of experience in the construction industry and now oversees the day-to-day facility management efforts for the ballpark.

Bert provided oversight to the various budget and construction teams during the completion of Enron Field, serving as construction manager.

The native of Temple followed his grandfather and father into the construction industry. From 1977-1985, Bert was the vice president and general superintendent of Belco Construction Company in Temple.

From 1985-1991, he was president of BR Building Corporation, Inc. in Temple. He later moved to McLane Company Inc., where he served as the construction manager, building distribution centers nationwide.

Bert graduated from Texas Tech in 1962, receiving bachelor's degrees in civil and mechanical engineering. He and his wife Marcia have three sons, Dan, Vick and David, and five grandchildren.

GARRY SAWKA

Vice President, Marketing

Garry Sawka, a member of the 1987 Stanford University NCAA national championship baseball team, is in his first year as Vice President of Marketing. Having joined the Astros in January, he manages the Astros' advertising department, in-game ballpark entertainment, and operations at The Shed, the ballpark's official team retail store.

Garry previously worked for Coca-Cola's Minute Maid Division, working in a variety of roles since 1996. Sawka was instrumental in the development of Enron Field's Minute Maid Squeeze Play, the interactive, family area at the Astros' new ballpark.

His most recent responsibility included serving as Group Manager, Breakfast Beverages, where he directed budget decisions, marketing plans and media strategies. Sawka also paved the way for establishing a new strategic plan for Minute Main Lemonade and Juice Drink brands.

A native of Canada, Sawka is a 1988 graduate of Stanford University, where he received a bachelor's of arts degree with distinction in economics. He received a master's of business administration from Rice University's Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management in 1996.

Sawka and his wife Lori have two children, Ty and Ava Leigh.

KALA SORENSON

Vice President, Special Events

Kala Sorenson, responsible for all non-baseball events at Enron Field and Union Station Conference Center, is in her second year with the Astros. She was promoted to Vice President of Special Events on January 1, 2001 after originally joining the organization as Director of the Conference Center.

Kala is a Houston native who attended Klein High School and the University of Texas. She worked from 1996-2000 for the Greater Houston and Visitors Bureau as Convention Sales Manager, establishing relationships in the sports industry and various associations in the Midwest.

Beginning her career in the hospitality industry, Sorenson worked closely with the major league sports leagues — Major League Baseball, NBA and NFL — as the former Sports Market Sales Manager for the Westin Gallery and Westin Oaks Hotels in Houston. She also helped create the Westin "One Call Department," sales and catering for groups of 75 people or less.

A former associate in the Texas Water Commission in the Austin chief clerk's office, Kala is a member and a former board member of the Houston Society of Association Executives. She also is a member of the Professional Convention Management Association and International Association of Exposition Managers. She currently serves on the Board of the Downtown Houston Association.

JOHN SORRENTINO

Vice President, Ticket Sales and Services

John Sorrentino was named Vice President of Ticket Sales on July 22, 1999. His main task for the past two years has been overseeing the season ticket relocation of the Astrodome's season ticket holders to Enron Field. John oversees the entire ticket department at Enron Field, including group, season and individual game ticket sales, as well as box office and customer service management.

The 2000 season, the inaugural campaign at Enron Field, proved to be a busy and successful year for he and his staff. The Astros established a franchise record with more than three million tickets sold at the new downtown ballpark.

John, 40, joined the Astros in 1987 as a ticket account executive and moved to the Community Relations Department in 1989 as Director of Community Services before moving back to the ticket services operations.

The 1983 graduate of Texas A&M began his career as a sales manager for Houston Gamblers USFL football.

John is a member of the Downtown Rotary Club and in 1998 he served as Vice Chairman of the Smith award. He also serves on the board of directors at the Julia C. Hester House, a United Way agency.

Sorrentino and his four children, Andrew, J.D., Patricia and Hannah, reside in Kingwood.

GENE PEMBERTON

Chaplain, Houston Astros Baseball Club

A business leader and veteran broadcaster, Gene Pemberton is the first full-time chaplain in Major League Baseball. Gene first joined the Astros' organization in January, 1994. He served as Director of Community Development until becoming the team chaplain in 1997.

He served for 31 years at American Desk Manufacturing company in various capacities. Gene was the Vice President of Marketing and Director of Special Projects, selling stadium seating for more than 60 sports venues, including the 70,000-seat Georgia Dome.

A longtime basketball and football official, he was honored as a lifetime member of the Southwest Officials Association for 23 years of service. Pemberton officiated in four state basketball tournaments.

Gene has been the longtime color commentator for Temple Wildcat football games on KTEM radio. He and play-by-play announcer Mark McLain have been honored by the Associated Press for best sports play-by-play in their class several times since 1992. The duo also claimed the Dallas Press Club's prestigious Katie Award in 1993 for best broadcast team in Texas outside the four major markets.

Gene is a past president of the Temple Kiwanis Club and Legion of Honor member, was a deacon for 19 years for Bethel Assembly of God Church, and has been involved in numerous other civic activities, committees and boards.

A native of Cameron, he grew up in Temple and graduated from Hardin-Simmons University in 1962. He and his wife Mary have three children and two grandsons.

DAVE LABOSSIERE

Head Athletic Trainer

Dave Labossiere, 49, has spent more than half his life (27 years) in professional baseball as he enters his 22nd year in the Astros' organization and his 19th on the major league level. He began his athletic training career in the Boston Red Sox minor league system in 1973, spending seven years with affiliates in Winston-Salem, NC, Bristol, CT and Mayaguez, Puerto Rico. In 1980, he joined Houston's Triple A Club in Tucson before joining the parent club in 1983.

Labossiere earned his undergraduate degree from Springfield (MA) College and his master's degree from the University of North Carolina. A frequent lecturer on sports medicine topics, he is a member of NATA, the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association and the Greater Houston Athletic Trainers Society.

In 1997, Labossiere and Assistant Athletic Trainer Rex Jones were recognized as PBAT's Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year.

Labossiere and his wife Stephanie have two sons, Jacob and Joshua.

REX JONES

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Rex Jones, 45, has spent his entire athletic training career in the Astros organization. He earned his call to the big leagues eight seasons ago after spending 16 years in the club's minor league system. From 1988-93, he was the organization's Director of Minor League Athletic Trainers.

Jones started his career in 1978 with the Class A Daytona Beach club, while working toward a bachelor's degree in physical education from Southwest Missouri State. He was head trainer for the Double A Columbus Astros from 1979-82 before being promoted to the Triple A Tucson Toros in 1983.

Jones earned his master's degree from Central Missouri State. He is a member of the Missouri Athletic Trainers Association, Southwest Athletic Trainers Association, Greater Houston Athletic Trainers Society and the Texas Athletic Society.

He and his wife Annie have three children, Megan, Laura and Jeremiah.

DR. GENE COLEMAN

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Dr. Gene Coleman begins his 23rd season with the Astros as the team's strength and conditioning coach and is responsible for the club's in-season and off-season training programs. Suba and his wife Mary Lou live in Ramona, CA during the off-season.

Manager

LARRY DIERKER #49

BORN: 9/22/46

BIRTHPLACE: Hollywood, CA

BATS: Right

HEIGHT: 6-4

2001 OPENING DAY AGE: 54

HOME: Houston, TX

THROWS: Right

WEIGHT: 220

Larry Dierker reached several managerial milestones in his fourth season as Astros skipper, and upon the conclusion of the 2000 campaign, he moved into a third place tie with Harry Walker (355-353) on Houston's all-time managerial wins list. With 355 career wins, he trails only Bill Virdon (544-522) and Art Howe (392-418).

Dierker recorded his 300th managerial win on May 25, 2000, making him the quickest manager to reach the 300-win plateau in club history. In addition, Dierker managed his 500th game on April 19 at Los Angeles, marking only the fifth time in franchise history that a Houston manager has directed 500 or more games (Virdon - 1,066; Howe - 810; Walker - 708; Bob Lillis - 537).

In his first three seasons as skipper of the Houston Astros, Larry Dierker guided his team to three National League Central Division titles with a combined record of 283-203, moving into fourth place on Houston's all-time managerial list. To add to his resume, Dierker reached managerial win number 200 in his 347th game, faster than any of the other six managers who won 200 games during their tenure as Houston's skipper.

Under his direction in 1997, the Astros compiled an 84-78 record to clinch their first-ever NL Central title and their first division title in 11 years. The Astros finished the 1998 season with a 102-60 mark, the most wins ever in a single season for the Houston franchise. Upon the conclusion of the season, Dierker was named the BBWAA's Manager of the Year.

During the 1999 campaign, Dierker watched as no fewer than 14 of his players suffered injuries that landed them on the disabled list for at least 15 days each. Just over two months into the season, Dierker himself was challenged with health problems of his own. On June 13, he collapsed in the dugout after suffering a grand mal seizure in the eighth inning of Houston's game against the San Diego Padres. Two days later, he underwent brain surgery to remove a cluster of blood vessels that had dislodged, causing the seizure. He was forced to miss 27 games as he recovered from his ordeal. During his absence, bench coach Matt Galante assumed the duties of interim manager and guided the team to a 13-14 record during a tough stretch where the Astros placed four key players on the disabled list.

In 1997, Dierker became only the sixth manager in major league history to win a division title in his first year. The last first-year skipper to accomplish this was Hal Lanier, who led the 1986 Astros to a Western Division Championship. In 1999, he became only the fourth manager in major league history to finish in first place in each of his first three seasons, joining Hughie Jennings of Detroit from 1907-09, Ralph Houk of the Yankees from 1961-63 and Jim Frey with the Royals (1980 and second half in 1981) and Cubs (1984).

On October 4, 1996, the Houston Astros made one of the franchise's most storied pitchers and astute observers of the game the club's 12th field manager when they named Dierker to lead the team beginning in 1997.

Dierker's name has been associated with Major League Baseball in Houston almost since the inception of the club. A Los Angeles native who was an All-League baseball and basketball player at Taft (CA) High, he was courted by 17 other big league clubs before signing with the Houston Colt .45s in June of 1964. He made his major league debut in Colt Stadium on his 18th birthday (September 22, 1964) and struck out Willie Mays and Jim Hart in his first inning.

His 14-year pitching career saw him become Houston's first 20-game winner in 1969, the same year he pitched a club record 20 complete games. Dierker was named to the National League All-Star team for the 1969 game in RFK Stadium in Washington and the 1971 contest at Tiger Stadium in Detroit. He tossed the fifth no-hitter in franchise history on July 9, 1976 in the Astrodome against Montreal.

Dierker still ranks among the club's all-time leaders in virtually every pitching category. He holds the all-time marks for the franchise in starts (320), complete games (106), innings (2,295) and shutouts (25). His 137 victories for the Astros ranks second all-time to Joe Niekro, who won 144.

After completing his career on the field in 1977, Dierker directed the Group and Season Sales Office for the Astros. From 1979 until his appointment as manager, he had been the club's principal color analyst on radio and television, in addition to making several network television appearances.

In 1999, Dierker was selected by a panel of experts as one of the five starting pitchers on the franchise's All-Astrodome team.

On January 27, 1999, he was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, sharing the spotlight with other Houston sports figures including Roger Clemens, Clyde Drexler and Hakeem Olajuwon. On November 20, 1999, Dierker was named "Mr. Sportsman" by Interfaith Charities and that same month, on November 30, he was honored by the Houston branch of Prevent Blindness of Texas as the recipient of the Person of Vision award. Most recently, on January 31, 2000, Dierker was honored by the March of Dimes as the recipient of the National Athletic Award.

Dierker and his wife Judy have three children: daughters Ashley and Julia, and son Ryan.

WEIGHT: 185

Although his uniform number 25 was retired on October 3, 1992, that number remains on the field for the fourth year on the back of first base coach Jose "Cheo" Cruz, who begins his fifth season as Larry Dierker's first base coach in 2001.

In a big league career which spanned 19 seasons, Cruz has played in more games than any other player in the history of the Houston franchise (1,870). In 2000, Cruz had a front row seat as current Astro Craig Biggio surpassed many of Cruz' long-standing franchise records, including career at-bats, hits and total bases. Cruz continues to hold the franchise record with 80 triples.

He has been involved with all six of Houston's post season appearances, three as a player (1980, '81 and '86) and three as a coach (1997-99).

Cruz was one of three Houston coaches who was forced to take a leave of absence from the team during the 1999 campaign. He returned to the field on June 14 after missing 34 games due to an irregular heartbeat.

He played for the Astros from 1975-87 after arriving from St. Louis. He finished his career in 1988 by playing in 38 games for the New York Yankees.

His uniform number was retired by the club along with former teammate Mike Scott's number 33. They were the third and fourth numbers retired by the team.

Cruz made the first three trips into post-season play with the Astros as a player, which included hitting .400 (6x15) in the dramatic five-game series against Philadelphia in the 1980 NLCS. He represented the Astros in the All-Star Game in 1980 at Los Angeles and 1985 at Minnesota.

After his playing career he spent time managing in the Texas-Louisiana League and the Puerto Rican Winter League.

In 1999, Cruz was selected by a panel of experts as one of three outfielders on the franchise's All-Astrodome team.

He and his wife Zoraida make their home in Houston. They have four children: Jose Javier, Jose Cheito, Sharika and Jose Enrique.

His son Jose Jr. was the first round selection (third player overall) of the Seattle Mariners in the 1995 June free agent draft and currently plays for the Toronto Blue Jays. Jose Jr. graduated from Bellaire (TX) High School and attended Rice (TX) University. He led Bellaire to the number one national ranking by USA Today and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award at Rice. Jose Enrique is a starter for the nationally-ranked Rice baseball team.

2001 ASTROS

After serving four seasons as the Astros' third base coach, Mike Cubbage will serve as Houston's bench coach in 2001. Cubbage swapped coaching jobs with Matt Galante, who will assume the duties as third base coach.

Before he joined the Astros' coaching staff, he spent seven seasons as a coach for the New York Mets. He was New York's first base coach in 1990 before moving to third base in 1991. He was also the Mets' hitting instructor in each of those seasons. He served as interim manager of the Mets for the final seven games of 1991, guiding the team to a 3-4 mark.

Cubbage compiled a 539-376 record as a manager in New York's minor league system, a .589 winning percentage. He was named the New York-Penn League Manager of the Year at Little Falls in 1983. In 1984 and 1985, he led Class A Lynchburg of the Carolina League to a combined 184-92 record (.667).

In 1984, he was named Carolina League Manager of the Year and paced his team to two divisional championships and the overall playoff title. The team captured two divisional crowns again in 1985, but lost in the playoff round. Cubbage won another half season title at Double A Jackson in 1986 before falling to El Paso in the Texas League finals.

He led Triple A Tidewater to the regular season International League championship in 1987 and advanced to the playoff final for his fourth straight year as a manager.

Cubbage was the second round draft pick of the Washington Senators in the secondary phase of the 1971 June draft. He made his major league debut with the Rangers in 1974 and went hitless in his first 15 at-bats. He broke an 0x17 spell with his first big league hit, a grand slam against the Angels' Bill Singer in 1975.

He was traded to the Twins along with Roy Smalley, Bill Singer and Bill Gideon on June 1, 1976 for Bert Blyleven and Danny Thompson. He set a Minnesota club record with a .971 fielding percentage at third base in 1978. He also hit for the cycle against the Blue Jays on July 27, 1978.

Cubbage graduated from Lane High School in Charlottesville, VA where he was All-State in three sports. He was All-State as a quarterback as a junior and a senior. He helped Lane capture a state record 53 consecutive football games.

He was recipient of the first baseball scholarship at the University of Virginia and was an All-ACC shortstop and played quarterback for the Cavaliers while earning his degree in Education.

He and wife Jan make their off-season home in Keswick, VA.

A member of the Houston organization since 1980, Matt Galante will coach at third base after serving the previous three years as the Astros' bench coach.

Galante's tenure on the field is the longest by any coach in franchise history and has included work with managers Bob Lillis, Hal Lanier, Art Howe, Terry Collins and Larry Dierker.

During the 1999 season, he was thrust into the spotlight during a 27-game stretch during which Larry Dierker was recovering from brain surgery. As interim manager from June 14-July 14, 1999, Galante guided the Astros to a 13-14 record.

Galante managed for five years in the Houston organization before being promoted to the major league level, joining the Astros in 1985. He has continued as a coach with the club every year, with the exception of the 1997 campaign. He served as Special Assistant to General Manager Gerry Hunsicker before moving to New Orleans as manager early in that season. Thrust into the manager's role after only four games, Galante helped lead the team to a record of 73-66 en route to an overall mark of 74-70, a second place Pacific Coast League Western Division finish and a berth in the playoffs.

The Brooklyn native and Staten Island resident guided Double A Columbus from 1980-82, then skippered Triple A Tucson from 1983-84. He started his managing career in 1973 at Newark in the New York-Penn League for the Milwaukee organization. He stayed with the Brewers through 1977, winning a Midwest League title in Danville in 1974.

Galante was a scout and minor league instructor for the Mets in 1978, then managed at Little Falls in 1979.

An All-America second baseman at St. John's University, he was signed by the Yankees in 1966. He played in their system through 1971 before being traded to Milwaukee in 1972. He worked as a player-coach at Evansville in 1973 before beginning his managing career later that year.

He and wife Mary have three children: Mary, Paul and Matthew, Jr. Matthew played college baseball at St. John's and was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 2000 June draft. He is in his second season playing with the Redbirds' minor league system.

2001 ASTROS

Texas native Burt Hooton joined the Astros' coaching staff on June 23, 2000 after serving the first half of the season as pitching coach for Double A Round Rock.

Hooton had spent the previous three seasons as the pitching coach at his alma mater, the University of Texas. He played in the major leagues for 15 years with the Chicago Cubs (1971-75), Los Angeles (1975-84) and Texas (1985). On April 16, 1972, as a 22-year-old rookie in his fourth big league start over two seasons, he threw a no-hitter for the Cubs against Philadelphia.

In 15 major league seasons, Hooton compiled a record of 151-136 (.526) with 1,491 strikeouts over 2,652 innings pitched. Over 11 post-season games, Hooton was 6-3 with a 3.17 ERA. He was 3-3 in six World Series outings, posting a 3.70 ERA.

Following his junior year at UT, Hooton was drafted by the Chicago Cubs in the secondary phase of the 1971 draft, and made his major league debut nine days later. He fanned his first batter — Lou Brock — and went on to set a Cubs rookie record by striking out 15 batters in a game later that season.

Hooton is just one of a handful of players to go directly to the big leagues after being drafted. Since Major League Baseball began its free agent draft in 1965, a total of 17 selections have advanced directly to the major leagues without playing in the minors.

He was traded to the Dodgers in 1975, pitching 10 seasons, recording 11 or more wins seven times, and helping lead Los Angeles into post-season play three years. Hooton was 18-7 in 1975 after being traded to LA from the Cubs for pitchers Geoff Zahn and Eddie Solomon. He was 19-10 for the 1978 Dodgers, posting a 2.71 ERA over 32 starts.

After posting an 11-6 record and career-best 2.28 ERA during the regular season, he was named the MVP of the 1981 National League Championship Series vs. Montreal. He recorded two wins in two starts during which he allowed no earned runs over 14.2 innings pitched. In the World Series that year, he won Game Six over the Yankees to clinch the title for the Dodgers. Overall, he was 4-1 with an 0.82 ERA in five post-season starts that season, including a win over the Astros in the third game of the '81 Division Series.

A 1981 National League All-Star selection, Hooton completed his major league playing career with the Texas Rangers in 1985. He returned to the game in 1988 as a coach for the Class A Salem team of the Northwest League. Two seasons later, Hooton became pitching coach for the Texas League's San Antonio Missions in the Dodgers' organization. After five seasons with San Antonio, Hooton was promoted to pitching coach of the Dodgers' Triple-A club at Albuquerque.

Hooton led Corpus Christi's Richard King High School to a Texas state title as a high school pitcher before beginning his career with the Longhorns, going 15-1. His dominating tenure with the Longhorns culminated in a 35-3 record and 1.14 ERA. He is among UT's all-time pitching leaders in almost every category, including 13 career shutouts. He was the first pitcher ever to be named First Team All-American three consecutive seasons (1969-71).

From 1996-99, Hooton worked at his alma mater as pitching coach prior to joining the Round Rock staff in December of 1999. "Happy" Hooton and his wife Ginger reside in San Antonio during the off-season. The couple has two grown children. He got his nickname from his former manager, Tommy Lasorda, because he seldom looked as if he were happy.

Harry Spilman was named the Astros' hitting coach on June 23, 2000 after serving two-and-a-half years as Houston's minor league field coordinator.

Under Spilman's guidance, the Astros improved their team batting average steadily over the second half of the season. In the final three months of the 2000 campaign, the Astros recorded monthly team batting averages of .291 in July and .288 in August before peaking at .309 in September to end the year on a high note.

The 1999 campaign was a busy season for the former major league infielder as he spent much of the summer on the big league level as the Astros' hitting coach when Tom McCraw was sidelined with health complications.

Spilman, who played in the majors with the Reds (1978-81), Astros (1981-85, 88-89), Tigers (1986) and Giants (1986-88) during his 11-year big-league career, returned to the Houston organization in 1998. He previously had spent seven years as a minor league manager and roving hitting instructor for the Cleveland Indians.

The Georgia native and Indiana resident made his major league debut with the Reds in 1978 on September 11. After playing in 43 games for Cincinnati's 1979 National League West Division title team, he played his first full big league season in 1980 with 65 games for the Reds. Spilman compiled a .237 batting average over his major league career, appearing in post season play following the 1979, '81 and '87 seasons.

Spilman was signed by the Reds as a free agent on June 25, 1974. He was named All-State in baseball from 1973-74 at the Terrell Academy in Dawson, GA. His father, Harry, Sr., was a catcher in the Dodgers' minor league system. His father-in-law, Harley Grossman, was a pitcher for the 1952 Washington Senators.

He and his wife Kim have two children, Kelly and Ryan. The family resides in Mt. Vernon, IN.

2001 ASTROS

John Tamargo is in his second year as the Astros' bullpen coach and his fourth year with the Houston organization.

In 1998, Tamargo managed the New Orleans Zephyrs to the Triple A World Series title, beating Buffalo in the best-of-five series three games to one. Over the regular season, he guided the Zephyrs to a 76-66 mark and the Pacific Coast League's Eastern Division title.

He managed Class A in Kissimmee in the Florida State League in 1997, guiding the Cobras to a second-half title with a 42-22 mark.

Prior to joining the Astros, Tamargo spent 11 years as a manager in the New York Mets minor league system and took his teams to post season action six times. In 1994, he guided Double A Binghamton to the Eastern League title.

As a player, Tamargo hit .242 over 135 big league games with the Cardinals, Giants and Expos from 1976-80.

He and his wife, Vilma, have two sons: John Jr. and Jeff. His son John has played in the Mets' organization for the past five seasons.

2000 SEASON

Hit 30 homers to join Jeff Bagwell, Glenn Davis and Jimmy Wynn as the only Houston players to record multiple 30-homer seasons.

- made a strong case for Comeback Player of the Year as he rebounded from ACL surgery to bat .355, second-highest in the National League...only Todd Helton (.372) had a higher average.
- also ranked among the league leaders in slugging percentage (.623), on-base percentage (.416), home batting average (.353), road batting average (.362), RISP average (.340), vs. righty average (.350), vs. lefty average (.370), RBI ratio (2nd-4.0) and hardest to fan (5th-11.5 plate app. Per K).
- missed playing time early in the season...missed five games from April 15-21 after suffering from a strained right calf...left the game vs. the Cubs on April 26 after reaggravating the calf and was subsequently placed on the DL on April 29, retroactive to April 27.
- activated from the DL on May 14 and made his first start in left field.
- was 4x5 with four RBI on June 27 at Arizona...the four-hit game tied his career-high (14th time) and was his third of the season (also April 25 and June 24).
- hit two, three-run homers in a span of three at-bats vs. Arizona from July 4-5.
- tied his career-highs with two homers (16th time) and five RBI (7th time) on August 14 vs. Pittsburgh...it was his second straight two-homer game...tied the Astros record with four homers over two games.
- had six consecutive hits over two games on August 26 (3x3) and August 27 (3x4) at Montreal.
- batted .385 (37x96) in August with six doubles, nine homers and 26 RBI...tallied a .729 slugging percentage over the 27 games.
- had an equally impressive September, batting .330 (32x97) with seven doubles, four homers and 32 RBI.
- notched a career-high tying three doubles vs. Atlanta on September 2.
- had an x-ray on his right shoulder on September 29, revealing irritation and inflammation in the shoulder...his last game of the 2000 season was September 28 at Pittsburgh.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Missed the entire 1999 season due to a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee.

- injured the knee while working out in his home in the Dominican Republic while preparing for spring training...underwent surgery on March 3 in Vail, Colorado...surgery was performed by Dr. Richard Steadman in Vail, CO.

Established career-bests in nearly every offensive category in 1998, including at-bats (584), runs (104), hits (182), doubles (34), home runs (38) and RBI (124).

- he scored more than 100 runs (104) for the first time in his career...when he scored his 100th on September 11 against the Cardinals, he became the fourth Astro to score 100-or-more in 1998, which allowed Houston to join the 1996 Colorado Rockies (four) and 1953 Brooklyn Dodgers (six) as the only NL teams in the past 50 years to have four-or-more players score 100-plus runs in the same season.
- finished the season ranked among the league leaders in homers (6th-38), RBI (6th-124), total bases (6th-340), extra base hits (8th-77), RBI ratio (8th-4.7), home run ratio (8th-15.4) and slugging percentage (9th-.582).
- finished third in balloting for the NL Most Valuable Player honor behind only Sammy Sosa and Mark McGwire and won his second Silver Slugger award by The Sporting News for being the best offensive player at his position.
- fourteen of his 38 home runs either tied games or gave Houston the lead.
- on July 26 at San Diego, he broke Trevor Hoffman's streak of saves in consecutive appearances at 41 when he hit the first pitch in the top of the ninth for a home run which tied the game 4-4...on August 15 in the Astrodome, he opened the bottom of the ninth with a homer on a 3-2 pitch from Chicago's Rod Beck that tied the game 4-4.
- by knocking in 124 runs, he became the first Astro other than Jeff Bagwell to lead the club in RBI since 1990 when Franklin Stubbs' 71 led the club...Bagwell had led the Astros in RBI in each of the previous seven seasons (1991-97), beginning with his Rookie of the Year campaign in 1991 with 82.
- his second, five-RBI game of the season came on April 26 at Montreal...both matched his career-best for RBI in a game, marking the fifth and sixth times he had done it.
- was named NL Player of the Week from May 25-31 for hitting .579 (11x19) with two doubles, two triples, two homers and nine RBI.

- had a pair of nine-game hitting streaks, which were his best of the season...the first was from May 9-17 when he batted .500 (16x32), and the second from August 7-15 when he hit at a .533 pace (16x30).
- of the 16 hits in his second nine-game streak, seven were home runs...he had 14 RBI over the nine contests.
- he had four hits on July 27 against Florida and August 22 at Chicago, which matched his career-high...they were the 10th and 11th, four-hit games of his career.
- had three, two home run games, giving him 12 for his career...the first came on May 31 at Colorado, the second on June 30 in the Astrodome against the White Sox and the third on August 15 in the Astrodome against the Cubs.
- he homered in four straight games from July 26-29, raising his total for the month to 10, which was the most he had ever hit in a month...he followed with a 10-homer month in August, which included roundtrippers in three straight games from August 9-11.
- was a member of the NL All-Star team for the third time in his career with his third different team...he was part of the 1994 squad as a Montreal Expo, the 1997 team as a Florida Marlin and the 1998 club as a Houston Astro.

Led the 1997 World Champion Florida Marlins with 15 RBI in the post season, with nine occurring during the World Series.

- tied Gary Sheffield for the club lead with three post season homers, and tied Devon White for the team lead by connecting for four doubles...all three home runs and two of the four doubles came during the Fall Classic.
- delivered game-winning RBI single in the bottom of the ninth inning in Game Two of the Division Series to lead the Marlins to a 7-6 victory over San Francisco.
- with Florida trailing 2-0 and having collected just two hits in the Game Three clincher at San Francisco, Alou began the decisive four-run rally with a two-out single in the top of the sixth inning and scored on Devon White's grand slam.
- collected a three-run double in the top of the first inning of Game One of the NLCS and later added a fourth RBI in Florida's 5-3 win at Atlanta.
- broke a 1-1 tie in Game One of the World Series with a fourth inning, three-run homer off the left field foul pole, giving Florida a lead they would not relinquish.
- brought the Marlins back from a 4-2 deficit with a sixth-inning, three-run homer in Game Five of the World Series...later in that same game, gave Florida some much-needed insurance with a single, stolen base and run scored in the eighth inning and an RBI-single in the ninth of the Marlins' 8-7 victory.
- in Game Seven of the World Series and Florida trailing 2-1 in the bottom of the ninth, Alou led off the inning with a single and scored the game-tying run on Craig Counsell's sacrifice fly.
- hit .321 (9x28) with three home runs, nine RBI and six runs scored in the World Series...hit .228 (13x57) in the post season with three homers and 15 RBI.
- named to the NL All-Star team for the second time in his career and collected one of the senior circuit's three hits in the game at Cleveland.
- became the third Florida player to homer in his first at-bat for the Marlins on April 1 against the Cubs...he was the first Marlin ever to accomplish the feat on Opening Day.
- hit his 100th career home run off Pittsburgh's Steve Cooke on August 17.
- he hit two home runs in a game three times, including April 22 at Colorado, July 27 at St. Louis and July 29 against Cincinnati.
- tied Gary Sheffield's 1994 Marlins' club record with RBI in eight consecutive games from June 8-16...he collected 15 total RBI during that streak.

Played in a career-high 143 games for Montreal in 1996, establishing personal bests in at-bats (540), runs (87), hits (152) and RBI (96).

- led NL rightfielders in fielding percentage (.995)...started games at all three outfield positions, including 109 in right, 27 in left and five in center.
- collected his 500th career hit with a home run against the Reds on April 25 (Smiley).
- was on the DL from July 8-22 with a strained right hamstring...missed 15 games during the season due to various injuries.
- was the final regular season hitter in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, 30 years after his uncle Matty became the first hitter in the stadium's inaugural season...his father Felipe was the Braves lead-off batter in the same game.
- suspended for actions taken in a bench-clearing brawl against the Astros on August 12...appeal was dropped and he served a four-game suspension from August 23-27.

Tied for the Expos' team lead in home runs (14) in 1995 and was second in RBI despite missing 51 games due to injuries to both shoulders and a family tragedy.

- suffered a torn right bicep muscle on June 6 at Los Angeles making an off balance throw...damaged left rotator cuff while diving for a ball against the Phillies on July 13.
- pulled himself in the first inning at New York on August 16 after suffering pain in his right shoulder, then left the next game on August 18 at Montreal for the same reason...placed on the 15-day DL on August 26, retroactive to August 19, and returned for one game on September 9.
- was placed on the 60-day DL on September 11 and underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair a labrum tear in his right rotator cuff...underwent the same surgery on October 3 to repair the left cuff.
- missed six games from July 28-August 3 to attend the funerals of his father-in-law, Percio Melo (54), and his brother-in-law, Julio Antonio Melo (32), who were both murdered in an armed hold-up at the family store in Brooklyn, NY.

Capped his best major league season in 1994 by being named winner of the Buck Canel Award as the Latin American Player of the Year as selected by the BBWAA.

- finished third in balloting for the NL Most Valuable Player honor, was named Expos' Player of the Year, won his first Silver Slugger award and was named to The Sporting News post season NL All-Star team.

- overcame a career threatening injury on September 16, 1993, by rehabilitating himself through off-season training and therapy in Montreal, the Dominican Republic and West Palm Beach, until being inserted in a Grapefruit League game on March 24.
- highlighted his comeback by being named to the NL All-Star team, then hitting a 10th inning, game-winning RBI double off Jason Bere, which scored Tony Gwynn from first base...the game was played in Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium, where he started his big league career.
- named NL Player of the Week from June 6-12, hitting .483 with five home runs and 15 RBI...hit two home runs with a career-high five RBI on June 6 against the Astros, then matched both totals three days later on June 9 against the Mets.

Played his first season as Montreal's starting leftfielder in 1993.

- tied an Expos record with home runs in four consecutive games from July 6-9 (Mitch Webster in 1985; Andre Dawson in 1985 and 1986)...hit a total of six home runs in the streak, including two on July 6 and July 9.
- named NL Player of the Week from July 5-11, batting .370 (10x27) with six home runs and 11 RBI.
- his season ended on September 16 at St. Louis when he suffered a fractured fibula and dislocation of his left ankle...the injury occurred when his spikes caught in the artificial turf as he came to a quick stop after rounding first base and his left leg collapsed underneath him.
- he underwent ligament surgery on his ankle on September 18, which was performed by Dr. Larry Coughlin and Dr. Mitch Rubinovich...fixation screws were removed on November 16.

Earned a spot on the Opening Day roster for the Expos in 1992 and played a full major league season after missing the previous year entirely.

- finished second to the Dodgers' Eric Karros in NL Rookie of the Year balloting...led all rookies in batting, slugging and on-base percentage while finishing second to Karros in RBI.
- hit his first major league home run on May 27 against Houston's Mark Portugal and first grand slam on September 23 against the Pirates' Roger Mason...his first RBI came on April 26 at St. Louis.
- named to the Topps Major League Rookie All-Star team.

Missed the entire 1991 season after surgery on April 10 by Dr. Frank Jobe to repair a superior labrum tear and rotator cuff tear in his right shoulder, an injury he suffered while diving back into a base on a pickoff attempt in November, 1990, while playing in the Dominican Winter League.

Played for two major league teams and three minor league teams during the 1990 season.

- he was called up by the Pirates from Double A Harrisburg on July 26 and made his major league debut that night against the Phillies...less than 24 hours later, his cousin, Mel Rojas, was called up by the Expos.
- collected his first big league hit, a single, off Philadelphia's Bruce Ruffin on July 28.
- contract was sent outright to Triple A Buffalo on July 29...he was traded to Montreal on August 16 and assigned to Triple A Indianapolis.
- his contract was recalled by Montreal on September 1.

Was named Salem's Player of the Month in April of 1989 after batting .359 in 20 games.

- led the club in extra-base hits (45) and tied for the home run lead (14), despite being called up to Double A on July 12.
- named to the Carolina League post season All-Star team.

Finished second in the South Atlantic League batting race in 1988 for Augusta, while ranking third in on-base percentage and fifth in slugging.

- fractured the ring finger on his left hand on August 8.
- earned a spot on the league's post-season All-Star team.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Alou and his wife Austria have three sons, Moises Felipe (January 19, 1992), Percio (September 14, 1995) and Kirby Thomas (October 9, 1997).

- is the son of Montreal manager Felipe Alou and nephew of former Astro Jesus Alou and former major leaguer Matty Alou...is the cousin of relief pitcher Mel Rojas.
- is one of only six players in major league history to be managed by his father...the others were Earle Mack (father Connie), Dale Berra (Yogi), Cal Jr. and Billy Ripken (Cal Sr.) and Brian McRae (Hal).
- graduated from C.E.E. High School in Santo Domingo.
- did not play organized baseball until attending Canada (Can-YA-da) College in Redwood City, CA...hit a league-leading .447 with nine home runs in 1986.

2001 ASTROS

2000 SEASON

Appeared in 150 games at catcher, starting 140, the most ever by a Tigers' catcher...has caught at least 100 games in all seven of his full major league seasons.

- set career-highs for games (150), at-bats (523), hits (139), runs (75) and walks (69)...tied career-high with 25 doubles for the second straight-season
- threw out 32 of 74 baserunners attempting to steal...his 43.2% success rate was tops in the AL and 2nd in baseball to St. Louis' Mike Matheny (51.1%) (not including pitcher-assisted caught stealing).
- finished in a tie for 5th in fielding percentage in the AL (.992)...committed eight errors in 150 games, three from catcher's interference.
- drove in five runs for the third time in his career on June 9 vs. St. Louis...last five RBI game was August 23, 1998 with Houston.
- batted .321 (44x137) versus left-handed pitching—which ranked fourth on the team...posted a .422 on-base percentage vs. lefties.
- combined to post a .300 batting average (45x150) when batting from the eight and ninth spots in the order.
- grounded into 19 double plays, tied for ninth-most in the AL.
- tied career-best with four hits on June 13 vs. Toronto...it was his seventh time with four hits, the previous coming on August 10, 1999 at Texas.
- batted .333 (30x90) in the month of August — 25 of 30 hits were singles.
- boasted a .325 batting average (26x80) when putting the first pitch in play...also hit .333 (10x30) when hitting an 0-2 pitch, which placed him tied for first in the AL.
- finished the season strong, hitting .303 (37x122) in his last 38 games, including 19 runs, eight doubles, a home run and 13 RBI.
- appeared in the field at a position other than catcher for the first time since July 8, 1995 (San Diego-1B) when he moved from catcher to third base to second base then to first base on October 1 vs. Minnesota...moves allowed Shane Halter to appear in all nine positions in the game.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Posted career-best numbers with a .275 batting average, 126 hits, nine home runs, 54 RBI and 170 total bases in 1999 after being acquired from Houston on January 14.

- played in his first All-Star Game in Boston catching the game's final four innings, going 0x1 at the plate and throwing out Atlanta's Brian Jordan in the seventh attempting to steal.
- led the AL and ranked second in the majors in fielding percentage among catchers with a .997 mark...committed just two errors in 124 games that season and amassed a 60-game errorless streak from July 6 to the end of the season.
- threw out 32 of 91 baserunners attempting to steal...his 35.2% success rate was fourth-best in the AL and fifth in the majors (not including pitcher-assisted caught stealing).
- started 121 games at catcher.
- reached double-figures in steals for the third straight season and the fourth time in his career...his 12 steals were four shy of his career-best set in 1995 with the Padres.

Placed second in voting for the Rawlings Gold Glove for National League catchers in 1998, six votes behind the Dodgers' Charles Johnson.

- was behind the plate in 124 games for Houston.
- thirty-six percent of runners attempting to steal while he was catching were nailed, tying him for fifth among the 27 big league catchers with at least 90 games caught.
- had a season-best eight-game hit streak from August 22-September 2 (.452, 14x31)...posted his fifth career four-hit game and second five-RBI effort August 23 at Chicago.
- appeared in all four of the Astros' Division Series games versus San Diego...was 2x9 at the plate.

Played in a career-high 130 games in 1997 for Houston when he surpassed 100 hits, 20 doubles and 40 RBI for the first time.

- led the NL in percentage of baserunners caught stealing with pitcher-assisted caught stealing at 49.5 percent (46x93) and without pitcher-assisted caught stealing at 44.7 percent (38x85), ahead of Florida's Charles Johnson in both instances.
- started 113 games behind the plate, the most starts by a Houston catcher since Craig Biggio started 131 games at backstop in 1991.
- had a season-high 10-game hitting streak from April 19-May 3, during which he batted .449 (18x43).
- kept his season average above the .300 mark through the game of June 6 at San Diego, when he was hitting .306 (48x157).
- had his first career five-RBI day on July 14 at Wrigley Field, which included his first career grand slam in the top of the seventh off Kent Bottenfield.
- went 2x5 with a double and two RBI in two Division Series games against the Braves.

Started 69 games for Detroit in 1996 after coming over in a June trade ...was behind the plate for 26 of the club's 53 wins.

- Detroit pitchers posted a 5.50 ERA with him catching (380ER/621.2IP), compared to 7.05 for all other receivers (635ER/811.0IP).
- all four of the Tigers' shutouts came with him behind the plate, including back-to-back efforts by Felipe Lira and Brian Williams on June 21-22, respectively.

Hit a career-best .293 in 1995, the best average by a Padres catcher since Benito Santiago hit .300 in 1987.

- started 92 of the Padres 144 games behind the plate...was one of just five catchers in the league to play more than 100 games.
- stole a career-high 16 bases in 21 attempts (76%)...the 16 steals were the most by a Padres receiver since Santiago swiped 21 in 1987 and were the most by a major league catcher since Houston's Craig Biggio had 19 in 1991.
- finished second in the National League by throwing out 39 percent (32x83) of runners attempting to steal (behind the Marlins' Charles Johnson with 43 percent).
- tied for the league lead with 63 assists and led all catchers with 14 double plays.
- missed four starts with lacerations on his right hand (made a pinch-running appearance and saw his only action at first base on July 8 at Houston).
- had a career-high 12-game hitting streak from July 28-August 15, going 15x38 (.395) with nine RBI.
- finished the season strong, batting at a .304 clip (17x56) in his final 17 games...drove in 22 runs over his last 43 contests after having just 12 RBI in his first 60 games.

Started 94 of the Padres' 117 games behind the plate in 1994.

- enjoyed his best success after the All-Star Game, batting .308 (22x72) in 22 games.
- defensively, he caught 28 percent (25x97) of runners attempting to steal.

Opened the 1993 campaign at Triple A Colorado Springs after being taken in the Expansion Draft but made his major league debut after being traded to San Diego.

- was selected by the Rockies from the Yankees in the third round of the draft...was traded to San Diego on July 26 and recalled immediately by the parent club.
- made his debut on July 28 at Chicago and was the primary San Diego catcher for the remainder of the season ...walked in his first plate appearance then singled off Greg Hibbard for his first big league hit.
- started with one hit in his first 12 at-bats before going 11x33 (.333), including a pair of three-hit games.
- connected for his first career homer on August 4 against the Giants' Greg Brummett.

Opened the 1992 campaign at Double A Albany in the Yankees' farm system but was promoted to Triple A Columbus after just five games...swiped 19 bases, the most for an International League catcher since 1988.

Was the only player on his Class A Prince William club in 1991 with a batting average better than .300 (.304).

- earned a mid-season promotion to Double A...had a combined .285 average with 59 RBI and 31 stolen bases at the two stops.

Paced 1990 Carolina League receivers with a .993 fielding mark in 107 games.

Spent his second pro season in 1989 at Class A Oneonta, hitting .261 in 52 games.

Led 1988 Gulf Coast League catchers in games (43), total chances (434), putouts (378) and assists (47)

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

He, wife Liz, and daughters Sophie (3/13/98) and Abigail (7/27/99) make their off-season home in San Diego.

- was named the Chesire (CT) area High School Player of the Year in his senior season...earned All-State honors his junior and senior years.
- was teammate of National Hockey League defenseman Brian Leetch on the 1984 baseball team that won the Connecticut high school championship.
- graduated from Dartmouth (NH) College with a BA in government.

2000 SEASON

Finished among the league leaders in home runs (3rd-47), RBI (3rd-132), runs (1st-152), walks (3rd-107), home batting average (6th-.353), on base percentage (T6-.424), total bases (4th-363), slugging percentage (8th-.615), extra base hits (4th-85), vs. lefty average (8th-.366), games played (T8-159), RBI ratio (T7-4.5), home run ratio (5th-12.6) and hit by pitch (T5-15).

- was voted team MVP by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA for the second straight year and the sixth time overall.
- the Opening Day first baseman for 10 consecutive years.
- scored 152 runs on the year, passing Craig Biggio's previous franchise record of 146 runs in 1997.
- his 152 runs scored tied him for the fourth highest runs total in NL history and the 10th highest total in major league history...the other players to score at least 152 runs in a season include Lefty O'Doul (1929), Woody English (1930), Al Simmons (1930) and Chuck Klein (1932).
- is the 17th major league player overall and just the third since 1950 to score 500 runs over a four-year period, joining teammate Craig Biggio (1995-98) and Mickey Mantle (1954-57; 1955-58)...his 528 runs scored since 1997 are the most by a major league player over a four-year period since Ted Williams' 541 from 1946-49.
- logged his 300th career home run on August 19 to become just the 87th player in major league history to reach such a feat...notched his third career 40-homer season.
- set a single-season franchise record with 47 homers, passing his previous record of 43, which he reached in 1997.
- his club-record 47 home runs led the club for the sixth time in his career (also 1991 with 15; 1994 with 39; 1996 with 31; 1997 with 43; and 1999 with 42).
- set a club record with 28 homers hit at home...shattered his previous record of 23 Houston homers in 1994.
- is the first Astro and just the 32nd major leaguer to record five straight 30-homer seasons (1996-2000).
- has posted five straight 30-homer, 100-run, 100-RBI seasons and becomes just the eighth player in major league history to do so...the list includes six Hall of Famers (Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Jimmie Foxx, Ralph Kiner, Hank Aaron, Willie Mays) and two active players (Frank Thomas, Bagwell).
- hit two home runs in a game four times, bringing his career total of multi-homer games to 22...his final two-homer game of 2000 occurred on August 19 vs. the Brewers, when he bashed his 299th and 300th career longballs.
- is the first player in NL history and only the fifth in ML history to post a 45-homer, 100-RBI, 150 run season...the others: Ruth, Joe DiMaggio, Foxx and Gehrig.
- joins Aaron, DiMaggio, Frank Robinson and Williams as the only five players to ever have recorded 300 homers, 1,000 RBI and 1,000 runs in their first 10 years of Major League Baseball.
- is also the only Houston player to have 100-or-more RBI in five consecutive seasons...he has driven in 100-plus runs six times in his career (1994; 1996-00).
- notched a career-high 183 hits...tied his career-long hitting streak of 18 games (1994) from August 2-20.
- had three other 10-game hitting streaks, the fifth season during which he had multiple double-digit hitting streaks...has had a hit streak of 10 or more games every year of his 10-year career, the most consecutive seasons with a double-digit hit streak in club history.
- reached base in all but 13 of his 159 games played....only twice did he go consecutive games without a hit (September 24-26; July 13-14).
- had a record breaking month of August, setting the club single-month record for RBI (34) while batting .380 (38x100) with seven doubles and 12 homers...scored 31 runs and had an .810 slugging percentage.
- did not play on May 21 at Montreal to break a streak of 312 consecutive games played dating back to May 27, 1998.
- drove in a career-high seven runs on August 13 at Philadelphia, tying the club record (Rafael Ramirez, August 29, 1989; Pete Incaviglia, June 14, 1992)...was 4x5 in that game with two homers and three runs scored.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Winner of The Sporting News Silver Slugger Award as the best offensive player at his position in 1999, during which he set franchise records for career home runs (263), RBI (961), road home runs (137), extra-base hits (598) and walks (885).

- finished second in balloting for NL MVP with 276 points behind only Atlanta's Chipper Jones (432).
- was named to TSN's All-Star team for the fourth time in his career (1994, '96, '97, '99)...was also selected to the Associated Press Major League All-Star team...was named team MVP by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA.

- finished among the league leaders in runs (1st-143), walks (1st-149), home runs (T5th-42), on base percentage (2nd-.454), RBI (6th-126), total bases (8th-332), slugging percentage (7th-.591), extra-base hits (6th-77), games played (T1st-162), intentional walks (3rd-16), RBI ratio (T7th-4.5) and home run ratio (T6th-13.4).
- played in all 162 regular season games for the fourth time in his career (also 1992, '96, '97).
- tied a major league record with six walks (two intentional) on August 20 at Florida and surpassed Jimmy Wynn's club record of 847 career walks...walked twice during the last game of the regular season on October 3 to pass Wynn (148 in 1969) for the single-season franchise record.
- hit 42 homers and stole 30 bases to mark the second time in his career he has reached the "40-30" mark (also 1997)...he remains the only Astro to have accomplished the "30-30" feat.
- became one of only seven major leaguers to reach the 40-30 mark...joined Barry Bonds (1996 & '97) to become one of only two players in MLB history to have done it twice.
- broke Wynn's 1967 franchise record of 22 single-season road home runs with the first of two homers on July 31 at San Diego (Miceli)...tied the major league mark with 21 road homers before the All-Star break...had 30 road home runs in 1999.
- had four multiple home run games to bring his career total to 18.
- reached extra base hit number 562 with a double in the third inning on June 29 against St. Louis to break Cesar Cedeno's career franchise record...tied the mark with his 24th home run on June 27 vs. Cincinnati.
- hit three home runs in successive at-bats and collected six RBI on June 9 at the Chicago White Sox, the fourth, six-RBI game of his career...became just the 13th player in MLB history and the first Astro to have a pair of three-homer games in a single season...also hit three homers with six RBI on April 21 at the Chicago Cubs.
- with three homers vs. the Cubs on April 21 and three vs. the White Sox on June 9, he became only the third player in major league history ever to hit three home runs in two games in the same city in the same season...he joined St. Louis' Johnny Mize, who did it for the Cardinals in Sportsman's Park in 1938, and Ralph Kiner, who also had a pair of three-homer games for the Pirates at Forbes Field in 1947.
- upped his Astros record to a career total of three, three-homer games...his other three-homer game was on June 24, 1994 vs. Los Angeles.
- hit his 224th career home run on April 21 at Chicago (NL) to pass Wynn (223; 1963-73) for the most career homers by a Houston player.
- drove in six runs on June 9 to mark the fourth time in his career he has recorded six RBI in a single game.
- fell just shy of tying a major league record as he hit a home run in 17 of 19 stadiums (14 NL parks, three AL)...he homered in every ballpark he played in with the exception of Pittsburgh and Montreal...the major league record for homers in different ballparks is 18, set by Sammy Sosa in 1998 when he hit a homer in 16 NL and two AL parks.

Finished the season ranked among the league leaders in runs (3rd-124), walks (3rd-109), on-base percentage (6th-.424), RBI ratio (10th-4.9) and home run ratio (10th-15.9) in 1998.

- he had three multiple home runs games...he hit two home runs on June 24 at Colorado, July 30 versus the White Sox and on August 7 against the Phillies.
- belted the first grand slam of his career on September 8 in the Astrodome against Cincinnati, a third inning shot off Rick Krivda...the slam was the 218th homer of his career and was part of a six-RBI game, which matched his career-best (also 6 on June 24, 1994 against Los Angeles).
- started the season slowly, batting only .237 in March/April (23x97) and .234 in May (11x47)...at the end of the second month, he had only seven homers and 22 RBI.
- suffered a severe laceration on his right knee in a home plate collision with Florida's Charles Johnson on May 12 in the Astrodome...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on May 13 and missed 15 games before returning to the lineup on May 29 at Colorado.
- came to life in June, batting .337 (35x104) with 10 doubles, 10 homers and 28 RBI in 27 games...he had at least one hit in 23 of the 27 contests, including a season-best, 13-game hitting streak from the 12th-24th, over which he batted .400 (20x50).
- he had the first of his three, five-RBI games on June 24 at Colorado...he also had five RBI on August 7 at home against the Phillies and on August 18 at Philadelphia.

Was named winner of The Sporting News Silver Slugger Award in 1997 as the best offensive player at his position in a year which saw him establish club single-season records for home runs (43), RBI (135), total bases (335) and extra-base hits (85).

- he also became the first "30-30" player in franchise history on September 22 at Cincinnati when his first inning steal of third base gave him 30 for the season...he finished with a career-high 31 stolen bases.
- he became the first "30-30" player in major league history to play exclusively at first base...Cleveland's Joe Carter in 1987 played 84 games at first base, 62 in the outfield and was also a designated hitter.
- finished third in balloting for the NL MVP award with 233 points behind only winner Larry Walker and second-place finisher Mike Piazza.
- he finished ranked among NL leaders in runs (5th-109), doubles (T7-40), home runs (2nd-43), RBI (2nd-135), total bases (T4-335), walks (2nd-127), on-base percentage (4th-.425), slugging percentage (3rd-.592), extra-base hits (2nd-85), intentional walks (2nd-27) and hit by pitch (6th-16).
- his 135 RBI made him the first player in club history to drive in 100-or-more runs in three different seasons (also 1994 and 1996).
- he did not go more than four games without driving in a run in 1997...his average of an RBI per every 4.2 at-bats was the best in the NL.

- he hit multiple home runs in three games, including May 19 at Philadelphia, July 6 against Cincinnati and August 9 at New York (NL).
- his first home run on May 19 at Philadelphia came in the sixth inning off Calvin Maduro and was the 1,000th hit of his major league career.
- was voted the NL's starter at first base (1,494,752 votes) for the All-Star Game at Cleveland...it was his third appearance in the Mid-Summer Classic and first as a starter.
- played in all 162 regular season games for the second consecutive season and third time in his career (also 1992).

Established club single-season records for doubles (48) in 1996.

- finished the season ranked among NL leaders in batting (8th-.315), RBI (T6-120), RBI ratio (6th-4.7), doubles (1st-48), extra-base hits (4th-81), total bases (T9-324), slugging (6th-.570), on-base (3rd-.451), walks (3rd-135), intentional walks (3rd-20) and hit by pitch (T9-10).
- became only the sixth "20-20" player in club history with his 31 home runs and 21 stolen bases...he stole his 20th base on August 24 against St. Louis.
- collected his 500th career RBI on May 7 at Philadelphia in a game in which he belted two home runs and had four RBI.
- named to the NL All-Star team for the second time in his career (also 1994).
- named NL Player of the Month for May when he hit .360 (36x100) with 10 homers and 31 RBI in 28 games.
- tied a major league record with four doubles in a game at San Francisco on June 14...it was the 37th time it had happened, the 20th in NL history.
- reached base 324 times in 162 games (179 hits, 135 walks, 10 hit by pitch)...he failed to reach base in only 11 games.
- his 31 home runs led the club for the third time (1991 with 15; 1994 with 39)...he became only the third player to hit 30-or-more home runs twice for Houston, joining Jimmy Wynn (1967, 1969) and Glenn Davis (1986, 1988-89).
- had a pair of two home run games, including May 7 at Philadelphia and May 29 at Pittsburgh.
- his first home run on May 29 at Pittsburgh was into the upper deck off of Danny Darwin (estimated at 459 feet)...he joined the Pirates' Willie Stargell (four times) as the only players ever to homer into Three Rivers Stadium's upper deck more than once.
- named the team's MVP for the fourth time in his career by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA.

Became the first player in club history to lead the team in RBI in five consecutive seasons in 1995, despite missing the entire month of August due to an injury.

- ranked among NL leaders in walks (5th-79) and on-base percentage (6th-.399).
- he and Derek Bell set a club record with 31 RBI apiece in July...the previous mark was 29, which was shared by Jimmy Wynn (June 1967), Jose Cruz (June 1984) and Bagwell (July 1994).
- the two-month offensive surge also raised his average 100 points to .283 through his first at-bat on July 30 at San Diego...in his second plate appearance in that game, he was hit by a pitch on the left hand by Brian Williams and suffered a fracture of the fourth metacarpal bone.
- the injury marked the third consecutive season in which he suffered a fractured bone in his left hand after being hit by a pitch (also September 12, 1993 at Philadelphia by Ben Rivera; August 10, 1994 versus San Diego by Andy Benes)...he was placed on the 15-day DL on July 31 and was not activated until September 1.
- after being activated from the DL, he returned with a protective device designed by Douglas Protective Equipment of Houston sewn on his left batting glove....the pad utilizes the same air management protection the company incorporates in other protective pads, including football shoulder pads and umpire chest protectors, with a plastic outer shell which spreads impact out over a 360 degree area to protect the hand.
- he homered in three consecutive games for the fourth time in his career from July 14-16, and never went more than 12 games without a home run.

Was a unanimous selection by the Baseball Writers Association of America in 1994 as National League MVP, the first player in Houston franchise history to win the award.

- only two other National League players had been unanimous selections since the honor was established in 1931 (Orlando Cepeda in 1967 and Mike Schmidt in 1980).
- earned further recognition as The Sporting News, USA TODAY Baseball Weekly, Baseball Digest and Associated Press Player of the Year.
- named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger Team as the best offensive player at his position.
- became the first player to finish first or second in his league in average, runs, RBI and homers since Carl Yastrzemski in 1967 (the last National League player was Willie Mays in 1955).
- was the first player to lead the National League in runs scored and RBI since Mike Schmidt in 1981.
- became one of eight NL players to win both MVP and Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year Awards, accomplishing the feat in just four seasons (only two have done it in less time: Jackie Robinson and Johnny Bench earned MVP honors in their third seasons).
- named team MVP for the third time in his career by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA...became just the second player to win the award three-or-more times (Jose Cruz was selected four times).
- homered at least once against every NL opponent, including six versus the Dodgers.
- became the first player in franchise history to lead the league in RBI, runs (104), total bases, slugging (.750) and extra-base hits.
- also finished among NL leaders in batting average (2nd-.368), hits (T2-147), on-base percentage (2nd-.451), multi-hit games (T5-41), walks (5th-65) and sacrifice flies (3rd-10).

- named to the All-Star squad for the first time...went 2x4 in the game at Pittsburgh (both singles) and scored a run.
- earned his first Rawlings Gold Glove Award, leading all major league first basemen with 120 assists.
- earned NL Player of the Month honors in June and July, the first NL player since Bobby Bonilla in April and May of 1988 to win the award back-to-back...was named the league's Player-of-the-Week on three occasions.
- shattered the franchise record for homers in a month by blasting 13 in June to go along with his .394 average and 28 RBI.
- hit .409 (36x88) with 11 homers and 29 RBI in July, with his RBI total tying the single-month franchise record.
- was the first major leaguer since 1980 and just the fifth in National League history to play in more than 100 games and average more than one RBI per contest.
- hit two home runs in an inning for the 30th time in major league history on June 24 versus Los Angeles (sixth inning)...tied a club record with a third homer in his next at-bat and became just the second player ever to hit three in a game at the Astrodome.
- his eight total bases in the inning tied the major league record, and his 13 total bases in the game tied the club all-time mark...set a career high with six RBI in the game.
- posted five multiple-homer games, all coming in his final 74 games.
- broke the fourth metacarpal bone in his left hand when he was hit by a pitch from the Padres' Andy Benes on August 10.

Finished sixth in the NL in batting (.320) in 1993 despite missing the final 20 games of the season with a broken bone in his left hand.

- also ranked among league leaders in doubles (9th-37), multiple-hit games (T5-54), sacrifice flies (T2-9) and slugging percentage (9th-.516).
- voted the Astros' Most Valuable Player by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA on November 3.
- suffered his season-ending injury on September 12 at Philadelphia when he was hit by a pitch from Ben Rivera...the pitch fractured the fifth metacarpal bone in his left hand.
- the injury ended his streak of consecutive games played at 304, which included every game of the 1992 season and the first 142 of 1993.
- earned NL Player of the Week honors from May 17-23 (.520; 13x25), then was named NL Player of the Month for the first time in his career.
- hit only the 10th Loge Level home run at Jack Murphy Stadium on May 22 off Andy Benes (estimated at 419 feet).

Ranked among league leaders in RBI (6th-96), walks (7th-84) runs (T9th-87) and sacrifice flies (1st-13) in 1992.

- also ranked among the league's top 10 in intentional walks (T7th-13), at-bats per RBI (T8th-6.1) and hit by pitch (2nd-12).
- had a career-high five hits, including a game-winning, three-run, 11th-inning homer on September 15 vs. the Giants...first Astro with five hits in a game since Billy Hatcher on May 20, 1988 at St. Louis...also had four, four-hit games.
- had the first two-home run game of his career on May 10 at Pittsburgh, collecting the first as a pinch-hitter in the eighth inning, then winning the game with a two-run shot in the 10th.
- hit only the seventh Club Level (press box level) home run in the history of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium on July 29 off Tom Glavine (est. 440 feet).

First Houston player ever to win the BBWAA's National League Rookie of the Year award, capturing 23-of-24 first place votes in 1991.

- was also named the club's Most Valuable Player after leading the Astros in home runs (15), RBI (82), walks (75), slugging (.437) and on-base (.387) percentage.
- named Baseball America's Major League Rookie of the Year, the top rookie position player on The Sporting News post season All-Star team and was part of the TOPPS Major League Rookie All-Star team.
- .294 average tied for 13th in the NL and was one point behind All-Star Craig Biggio's club-best .295...led the major leagues by being hit by pitch a club record 13 times...his 82 RBI set a club record for rookies.
- .387 on-base percentage ranked fifth in the league...156 games tied for eighth and 75 walks tied for 10th...116 strikeouts led the club and tied for seventh in the league.
- homered in consecutive games on five occasions – April 15-16 at Atlanta; June 29-30 at Cincinnati and July 2 at San Francisco; July 30-31 vs. St. Louis; August 22-23 vs. San Francisco and Montreal; and September 4 and 6 at New York and vs. Philadelphia...his April 15 homer off Kent Mercker was the first of his career.
- hit only the ninth homer into the upper deck at Three Rivers Stadium on May 5 against Bob Kipper (estimated at 456 feet) in a pinch-hitting appearance.

Named Most Valuable Player of the Eastern League in 1990 after hitting .333 for Double A New Britain.

- lost the league batting title by one point, but still led in hits (160) and total bases (220), and tied for the league lead in doubles (34).
- opened the season hitting .294 in April and .280 in May before batting .393 (44x112) in June...named TOPPS Player of the Month in July after hitting .355... named to the TOPPS Double A All-Star team.
- after his trade to the Houston organization, he hit .366 at the Florida Instructional League, leading the team in doubles (7), homers (5) and RBI (22).

After signing with the Red Sox in 1989, he spent time in the Gulf Coast and Florida State leagues.

- named FSL Player of the Week for the week ending July 20, 1989, for Winter Haven...had 65 hits in 64 games for the Boston Class A club.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

- Selected by the Red Sox in the fourth round of the June 1989 draft after playing three years at the University of Hartford.
- hit better than .400 in each of his three seasons at Hartford and had a .413 career batting average...hit safely in 87-of-112 collegiate games...a two-time ECAC Player of the Year.
 - was inducted into the university's Alumni Athletic Hall of Fame on January 25, 1997.
 - received the Middlesex County (CT) Chamber of Commerce Role Model of the Year award on "Jeff Bagwell Day" on January 29, 1999...also had his uniform #9 retired by his alma mater, Xavier (CT) High, that day.
 - was named New England Player of the Year by Boston media in 2000 for the fifth time in his career (also 1993, '94, '97, '99).
 - in 1999, he was selected by a panel of experts as the first baseman on the franchise's All-Astrodome team.
 - he and wife Ericka make their off-season home in Houston...the couple's daughter, Bryce Alycia, was born January 11, 2001.

THE "30-30" CLUB

Jeff Bagwell is the only player in Houston franchise history to reach the "30-30" mark, which he has accomplished twice. In 1997, he belted 43 homers and swiped 31 bases to become the first player in major league history to reach "30-30" while playing exclusively at first base. The only other "30-30" player in baseball history to also play first base was Cleveland's Joe Carter, who in 1987 played 84 games at first base and 62 games in the outfield, in addition to being a designated hitter. Carter hit 32 homers and stole 31 bases that year. In 1999, Bagwell hit 42 homers and recorded 30 stolen bases. One stolen base was recorded during a DH stint at Minnesota on June 6, 1999.

While Houston pitchers have tossed the second-most no-hitters in baseball in their 37-year history, Astros batters have been among the toughest to shut down. Houston has been no-hit only three times in its history. The Astros were held hitless in on July 12, 1997 at Pittsburgh when Francisco Cordova and Ricardo Rincon combined to no-hit the Astros in a 3-0, 10-inning game. On June 15, 1963, Giants pitcher Juan Marichal threw a 1-0 no-hitter against the Colt .45s at Candlestick Park and on April 30, 1969, Jim Maloney of Cincinnati no-hit the Astros in a 10-0 Reds victory.

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2003

HOW OBTAINED: Selected by the Astros in the first round of the June 1987 draft.

2001 OPENING DAY AGE: 35

THROWS: Right

WEIGHT: 180

2000 SEASON

Landed on the disabled list for the first time in his 13-year, 1800-game career after suffering from both a torn anterior cruciate ligament and medial collateral ligament in early August.

- has been in the Astros' Opening Day starting lineup for 12 consecutive years, the past nine at second base.
- became the franchise career leader with 6,630 at-bats on June 16 at San Francisco, surpassing Jose Cruz (6,629)...broke Cruz's total base record with a single on May 24 vs. Philadelphia.
- further entrenched his name into the Astros' record book in 2000...became Houston's all-time hit leader, surpassing Cruz (1,937) with a single on June 26 at Arizona for his 1,938 career base hit.
- began the season with a career-best, 16-game hitting streak from April 5-26, .313 (20x64).
- had batted leadoff in 497 consecutive starts prior to batting second on May 8 vs. Colorado...previously batted second on September 29, 1996.
- has been hit by a pitch 169 times in his career, ranking first among active major leaguers.
- after a homerless drought that lasted nearly two months, he hit two homers in three games, June 8 at Los Angeles and June 10 at San Diego.
- the all-time franchise doubles leader collected his 400th career-two bagger on July 19 vs. Cincinnati.
- suffered both injuries to the ACL and MCL in his left knee while attempting to turn a double play at second base on August 1 at Florida in a collision with the Marlins' Preston Wilson.
- underwent surgery on August 10 in Houston...reconstructive surgery (Dr. David Lintner) was performed to reconstruct the ACL...the MCL was allowed to heal without the need for surgical repair.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Became only the sixth player in major league history to have back-to-back seasons with 50-or-more doubles, breaking his own club record with 56 two-baggers in 1999.

- became the first player in the majors to tally as many as 56 doubles since George Kell did so for the Tigers in 1950...the first National League player since Joe Medwick slapped 56 for the Cardinals in 1937.
- led all NL second basemen in putouts, assists, total chances and double plays turned.
- the season was his fourth consecutive year where he played in 160-or-more games.
- scored his 1,000th career run on April 11 vs. Milwaukee.
- hit his 344th career double on May 4 at Florida, passing Cesar Cedeno (343, 1970-81) for the franchise record...hit a career-high three doubles (3x5) in a 10-4 win vs. the Braves on June 14.
- hit his 52nd double of the year on August 29 vs. the Marlins, breaking his own franchise record (51) which he set in 1998.
- cracked a leadoff home run on August 29 vs. Florida...it was his 21st career home run in Houston's first at-bat of the game and his fourth of the season...was 4x5 in that contest, tying his career-high for hits in a game (23rd time).
- scored 505 runs from 1995-98, the most of any major leaguer over that period...became one of only 16 players since 1900 to have scored 500-or-more runs over any four-year period.

Putting his blend of power and speed on display in 1998, he joined Hall of Famer Tris Speaker as the only players in the 20th century to collect 50-or-more doubles and 50-or-more stolen bases in the same season...Speaker had 53 doubles and 52 steals for the Boston Red Sox in 1912, while Biggio finished 1998 with a club record 51 doubles and a career-best 50 stolen bases.

- his 73 extra-base hits (51 doubles, 2 triples, 20 home runs) were the second-most by a leadoff hitter in the past 20 years...only Boston's Nomar Garciaparra had a higher total with 85 in his rookie season with the Red Sox in 1997.
- had the first 200-hit season in club history with 210.
- finished the season ranked among the N.L. leaders in batting average (6th-.325), runs (4th-123), doubles (1st-51), hits (2nd-210), on-base percentage (10th-.403), stolen bases (2nd-50), multi-hit games (T7th-58), extra-base hits (9th-73), hit by pitch (T4th-23), at-bats (5th-646) and games played (T9th-160).
- won The Sporting News Silver Slugger Award as the best offensive player at his position...it marked the fifth time in his career he claimed that honor and the fourth time at second base (also 1989 at catcher; 1994, '95, '97).
- was named a "first team All-Star" by Baseball America.
- was voted the club's Most Valuable Player for the second consecutive year and the third of his career (also 1995)...finished fifth in the BBWAA's voting for the league MVP, behind Sammy Sosa, Mark McGwire, teammate Moises Alou and Greg Vaughn.
- became Houston's all-time leader in runs scored on April 18 vs. Montreal when he touched home for the 891st time to pass Cesar Cedeno (890 from 1970-81).
- set the franchise single-season record for hits when he recorded his 196th on September 12, breaking the previous record of 195 which was set by Enos Cabell in 1978...he led the team in hits for the second straight season and fifth time in his career (also 1990, 1993 and 1995).

- on September 14, his eighth inning double against the Mets set a club single-season record with 49...he eclipsed the previous mark of 48, set by Jeff Bagwell in 1996.
- his 200th hit was a ninth inning single off Turk Wendell in the second game of a doubleheader against the Mets in the Astrodome on September 15.
- had his club record streak of consecutive games played broken at 494 on August 5 when he did not play in Houston's 5-3 loss at Florida...the streak lasted from August 1, 1995-August 4, 1998.
- he reached base by hit, walk or hit by pitch in 150 of the 160 games he played.
- tied his career high with four-hit performances on June 25 at Colorado (4x6), at home on September 9 against Milwaukee (4x5) and on September 18 at Pittsburgh...those contests were the 17th, 18th and 19th four-hit games of his career.
- matched his career-best for RBI in a game with six on August 23 at Wrigley Field against the Cubs...he had also driven in six runs in a game on September 14, 1989 at Los Angeles.
- in the game on May 22 against the Padres, he added another homer in the sixth inning for the eighth multiple home run game of his career...his ninth multi-homer game came on August 23 at Wrigley Field.
- named to the NL All-Star team for the seventh time in his career (the most ever by a Houston player) and for the fifth consecutive season...it made him the first Houston player ever to start the game four times.

Led the major leagues and set a club single-season record by scoring 146 runs in 1997, the most in a single-season in the NL since Chuck Klein scored 152 runs for the Philadelphia Phillies in 1932.

- his runs total was the highest in the majors since Rickey Henderson scored 146 for the New York Yankees in 1985...the last time the AL had a total higher than 146 was when Boston's Ted Williams scored 150 times in 1949.
- became only the third player in major league history to go through an entire season (minimum 150 games) without grounding into a double play (162 games/619 at-bats)...the feat had only been accomplished previously in the NL by Chicago's Augie Galan in 1935 (154 games) and in the AL by Detroit's Dick McAuliffe in 1968 (151 games).
- was voted the club's Most Valuable Player by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA for the second time in his career (also 1995)...he finished fourth in the BBWAA's voting for the league MVP honor (157 points) behind only winner Larry Walker, Dodgers catcher Mike Piazza and teammate Jeff Bagwell.
- for the third straight year, fans selected him the NL's starting second baseman in the All-Star Game (1,161,610 votes).
- earned his fourth consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award as the best defensive player at his position...only Doug Rader (1970-74) and Cesar Cedeño (1972-76) with five apiece have won more with the Astros.
- won The Sporting News Silver Slugger Award as the best offensive player at his position.
- winner of the prestigious Branch Rickey Award for Community Service, presented annually by the Rotary Club of Denver and Major League Baseball Players Alumni to the player, manager or executive who unselfishly contributes to his community.
- finished the season ranked among NL leaders in games (T1-162), batting average (10th-.309), at-bats (6th-619), runs (1st-146), hits (T4-191), triples (T6-8), total bases (9th-310), walks (9th-84), on-base percentage (6th-.415), stolen bases (4th-47), multi-hit games (4th-57) and hit by pitch (1st-34)...his hit by pitch total was a club single-season record, breaking his own mark of 27 in 1996.
- established career single-season bests for at-bats, runs, hits, triples, RBI (81) and stolen bases...he matched his career season bests for games and home runs (22).
- had a career-best, 14-game hitting streak from May 18-June 2 over which he batted .356 (21x59).
- tied a club single-game record by walking four times on July 14 at Chicago.

Voted the NL's starting second baseman in the All-Star Game for the second consecutive season in 1995, and named Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner at second base for his third straight year.

- his Gold Glove honor came after committing only 10 errors in 811 total chances for a .988 fielding percentage.
- finished ranked among NL leaders in runs (T10-113), hit by pitch (1st-27), sacrifice flies (T8-8) and hardest to fan (T9-10.0 PA per strikeout).
- he also tied for the NL lead in games played with teammate Jeff Bagwell at 162...it marked the second time in his career he played in every game in a season (also 1992).
- established a club single-season record with his 27 hit by pitches...he also became the first Houston player ever to score 100-or-more runs in consecutive seasons (123 in 1995).

Was the National League's starting second baseman in the 1995 All-Star Game, becoming the first Astro elected as a starter since Cesar Cedeño in 1973.

- earned his second consecutive The Sporting News Silver Slugger Award as the best offensive player at his position and second straight Rawlings Gold Glove award as the league's top defensive second baseman...finished 10th in balloting for the NL MVP award with 58 points.
- became Houston's first "20-20" player since Kevin Bass in 1986 when he slugged his 20th homer on September 15 at Montreal.
- shattered the franchise record for runs in a month when he scored 34 in July, breaking Jeff Bagwell's mark of 30 in July of 1994...scored one-or-more runs in 10 consecutive games from July 13-23, one shy of matching Jimmy Wynn's club record 11 games from June 12-23, 1972.
- became the ninth player to record 1,000 hits as an Astro with a seventh-inning single on July 1 vs. Pittsburgh's Mike Dyer.
- tied a club single-game record with four stolen bases on September 16 at Montreal.
- earned All-Star recognition for the fourth time in his career...hit a solo homer in the July 11 game at The Ballpark in Arlington that broke up a no-hit effort by the American League which had lasted the first 5.2 innings of the contest (an All-Star Game record).

- his homer off Dennis Martinez was one of three solo home runs by the NL (also Mike Piazza and Jeff Conine) which were the difference in the senior circuit's 3-2 victory, and the NL's only hits in the game.
- was NL Player of the Week for May 15-21 (.429, 9x21, 4 doubles, 1 HR, 5 RBI).

Was selected to the National League All-Star team in 1994 for the third time in the past four years.

- led the league with a career-high 39 stolen bases, swiping 21 consecutive without being caught from April 29-June 29.
- earned his first Rawlings Gold Glove Award and was second among National League second basemen with a .988 fielding percentage.
- with teammate Jeff Bagwell also honored, it was the first time since 1974 that two Astros had won Gold Gloves (Doug Rader and Cesar Cedeno).
- named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger team and was ranked as the top second baseman in the National League by the Elias Sports Bureau in their annual player statistical evaluations.

Ranked among 1993 NL leaders in at-bats (T6-610), hits (T10-175), doubles (T4-41), total bases (10th-289), extra-base hits (T7-67) and hit by pitch (T3-10).

- set a club record for home runs by a second baseman...the previous best was 16 by Bill Doran in 1987.
- also hit the most home runs ever by a Houston middle infielder, and became the first Houston middle infielder to lead the team in homers since shortstop Dickie Thon led the club with 20 in 1983.

The first player in major league history to make the All-Star team at catcher (1991) and second base (1992).

- ranked among National League leaders in runs (7th-96) walks (4th-94) and stolen bases (10th-38) in 1992.
- also ranked among the league's top 10 in at-bats (6th-613) and hit by pitch (T8-7), and was the fourth-hardest player in the league to double up, having grounded into double plays just five times in 613 at bats (122.6 AB/GIDP).
- hit safely in 20-of-26 games (.326; 31x95) over Houston's 28-day road trip in July/August.

Became the first Astros' catcher ever named to the All-Star team, and led the club in batting for the second straight season with a .295 average in 1991.

- opened the season with a 10-game hitting streak (.475; 19x40), his longest in 1991...batted a season-best .359 in April and did not hit under .270 in a month all year.
- was hitless in one at-bat in his first All-Star appearance...was charged with an error after committing the first catcher's interference ever in an All-Star Game with Milwaukee's Paul Molitor batting.
- was the hardest player in the majors to double up, grounding into only two double plays, an average of one per every 273 at-bats.
- played second base for the first time in his career on September 30 and October 1-2 at San Francisco...also played in left field on April 21 at San Francisco and in center on April 27 vs. Atlanta.
- led National League catchers in putouts (889), total chances (963) and passed balls (13).

Became the first Astros catcher ever to lead the team in batting in 1990 when he hit .276.

- also led the team in at-bats (555), hits (153) and doubles (24), while stealing a career-high 25 bases.
- NL Player of the Week the first week of the season (April 9-15) after hitting .400 (12x30), which included hits in six consecutive plate appearances on the 14th and 15th.
- was behind the plate in 113 games and in the outfield for 50.

His first full season in the majors in 1989 saw him begin to establish himself as one of the top offensive players in the game.

- winner of The Sporting News Silver Slugger award as the top offensive player at his position in the league...led all major league catchers with 21 stolen bases, and finished second among NL receivers in home runs (13) and RBI (60).
- named to the post-season NL All-Star team by UPI.
- became Houston's everyday catcher on May 11 when Alan Ashby was placed on waivers.
- hit in a career-best 12 straight games from May 26-June 9 (.391; 18x46), with seven doubles, two homers and 12 RBI...NL Player of the Week from July 24-30 (.476; 10x21).
- was successful on his first 15 stolen base attempts, and 18 straight dating back to July 20, 1988, before being caught on August 1...recorded his 20th steal on September 9 to become the seventh catcher since 1900 to steal 20-or-more bases in a season.
- played his final five games of the season in the outfield, including four in center.

Became the first non-pitcher of the 1987 draft class to reach the majors when his contract was purchased by the Astros on June 26, 1988...had less than 500 minor league at-bats before he was able to make the jump to the big leagues

- his first hit came on June 29 off Cy Young award winner Orel Hershiser...first homer was a game-winner on August 22 at Chicago off Goose Gossage.
- opened the 1988 campaign at Triple A Tucson...was batting only .188 after his first 14 games, but hit .317 in his next 58 to raise his average to .314 before being called to the majors for the first time.
- hit .320 for the Toros and had a .344 career minor league average.

Joined Class A Asheville of the South Atlantic League after signing with the Astros in the summer of 1987.

- hit .375 with nine homers and 49 RBI in 64 games for the Tourists...also swiped 31 bases as the club stole a league record 335.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

- Named first team All-America after hitting .407 with 14 homers and 68 RBI as a junior at Seton Hall in 1987.
- graduated from Kings Park High School...was the 22nd player selected in the June 1987 draft.
- featured in David Siroty's book "The Hit Men and The Kid Who Batted Ninth"...due out in the summer, the book chronicles the on-and-off the field accomplishments of Biggio and his former Seton Hall University teammates — Angels first baseman Mo Vaughn, Red Sox third baseman John Valentin and Marteese Robinson, the 1987 collegiate player of the year who is now the director of pro scouting for the Cardinals.
- toured Japan as part of a Major League Baseball All-Star team in October and November, 1992.
- actively involved with The Sunshine Kids, a support organization for children with cancer and their families.
- Houston's 1991 nominee for the Bart Giamatti Caring Award, given annually to a major league player to recognize his community involvement.
- winner of the 1997 Branch Rickey Award for community service.
- in 1999, he was selected by a panel of experts as the franchise's second baseman on the All-Astrodome team.
- he, wife Patty, sons Conor Joseph (January 7, 1993) and Cavan Thomas (April 11, 1995) and daughter Quinn Patricia (September 27, 1999) make their off-season home in Houston.

BIGGIO'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by Houston in the first round of the June 1987 draft.
- On disabled list, August 2-remainder of season, 2000 (torn ACL, MCL - left knee)

- notched his career-best fourth save with four shutout innings June 14 at Arizona.
- earned his first win as a St. Louis starter on June 18 at Houston...it was his first win as a starter since September 11, 1993 at Pittsburgh.
- fanned a then career-high nine batters while donning the uniform of the 1928 Negro League St. Louis Stars on August 1 in Atlanta...blanked the Braves (Black Crackers) on six hits through seven innings but was not credited with a decision after Atlanta plated three eighth-inning runs for a 3-1 win.

Appeared in a career-high 64 games out of the Cubs' bullpen in 1997.

- posted a 1.26 ERA (5 ER/35.2 IP) over a 24-game stretch from May 9 to July 12.
- had a season-high 11.1 scoreless innings streak over 10 appearances from May 28-June 15.
- in back-to-back outings against Houston, recorded 10 strikeouts in 4.1 innings: five in two innings on June 26 and five in 2.1 innings with his fourth career save on June 28.
- held opponents to three runs in 18 innings (1.50 ERA) and a .194 batting average (12x62) in June.
- threw four shutout innings and picked up his fifth career save on July 4 at Philadelphia, tying a career best for his longest relief appearance.
- carried a 2.44 ERA into the All-Star break.
- had a 1.74 ERA (2ER/10.1IP) over 10 games from July 27 through August 19.

Led all Triple A teams with 18 saves in 20 chances when his contract was purchased by the Cubs in June of 1996.

- worked at least two innings in 12 of 48 games with the Cubs.
- posted eight scoreless innings over his first six appearances.
- in first 24 games, through August 7, fashioned a 1.10 ERA (4 ER/32.2 IP)...over his first 27 outings, through August 14, pitched 36 innings and faced 154 hitters without allowing a home run.
- went 2-1 with a save and a 0.90 ERA (2ER/20 IP) in July...earned the save, the third of his major league career July 28 at Colorado.
- from August 18 through the end of the season, recorded a 2.31 ERA (6 ER/10.1 IP) in 20 appearances.

Signed with the Tigers' Triple A Toledo affiliate of the International League in 1995.

- went the distance twice in 19 starts including a shutout.
- had one save in eight relief appearances.

Began the 1994 season on the DL after fracturing his left hand in spring training with the Rockies.

- activated on May 9 after a rehab stint at Triple A Colorado Springs.
- won three of four decisions and had a save in 15 games for Colorado...picked up his second career save in a 3-2 win on May 28 at Montreal.
- elected free agency on June 27 when he was outrighted back to Colorado Springs.
- signed a minor league deal with the Giants on June 29 and went to Triple A Phoenix where he had a shutout among five starts and went 2-1 in eight outings.
- worked 1.2 innings in his only major league appearance for San Francisco on August 6 at Houston.

Opened the 1993 season in the Expos' rotation.

- started the first-ever major league game at Denver's Mile High Stadium, working four innings in an 11-4 loss on April 9.
- moved to the bullpen after five starts but twice returned briefly to the rotation before a July trade to Colorado.
- made 14 appearances, all starts, for the Rockies.
- pitched his first career complete game on August 10 at Los Angeles, yielding seven hits in a 4-2 win.
- batted .269 (7x26) with three RBI for Colorado...had three hits and drove in two runs in the 3-2 win on September 11 at Pittsburgh.

In 1992, his second year at Indianapolis, won 12 times...the 12 wins matched his career-high and tied for the league lead.

- made his big-league debut with Montreal as an emergency starter in the second game of a doubleheader (one of three straight for the Expos) on July 6 at Los Angeles...delivered 4.2 innings of one-hit shutout ball before being optioned the next day.
- in his final 14 Triple A starts, went 10-2 with a 2.75 ERA.
- after a September 1 recall, pitched six times in relief followed by three starts to conclude the season.
- earned his first save on September 3 at Atlanta with four shutout innings surrendering only three hits in the 11-2 win.
- began his career with 10.1 scoreless innings over his first three outings.
- singled off Mark Dewey for his first big-league hit on September 18 at New York.
- picked up his first major league victory in his next outing, pitching four-hit ball over six innings on October 3 at Chicago.

Tied for the American Association lead with five complete games in 1991...won eight times in 27 starts, two of which were shutouts for Triple A Indianapolis.

Rebounded during his second year at Jacksonville in 1990...had career bests with 12 wins and 121 strikeouts.

- made a career-high 28 starts as well as his first career relief appearance.
- threw a no-hitter on June 16 vs. Orlando...Jacksonville won 1-0.
- legged out an inside-the-park grand slam in a 12-2 win on June 25 vs. Charlotte.

Held Southern League hitters to less than one hit per innings (137 H/138.2 IP) in 1989 at Double A Jacksonville, but wound up losing the most decisions (17) in league history.

Reached double-figures in wins in 1988 for the first time at Class A West Palm Beach.

- posted a 3.33 ERA and was among the league leaders in the Florida State league in shutouts (3rd-4), complete games (4th-9), and innings pitched (4th-181), all career highs
- went the distance in five consecutive starts from May 3-29.

2000 SEASON

The veteran battled nagging injuries that limited his innings pitched to 50.2, his lowest since 1994.

- appeared in 49 games which ended a streak of three straight seasons pitching 60 or more games.
- held left-handed batters to a .245 batting average (27x110)...righties batted .333 (30x90).
- earned the win and combined with four other pitchers in a 2-0 shutout on April 13 vs. Seattle.
- suffered a strained right quad on April 25 at Anaheim.
- was suspended four games on April 28 for his involvement in a bench-clearing brawl on April 22 at Chicago...pitched a season-high three innings on May 2 at Boston, his first game back from suspension.
- won four straight decisions May 27-July 23, posting a 2.70 ERA (6ER/20.0IP) during this span.
- appeared in his 300th career game on May 5 at Minnesota.
- experienced soreness and mild inflammation in his right elbow on June 14 but worked in two games on June 16-17 vs. Cleveland, was then rested for four days.
- worked the eighth inning, striking out Scott Pose with the bases loaded, to combine on a three-hit shutout.
- snapped a 292-game errorless streak dating back to 1994 on July 16 vs. Cincinnati with an error in the ninth inning.
- was 1-1 with a 2.31 ERA (3ER/11.2IP) in 15 games after the All-Star Break...held opponents to a .233 batting average (10x43).
- placed on the 15-day disabled list on August 18 (retroactive to August 14) due to inflammation in his right elbow.
- allowed one hit while striking out two in one inning (two outings) after coming off the DL on September 1.
- underwent season-ending surgery to remove loose bodies in right elbow on September 22.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Led the Tigers in games pitched while posting the lowest ERA on Detroit's staff in 1999.

- ranked fourth in the AL among relievers pitching more than 45.0 innings with a career-best 2.52 ERA.
- pitched in a career-high 70 games, the third consecutive year he appeared in 60-or-more games.
- fanned a career-high 78 batters, an average of 8.6 strikeouts per nine innings.
- opponents batted only .206 against him, topping all Tiger pitchers and ranking him fifth in the AL among relievers.
- gave up only nine runs with a 1.81 ERA in his final 44.2 innings at Tiger Stadium dating to 1998.
- posted a 2.04 ERA at home, giving up only three runs in his first 19 home appearances...did not allow a run at Tiger Stadium until May 14 vs. Cleveland.
- owned a season-long 12-inning scoreless streak covering nine appearances from August 7-21.
- finished May with a team-best 2.12 ERA and allowed only four runs in 13 games (his season-high for a single month) while striking out 19 as opponents batted only .155 against him...owned a 2.13 ERA with one save in 12 games in June, fanning 12 and walking two.
- did not commit an error in the field for the fifth straight season.

Led the Tigers' staff in ERA in 1998, his first full season as the club's setup man.

- ranked in the top 10 among AL relievers in ERA (8th-2.73), batting average against (10th-.211), and wins (T10th-5).
- his five relief wins were a career-best (two of his six wins in 1995 came as a starter).
- opened 3-0 to give him a career-high five game winning streak dating to 1997 (6/11/97-6/24/98).
- posted a 1.68 ERA (10ER/53.2IP) from May 1 through the end of the season after allowing nine runs in nine innings over his first 12 appearances.
- allowed only two runs in July, holding opponents to a .205 batting average.
- surrendered just two home runs all season...snapped a string of 32.1 innings without allowing a longball on September 26 at Toronto.
- gave up just one run in his final 11.1 innings, that coming on a solo homer on September 26 in Toronto...it was the only run he allowed on the road after June 15.
- spent August 9-24 on the 15-day disabled list with a right elbow strain, marking his first trip to the DL since May of 1996.

Began the 1997 campaign as the Tigers' Opening Day starter before moving into the bullpen and becoming one of the league's most effective setup.

- after four starts to begin the season, he moved to the bullpen for good on April 23.
- allowed just six earned runs in his last 50 innings pitched, covering 47 appearances from June 2- September 27, for a 1.08 ERA.

- from June 2 through the season's conclusion, he set up 19 of Todd Jones' 24 saves.
- overall in relief, he was 3-3 with a 2.38 ERA and two saves (15ER/56.2IP) in 57 outings...his relief ERA was sixth-best in the AL and tied for ninth in the majors.
- retired 42 of 57 first batters faced (73.7%) to lead the team.
- made his first career Opening Day start on April 1 at Minnesota...gained no decision in the 7-5 loss...became just the second pitcher in the previous 30 years (joining Mike Moore in 1993) to make his first-ever Tiger appearance as the Opening Day starter...was the first player traded to the Tigers in that time frame to be assigned the role.

Split time between the bullpen and the rotation in 1996 with the Astros.

- his first six appearances came out of the bullpen.
- earned his only win with 5.1 frames of three-hit relief versus Cincinnati on April 19, a 13-5 Houston win...the win marked his longest career effort out of the bullpen and a high for Astros relievers in 1996...had a season-high six strikeouts, a career-high in relief.
- moved into the rotation after that win...made four starts between April 24-May 10.
- was placed on the 15-day disabled list on May 14 due to a fraying of his right biceps tendon, which was surgically repaired on June 10...was moved to the 60-day disabled list on June 29 before being reinstated on August 15.

Opened the 1995 season on the major league level with Houston, making seven starts and 29 relief appearances.

- was 4-2 with a 3.03 ERA in 29 relief efforts (13ER/38.2IP).
- was optioned to Triple A Tucson on May 15 when rosters were reduced from 28 to 25 players in order to move him into the starting rotation...made three starts before being recalled on June 2.
- earned no decision in his first start on June 6 against Florida.
- returned to the bullpen for 15 outings before making his second start on August 4 at Pittsburgh in the second game of a doubleheader, a game he won 5-4.
- earned his first big league save on June 16 at New York with one scoreless inning.

Pitched in 12 games, primarily in relief, for the Padres in 1994 but spent most the season on the disabled list with a bone spur in his right elbow.

- had surgery on April 4 to remove the spur...beginning on May 26, he made a total of nine rehab appearances before being activated from the disabled list on June 28.

Was third on the Padres with 24 starts in 1993, his first full season in the majors.

- was promoted from Triple A Las Vegas on June 1 and won his first big league game that night, allowing one run in six innings of a 2-1 decision over Atlanta.
- equaled his career-best with seven strikeouts on June 11 against Los Angeles.
- pitched a career-high eight innings in a 2-0 win over Cincinnati on June 26.
- had a pair of hits and stole a base in a start on July 11 in Montreal...the steal was the first by a Padres pitcher since Mark Davis on April 29, 1988, and was the first of his two on the season (September 8 versus Florida).

Saw his first major league action in 1992 after being promoted to Las Vegas on September 7.

- made his major league debut in a start on September 8 at San Francisco but did not figure in the decision of the Padres 6-5, extra inning loss.

Compiled a 30-inning scoreless streak in August of 1991 at Double A Wichita.

- included in the stretch were three consecutive shutouts...his efforts earned him back-to-back Texas League Player of the Week honors.
- Battled injury much of the 1990 season with a strain of the ulnar collateral ligament in his right elbow.

Placed third on the 1989 Wichita staff with 95 strikeouts.

Fanned better than a batter per inning in 1988 for Class A Charleston (108SO/107.0IP).

Averaged only 2.7 walks per nine innings in 1987 at Charleston (28BB/92.1IP).

Was a first-round selection by the Padres in the 1986 January free agent draft and began his career at Class A Spokane.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Has been included in a 12-player trade (December 28, 1994), a nine-player deal (December 10, 1996), and a six-player deal (December 11, 2000), all brokered by Randy Smith.

- the 12-player trade was the largest in the majors since November 20, 1957, and the biggest in Astros history.
- was an all-state athlete in football, basketball and baseball at Lamar (CO) High School...tossed three no-hitters and fanned 156 batters in 76 innings at Lamar to win Colorado Pitcher of Year honors in 1985.
- attended Lamar Community College before being drafted.
- he, wife Lisa, and daughters Taylor (March 7, 1990), McKinzie (July 6, 1991), Madisyn (January 3, 1994), Camdyn (September 3, 1997) and Parker Elisabeth (February 9, 2001) make their off-season home in Missouri City, TX.

2000 SEASON

Made the Astros' Opening Day roster and pitched in 27 games before he was optioned to New Orleans on June 2...was recalled from Triple A on June 20 when Billy Wagner was placed on the disabled list.

- was optioned back to New Orleans for the second time on July 22 before being recalled on August 11.
- held opponents scoreless in five straight outings from April 27 through May 6 (6.0IP).
- yielded a two-out, two-run homer to Ken Griffey Jr. on May 15 vs. Cincinnati...had posted an 0.93 ERA (1ER/9.2IP) over his prior eight appearances (April 27-May 14) before allowing that homer.
- suffered his first loss of the year on May 29 at Colorado after allowing one run on three hits over 1.2 innings.
- suffered his second loss on June 21 vs. LA, allowing a solo home run in the eighth inning of a 6-6 game.
- earned wins in his first two appearances after being recalled for the second time...notched wins at Philadelphia on August 13 and August 19 vs. Milwaukee.
- recorded his first major league save on August 22 vs. the Cubs.
- tied his career high by pitching three innings on August 28 at New York.
- entered the game on September 19 with the bases loaded and two outs in the 10th inning of an 8-6 game...forced a fly out to seal his second save of the year.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Played in three different stints with the Astros during the 1999 season...his final recall was August 31 just prior to the playoff roster deadline...posted an 0.66 ERA (1ER/13.2IP) over 11 appearances in September.

- was first recalled from Triple A New Orleans on June 24...he was again called up on July 9 after being optioned to the Zephyrs for just four days.
- worked the eighth inning on July 9 at Kansas City to earn his first major league victory in a 6-5 win...entered the game with one runner on and no outs in the eighth inning.
- earned his second win on July 16 against Detroit with an inning of relief in a 2-1 win...pitched a scoreless ninth before the Astros scored the winning run in the bottom of the inning.
- struck out the side against Cleveland in the 11th inning on July 19, earning his third win over four outings in the 3-2 victory...Houston scored the winning run in the bottom of the inning.
- returned to Triple A on August 6 when Sean Bergman was activated from the disabled list.
- earned his fourth win of the year after pitching two scoreless innings on September 4 against the Expos in a 10-inning, 5-2 victory...allowed one hit with one strikeout.
- pitched in 31 games for the Zephyrs in 1999, posting a 3-1 record and 2.82 ERA (16ER/51.0IP) with seven saves.

Made only three relief appearances before being placed on the disabled list on April 8, 1998 due to discomfort in his right shoulder...remained on the DL for the remainder of the season.

Started the year with Cleveland's Triple A affiliate at Buffalo in 1997 and was 3-0 with a 1.20 ERA in five appearances out of the bullpen.

- in 15.0 innings for the Bisons, he allowed only eight hits and two runs while walking seven and striking out 11 batters.
- after being acquired by the Astros on May 10, he split the remainder of the season between Triple A New Orleans and Houston.
- he joined New Orleans where he was 1-2 with a 2.25 ERA in 24 games (9ER/36.0IP) before his contract was purchased by the Astros on July 15...he made his major league debut that afternoon at Wrigley Field, working 0.1 innings and allowing one hit in the bottom of the ninth in Houston's 5-3 victory.
- he appeared in six more games before he was sent back to New Orleans on August 15...he was recalled from New Orleans again when major league rosters expanded on September 1.

Split the 1996 campaign between Bakersfield of the California League and Double A Canton-Akron of the Eastern League.

- his 111 strikeouts ranked seventh among all Tribe farmhands and his 8.24 strikeouts per 9.0 IP ratio ranked tenth.
- sent to Canton-Akron and then Kinston on May 9...in four complete games at Kinston, opponents hit just .123 (7x57) off him.
- promoted to Canton-Akron on June 1...three of his four wins with Canton-Akron came on the road.

Continued his ascent through the Indians' organization, playing the 1995 season at Canton-Akron.

- struck out 61 batters while walking just 21 for a K/BB ratio of 2.90/1.
- served a stint on the disabled list from April 25-May 24 with a sore right shoulder...tossed a 3-0 shutout vs. Trenton in game one of an August 19 doubleheader (7.0 IP, 5H, 1BB, 3K).

Finished second on the team in starts (24) and innings pitched (133.2) at Kinston in 1994.

Finished sixth in the South Atlantic League with a 2.67 ERA in 1993.

- his 155.1 innings of work and 11 wins ranked sixth in the organization...gave up just 122 hits and struck out 105 in 155.1 IP.
- was on the disabled list from May 11-28 with a sore right shoulder...played winter ball for Aguilas of the Dominican League.

Finished tied for the lead in wins in the Appalachian league with eight in 1992.

- led the AL in innings pitched (92.1), was second in games started (13), and tied for fifth in strikeouts with 79.
- named the fifth best prospect in the American League by Baseball America...finished 14th among all short-season pitchers in ERA and was named AL pitcher of the week July 12-18 for his five-hit, 15 strikeout performance vs. Huntington on July 18, the second-highest strikeout total in the minors in '92.

Spent his first professional season in the Dominican Summer League in 1991.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

2000 SEASON

Spent all but one month at Triple A, making his first trip to the majors in September and playing in four games for the Astros.

- hit .261 (74x284) for the Zephyrs with 10 doubles, five home runs and 37 RBI over 84 games.
- batted .200 (6x30) over his first 10 games of the season...hit .295 (41x139) over July and August...drove in 14 runs in August.
- caught in 53 games, played first in 18 and third in 10...was 4x10 as a pinch-hitter.
- tallied a 12-game hitting streak from May 16-June 7 (.311; 14x45).
- went 5x5 with one home run and four RBI on August 18 vs. Colorado Springs.
- contract was purchased from Triple A New Orleans on September 5.
- made his Major League debut on September 5 vs. Florida as a pinch hitter.
- doubled for his first big league hit at Chicago (NL) on September 10.
- made his first Major League start on October 1 vs. the Brewers in the regular season finale at Enron Field.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Spent the 1999 season with San Diego's Triple A affiliate Las Vegas...saw most of his playing time at catcher, but also played first base, third base and in the outfield.

- had a pinch-hit single in the bottom of the ninth inning on May 17 that tied the score and set up the winning run in a 4-3 win over Salt Lake.
- doubled and scored the go-ahead run on a fielding error in the top of the tenth inning as the Stars outlasted Nashville, 4-3 on July 24.
- he hit safely in 13 straight games (16x48, .333) from July 1-26...for the month of July, he batted .321 (18x56) with one homer and three RBI.
- did not draw a walk in 34 straight games from June 22-August 18 and batted .246 (30x122) during that stretch.

Equaled his career-high with 13 homers for Double A Shreveport and Triple A Fresno in 1998.

- tied for second in the Texas League with 39 doubles.

Spent entire 1997 season with the Rangers' Double A affiliate Tulsa.

- batted .230 with nine homers and 49 RBI over 95 games.

Batted .231 (60x260) in 76 games between Oklahoma City and Tulsa in 1996.

- batted .311 (14x45) in first 14 games with the 89ers, but was just 3x46 (.065) in June.
- was 7x26 (26.9%) in throwing out base stealers.

Led all Texas League first basemen with 123 games played, 1200 total chances, 19 errors and 117 double plays at Tulsa in 1995.

- led the Drillers with a career-high 72 RBI and was second on the club in total bases (190) and homers (13).
- earned Texas League Player of the Week honors, May 15-21, after batting .591 (13x22) with six doubles, two homers and six RBI over five contests.

Appeared in 72 games behind the plate and nine at first base for Charlotte in 1994.

- threw out 22.9% of would-be base stealers...began the season with a 1x26 stretch and hit .289 from that point on.

Led all Northern League catchers in assists (48) and double plays (7) in 1993.

Earned honorable mention honors on the California League All-Star Team while at San Jose in 1992.

Was a Northwest League All-Star at Everett in 1991, finishing fourth in the league with a .318 batting average and nine home runs.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

2001 ASTROS

Five Houston players have hit home runs from both sides of the plate in the same game as Astros. Alan Ashby was the first Astro to do it on September 27, 1982 at San Diego. Mark Bailey did it on September 16, 1984 at the Dome. Kevin Bass became the first player to do it twice in one season, first on August 3 and again on September 2 in 1987. Bass did it again on August 20, 1989. Ken Caminiti accomplished the feat on July 3, 1994 at Chicago, with one of the homers inside-the-park. On August 20, 1999, Caminiti hit a pair of switch-hit homers at Florida. On April 24, 1998, Carl Everett homered from both sides of the plate during a game against Montreal at Olympic Stadium. He did it again on August 7, 1999 against the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field.

2001 ASTROS

2000 SEASON

Reaching the big leagues for the first time since a one-game stint in 1998, played for the Astros over the final two months of the season in two separate stints with Houston.

- hit .279 (17x61) with 12 home runs in May at Triple A...drew 16 walks during the month.
- while at New Orleans, batted .571 (4x7) as a pinch-hitter, .444 (4x9) as a DH...had three hits four times for the Zephyrs.
- smacked an RBI-double in the ninth inning on August 10 versus the Mets for his first major league extra-base hit.
- optioned to Triple A on August 18 when Mitch Meluskey was activated from the DL...played in six games in his first stint with Houston, going 3x21.
- returned to the Astros on September 2 when he was recalled from Triple A New Orleans...batted .244 (74x203) with 13 doubles, two homers and 36 RBI over 99 games for the Zephyrs.
- cracked his first Major League home run on September 8 at Wrigley Field vs. the Cubs (Rain).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Spent the entire 1999 season with Seattle's Triple A affiliate Tacoma...played five different positions, mostly at catcher, but also saw time at first base, second base, third base and shortstop.

- batted .337 (28x83) in 23 games in June with six doubles, a home run and 11 RBI...had a nine-game hitting streak from June 7-18, during which he batted .457 (16x35) with five doubles and eight RBI.
- batted .301 (53x176) in 58 games on the road with 14 doubles, three homers and 25 RBI compared to a .236 average at home (42x178).

Began the 1998 season with Triple A Ottawa...played in 11 games prior to being traded to Seattle on May 8.

- threw out 43 of 71 attempted base stealers (61%) with the Rainiers.
- had two brief stints with Seattle, spending July 2-9 and July 21-24 in the majors...played in only one game and had one at-bat with the Mariners.

Spent two stints in the majors in 1997...was recalled June 18 and appeared in four games for the Expos before returning to Ottawa July 4...rejoined the Expos on September 2.

- was 7x20 (.350) with two RBI in September...returned to Magallanes in the Venezuelan League over the winter.

Came to big league camp with Montreal in 1996 but began the season at Triple A Ottawa.

- contract was purchased by Montreal August 28...made his major league debut August 30 vs. San Diego, catching the last two innings.
- first major league hit was September 2 vs. the Giants' Jose Bautista in the 10th inning....stole second two pitches later, marking his first stolen base since 1994.

Began the 1995 season with Houston's Double A affiliate Jackson...hit .287 for the Generals before being promoted to Triple A Tucson.

- rated by Baseball America as the best defensive catcher in the Astros' system.
- was traded to Montreal with pitcher Dave Veres on December 20 in exchange for Sean Berry.

Jumped from Class A Osceola to Double A Jackson in 1994.

Saw limited duty with Osceola in 1993...58 games caught was the lowest total of his career since playing in the rookie league in 1990.

Had second straight solid offensive season with Asheville in 1992.

- his doubles total (22) was a career high.

On July 9, 1968, the first 1-0 game in the history of All-Star competition was played at the Astrodome. The National League scored the only run of the game in the first inning on a single, error, wild pitch and double play. The game, first in the classic series to be played indoors, packed the Astrodome with a crowd of 48,321 fans, who paid a then record total $383,733 at the gate.

Had his best offensive season in 1991, setting career marks in hits, RBI and walks.
Signed as a non-drafted free agent by Houston and began his pro career with the Gulf Coast League Astros in 1990...batted .323.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Chavez and his wife, Charlotte, have two children, Raul Daniel (11/19/92) and Daniela Steffanny (10/1/98)...they reside in Valenica, VZ in the off-season...signed by Andres Reiner and Ruben Cabrera.

CHAVEZ' CAREER TRANSACTIONS

NELSON CRUZ #41

BORN: 9/13/72

BIRTHPLACE: Puerto Plata, D.R.

BATS: Right

HEIGHT: 6-1

M.L. SERVICE: 1.109

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2001

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from Detroit along with Brad Ausmus and Doug Brocail on December 11, 2000 in exchange for Roger Cedeño, Chris Holt and Mitch Meluskey.

2001 OPENING DAY AGE: 28

HOME: Washington, D.C.

THROWS: Right

WEIGHT: 185

2000 SEASON

Had contract purchased on June 25 after starting at Triple A Toledo and remained in Detroit for the duration of the season in a middle relief role.

- sported a 2-0 record and 1.86 ERA (4ER/19.1IP) in the month of July, striking out 18 while walking two.
- made his first appearance of the season on June 26 at Cleveland, tossing a scoreless ninth inning.
- allowed one earned run over his first six relief appearances (13.1IP) for the Tigers...won four straight decisions from June 27-August 1.
- held opponents to a .253 batting average (39x154)...opponents batted just .205 (18x88) in his first 11 outings.
- struck out the first six batters he faced, and finished with a career-high seven, on July 8 at Milwaukee...earned his second win, working four innings of the 4-2, 15-inning win.
- suffered his first loss on August 20 vs. Oakland, allowing a run in the 11th inning on a wild pitch.
- compiled a 5.28 ERA (9ER/15.1IP) walking 10 and fanning 12 over the last two months of the season.
- used primarily as a starter at Toledo, posted a 2-4 record in 11 games (10 starts) with a 4.82 ERA (28ER/52.1IP).
- allowed two runs (one earned) on four hits over 6.2 innings to earn his first win for the Mud Hens on April 23 vs. Louisville.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

In his first season with the Tigers' organization, Cruz split the 1999 season between Toledo and Detroit with two separate stints in the majors.

- first had his contract purchased on May 4 when Luis Garcia was optioned to Toledo.
- pitched 1.1 innings and did not give up a run on May 6 against Anaheim, his first major league appearance since pitching for the White Sox on September 28, 1997.
- was optioned back to Toledo on May 11 when Jason Wood was activated from the DL.
- returned to the Tigers for good on June 7 and started the following night vs. Pittsburgh.
- earned his first big-league victory in that game as he tossed 7.0 innings, allowing only one run and two hits in his longest outing of the season.
- his longest relief appearance came on August 16 against Tampa Bay...pitched 4.0 innings and allowed two runs while striking out three.
- set a career-best for strikeouts with five on June 14 versus Seattle.
- opponents batted .244 against him as a reliever, ranking him third among AL rookie relievers for lowest opponent batting average and his 16 runs allowed was the lowest total among AL rookies (30 or more innings).
- went 7-1 as a starter with Toledo and compiling a seven-game win streak from April 19-June 2.
- led the Mud Hens with four complete games, all victories...tied for second in the International League while setting a professional career-best.
- his two complete game shutouts (April 29 vs. Louisville and May 28 at Richmond) were the team's only two of the season...tied him for first in the league and marked another professional season-best.

Pitched as both a starter and out of the bullpen in 1998 for Triple A Calgary in the Chicago White Sox' farm system.

- saw action in 35 games for the Cannons, starting his first 18 games before moving into a relief role.
- was 8-6 with a 5.55 ERA in 95.2 innings as starter...posted a 2-0 mark with a 4.65 ERA in 17 games as a reliever.
- walked only seven in 31.0 innings as a reliever, fanning 25 during that stretch.
- led Calgary in wins with 10, a total which tied him for the fourth-most wins among all White Sox minor league pitchers.
- posted back-to-back complete game wins on May 16 against Omaha and on May 22 at Vancouver (shutout), when he yielded three hits and fanned six...the effort against Vancouver was Calgary's only complete-game shutout of 1998.
- after yielding six runs and 10 hits in 4.2 innings in a loss to Tacoma on July 20, he was assigned to the bullpen where he remained for the balance of the season...allowed seven earned runs in his first 11 appearances out of the bullpen.

Appeared in 19 games in relief in 1997 for the White Sox in his first career major league action.

- was recalled from Triple A Nashville on July 31 and made his big league debut the following day at Anaheim...struck out the only batter he faced.
- was optioned back to Nashville on August 29 but was recalled again by the parent club on September 1...remained with the White Sox until the season's conclusion.
- retired the first 17 batters he faced until surrendering a hit in the final game of the season on September 28 against Kansas City.
- allowed just two of 12 inherited runners to score (16.7%).
- struck out a season-high 10 batters on May 7 at Oklahoma City.

Topped Double A Birmingham with 142 strikeouts in 1996, averaging 8.6 strikeouts per nine innings pitched.

- his 3.20 ERA ranked fifth in the Southern League and was 10th best among all Double A pitchers...his strikeout total was 11th best in Double A.
- was named Southern League Player of the Week for June 28-July 4 after going 1-0 with a 0.55 ERA (1ER/16.1 IP).
- fanned a career-high 13 Jacksonville batters on August 21.

Began the 1995 season at Bristol (Rookie), before making Class A stops at Hickory and Prince William.

- combined for 10 wins at his three stops, fifth-most among all White Sox farmhands.
- was named Carolina League Relief Pitcher of the Month in August for Prince William after going 2-1 with 0.47 ERA (1ER/19.1IP) in nine games.

Went 2-4 with a 2.42 ERA for the Gulf Coast League Expos in 1991 before being released in the off-season and leaving baseball for three years.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

He, wife Dilicea, son Nelson, Jr. (October 15, 1994) and daughter Dileiny (July 14, 1998) reside in Washington, DC in the off-season.

- attended Liceo Jose Castellanos in the Dominican Republic.
- was originally signed by Expos scout Jesus Alou, brother of current major league manager Felipe Alou.
- his cousin Jose Roman pitched for Cleveland from 1984-86.

CRUZ'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Signed by Montreal as a non-drafted free agent on July 5, 1989.
- Signed by the Chicago White Sox as a minor league free agent on December 10, 1994.
- Signed by Detroit as a minor league free agent on December 16, 1998.
- Acquired by Houston on December 11, 2000, along with Brad Ausmus and Doug Brocail in exchange for Roger Cedeno, Chris Holt, and Mitch Meluskey.

2001 ASTROS

2000 SEASON

Is the only pitcher in National League history and only the second in Major League annals to have as many as 15 starts and 15 saves in a single year...only the eighth pitcher in big league history to record at least 15 starts and notch as many as 10 saves in a single campaign.

- had made 16 starts and one relief appearance upon moving into a relief role in mid-season...joined the bullpen corps on July 4, becoming the full-time closer after Billy Wagner underwent elbow surgery.
- was 1-5 with a 5.84 ERA (59ER/91IP) as a starter...posted a 2-2 record and 4.24 ERA (16ER/34IP) over 34 relief stints.
- allowed an opponents' batting average of .248 in 23 road appearances (nine starts).
- holds the distinction of being Houston's first pitcher to start the first regular-season game at Enron Field, a 4-1 loss to Philadelphia on April 7...allowed five hits and two runs with one walk and five strikeouts over six innings.
- tied his then career high with 10 strikeouts on April 18 at Los Angeles, but suffered his second loss, 5-3.
- after two losses and two no decisions in four starts, gained his first win as an Astro on May 1 at Milwaukee, allowing just one hit in an abbreviated five-inning stint...left the game with a sore left hip.
- fanned a career-high 13 batters in his next-to-last start of the season on June 26 at Arizona, but lost 6-1.
- had no decision in his final start of the campaign on July 1 at St. Louis, a 10-9 Cardinals' win.
- ranked third among National League pitchers with 9.2 strikeouts-per-nine-innings through his 16 starts.
- pitched one inning of relief on 7/6 vs. Arizona in his first outing as the Astros' closer...notched his first save of the season on 7/9 vs. Kansas City in a 9-6 win.
- did not allow a run over his first 11 relief outings and 12 innings from July 6-August 4, tallying a 1-0 record and five saves.
- became the first pitcher in franchise history to save four consecutive games (August 15-16 vs. Pittsburgh, August 18-19 vs. Milwaukee).
- notched his 16th save in the final game of the season on October 1 vs. Milwaukee.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Began the 1999 season at Triple A Norfolk but ended his year as the winning pitcher of Game Five in the National League Championship Series against the Atlanta Braves.

- the Mets were 10-4 in his 14 starts.
- named National League Player of the Week for July 19-25...was 2-0 with a 1.26 ERA in two starts...in 14.1 innings, he allowed eight hits, two runs, four walks and notched 14 strikeouts.
- was originally recalled from Triple A Norfolk of the International League on June 23...sent to Norfolk following his July 7 start vs. the Expos at Shea...was recalled from Norfolk for a second time on July 18.
- made his first major league start at Atlanta on June 26...lost, 7-2...in 4. 1 innings, he allowed five hits, six earned runs, with five walks and three strikeouts.
- earned his first major league victory, 12-8 at Florida on July 1...in five innings, he surrendered six hits, five earned runs, three walks and five strikeouts.
- held the Orioles to three hits over seven innings to win at Camden Yards, 4-1 on July 19.
- struck out a career-high 10 batters over seven innings of three-hit ball to defeat the Dodgers, 2-1 at Shea on August 6...allowed one run and walked two.
- took a no-hitter into the seventh inning on August 16 at San Diego...walked the first two hitters and then lost the no-hitter by surrendering a three-run home run to Phil Nevin...did not get a decision in a 10-inning 4-3 Mets victory.
- had his first major league hit, a single off the Padres' Sterling Hitchcock on August 16 at San Diego...went 2x3 in that game.
- had his first major league RBI and run scored at Florida on July 1.
- named International League Pitcher of the Week for May 24-30.
- pitched the final three innings of a 15-inning marathon with the Atlanta Braves in Game Five of the NLCS...notched the win as he allowed one run in that outing as the Mets came from behind to win the game, 4-3.

Was recalled by the Mets from Triple A Norfolk on September 8, 1998 but did not pitch.

- his combined 1998 minor league totals from Norfolk and Double A Binghamton were 12-8 with a 2.84 ERA, 167.2 innings pitched, 66 runs, 53 earned runs, 67 walks and 200 strikeouts.

- the 200 combined strikeouts led all Double and Triple A pitchers, as well as all Mets' minor leaguers.
- Went on the DL on June 6, 1997 for three weeks with a subluxation of the right shoulder.
- pitched for three teams during the year: Class A St. Lucie, Double A Binghamton and the rookie league Gulf Coast Mets.
- Struck out a season high 12 in a 2-1 loss at Charleston, SC on May 2, 1996...in seven innings, he permitted three hits, two runs, earned, with two walks.
- Won the Doubleday Award as the Most Valuable Player on his Gulf Coast team in 1995.
- Led the Dominican League Mets in strikeouts in 1994.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

- Graduated from Liceo Eansino Afuera High School in the Dominican Republic.
- his brother Angel was a third baseman in the Dodgers' organization.
 - single and enjoys golf and music.

DOTEL'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Signed by the New York Mets as a non-drafted free agent on March 20, 1993.
- Acquired by Houston along with Roger Cedeño and Kyle Kessel on December 23, 1999, in exchange for Mike Hampton and Derek Bell.

2001 ASTROS

On December 28, 1994, the Astros completed the largest trade in club history, swapping a total of 12 players with the Padres. Ken Caminiti, Andujar Cedeno, Steve Finley, Roberto Petagine, Brian Williams and a player-to-be-named were sent to the Padres, while Derek Bell, Doug Brocail, Ricky Gutierrez, Pedro Martinez, Phil Plantier and Craig Shipley were acquired by the Astros. The trade was the largest in the major leagues since a November 20, 1957 deal involved 13 players from Detroit and Kansas City.

2000 SEASON

Rebounded from offseason shoulder surgery to win 17 games and establish himself as the ace of Houston's rotation in 2000.

- was voted Pitcher of the Year by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA.
 - was the only Houston pitcher to record double digits in wins...in just his second full season in the majors, he finished among the league leaders in wins (T6-17), winning percentage (3rd-.708) and day earned run average (8th-3.19).
 - became the fourth different Houston pitcher to lead the club in victories over the past four years (1997: Darryl Kile – 19; 1998: Shane Reynolds – 19; 1999: Mike Hampton – 22).
 - started off the 2000 season on the disabled list and made three rehab starts in the Astros' minor league system in April...was 2-0 with a 1.47 ERA (3ER/18.1IP)...struck out a combined 19 and walked four.
 - made his first Astros start of 2000 on April 23 vs. San Diego at home...took a no decision in an 11-10 defeat.
 - notched his first win of 2000 on May 4 at Chicago, beating the Cubs, 6-2.
 - lasted only 1.1 innings – the shortest starting stint of his career – allowing six hits and nine runs in a 13-3 loss at San Diego on June 10...allowed five runs in the first, including a grand slam.
 - was 4-3 with a 7.97 ERA (49ER/55.1IP) after a 7-4 loss at San Francisco on June 16...finished the season 13-4 with a 3.54 ERA (54ER/137.1) over his final 19 starts.
 - posted a 1.45 ERA (6ER/37.1IP) during his five-game winning streak from June 22-July 16...it was snapped on July 21 vs. St. Louis, his first loss at home after going 5-0 after seven starts...he began his six-game win streak in his next start on July 26 at Cincinnati in a 3-2 win.
 - extended his Enron Field unbeaten streak to five games on July 7 vs. the Royals...was 5-0 with a 4.93 ERA (25ER/45.2IP) over his first seven starts at Enron Field.
 - earned co-NL Player of the Week honors for the week of July 31-August 6 along with St. Louis' Will Clark after going 2-0 with a 2.08 ERA...he pitched his first major league complete game on August 6, a four-hitter against Montreal...his totals for the week included 17.1 innings pitched, 10 hits, four earned runs, three walks and 10 strikeouts.
 - struck out a season-high nine batters, but had a no-decision in a 7-2 win at Philadelphia on August 11.
 - tossed his second complete game with a 7-3 win on August 27 vs. the Expos at Olympic Stadium.
 - lost to Atlanta on September 2 to end his career-best six-game winning streak.
- In 1999, was 4-2 with a 3.40 ERA (31ER/82.0IP) over 13 starts after entering the rotation before the All-Star break on July 3.
- only two of the six runs he allowed from August 28-September 5 were earned.
 - he had won two consecutive outings — his first two wins as a starter — before getting no decision on August 23 at Shea Stadium in a 3-2 Mets' win...pitched a career-high eight innings...retired 15 of the final 16 batters he faced...allowed only his second home run (Alfonzo) in nine starts and his first since July 16 against Detroit.
 - beat the Cubs at Wrigley Field on August 7 for his first career victory as a starter, 10-4...struck out a career-high tying nine batters.
 - before beating Chicago, he had five consecutive no decisions over five starts from July 8-31, allowing 26 hits while posting a 3.58 ERA during that stretch (11ER/27.2IP).
 - on a limited pitch count over his first two starts, he worked four innings in both games...had no decision on July 8 at Arizona in the Astros' 8-7 loss in 11 innings...made his first start of the year on July 3 at Cincinnati after having pitched the most innings (39.1) of any Astros reliever through the first three months of the season.
 - after making a team-high 27 appearances out of the bullpen, he was moved into the starting rotation after Sean Bergman was sidelined...out of the bullpen, he allowed 12 runs in 39.1 innings (27 games), including five runs on the road over 16.2 innings.
 - earned his fifth win on June 29 vs. St. Louis in his last stint out of the bullpen, earning the victory despite allowing two inherited runners to score.
 - underwent surgery on October 21, 1999 to repair a stretched right rotator cuff...a thermal casular shift was performed to repair the ligaments in his shoulder (Dr. Bill Bryan).

Opened the 1998 season in the starting rotation at Triple A New Orleans where he went 9-4 with a 4.01 ERA in his 14 outings before his contract was recalled by Houston on June 20.

- his first two major league appearances were starts in place of Mike Hampton, who went on the 15-day disabled list on June 16 after suffering a strained left groin muscle the day prior at Cincinnati.

- his first major league start came in the Astrodome on June 20 against Cincinnati, a no-decision in a 9-8 win over the Reds...he worked 6.1 innings and allowed only five hits and four runs with a walk and nine strikeouts, departing with a 5-2 lead which the bullpen failed to hold.
- picked up his first two major league saves in consecutive appearances on July 29 and August 2.
- on July 29 against Florida, he worked 3.0 shutout innings behind Pete Schourek in Houston's 10-6 win to earn the first save of his professional career...that span covered 121 games, including 110 minor league contests, all of which were starts.
- his first major league win came on August 10 against Milwaukee...he entered a 2-2 game and pitched a scoreless eighth before the Astros scored three times in the bottom of the inning for a 5-2 win.

Started the season at Double A Jackson before being promoted to Triple A New Orleans in July of 1997.

- he ended May by leading the league in strikeouts (77) while posting a 3-1 record and a 3.18 ERA.
- pitched one perfect inning with two strikeouts in the July 7 Double A All-Star game...he was leading the league with 124 strikeouts at the break.
- hurled a three-hit, 2-1 complete game win against Wichita July 10 (9 IP, 2 BB, 11 SO) in his last start before being promoted to New Orleans.

Led Kissimmee in wins (12), strikeouts (130) and innings pitched (172.1) in 1996.

Finished second on the River Bandits with 13 wins in 1995.

- his wins total tied for fourth-most in the Midwest League.

Allowed no runs and just nine hits in his first five professional starts (28.0 innings) after joining the Astros as a first-round pick in 1994.

- was 8-1 with 23 walks and 70 strikeouts in 82.2 combined innings at Gulf Coast and Quad City.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Selected by the Astros in the first round (25th overall) of June 1994 draft...recommended by Nelson Rood, Mark Johnson, Bob King and Paul Weaver.

- was rated as the 16th-best pitcher (27th-best overall) available in the 1994 June draft by Baseball America.
- single and makes his off-season home in Lamar, CO...went to Lamar High School.
- pitched a no-hitter in his final winter league start prior to spring training in 1998...he tossed the gem for Santurce in the Puerto Rican winter league on December 14 against Caguas, facing only two over the minimum as he walked two and struck out eight.

ELARTON'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by Houston in the first round of the 1994 June draft.

2001 ASTROS

2000 SEASON

Put together a club-record, 24-game hitting streak from July 9-August 28, spanning 51 days and 45 games.

- batted .409 (36x88) during the span and tied for the season's longest hitting streak in the National League with Arizona's Tony Womack.
- surpassed the club mark of 23 games (Art Howe 1981 and Luis Gonzalez 1997) on August 28 at Shea Stadium with a second-inning double (Rusch) vs. the Mets.
- hitting streak was tied for the fifth longest by a catcher since 1900... ended (0x4) at New York (NL) on August 29... was on deck when the game ended.
- suffered from a Grade Three separated right shoulder on September 1 vs. Atlanta when he fell into the Astros dugout lunging at a foul ball... underwent surgery (Dr. Bill Bryan) on September 5.
- had two hits in back-to-back games April 14-15 at San Diego... also had two hits in consecutive games May 22-23 at Milwaukee and vs. Philadelphia.
- went 2x4 in back-to-back games at Colorado, June 14-15... went 3x4 at Atlanta on July 29.
- hit .385 (25x65) in August over 17 games with 10 doubles, two home runs and 15 RBI... scored 10 runs.
- had a career-high four tying hits (third time; last-July 14, 1995 at San Francisco) on August 14 vs. Pittsburgh, going 4x5 with three RBI.
- notched four consecutive multi-hit games from August 25-28 on the road with at least one double in each contest... went 3x4 with two doubles and a home run (Forster) August 27 at Montreal.
- went 9x16 (.563) with five doubles that stretch as his hitting streak reached 24 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Concluded the 1999 regular season on a hot streak, having hit safely in 20 of his final 23 starts beginning on August 19 (.349; 30x86).

- recorded a season-high three hits for the third time on August 29 vs. the Marlins, including two doubles... also notched three hits on July 1 vs. St. Louis and on June 7 at Chicago (AL).
- activated from the 15-day DL on August 15 after missing 14 games due to a strained left hamstring.
- tied his season-high with three hits (3x5) at Colorado on July 28... went 2x3 at Colorado the previous day.
- had two hits (2x2) and two walks on July 16 vs. Detroit in his first game since suffering a bruised left eye in Cincinnati on July 5.
- launched his first home run of the season on May 18 at Los Angeles (Perez).
- made his first career Opening Day start on April 6 vs. the Cubs... led the Astros offense with a 2x4 performance which included a leadoff double in the third inning.

Started 46 games behind the plate in 1998.

- hit only .182 (4x22) in 12 games in March/April before hitting .360 (9x25) in May.
- he opened June by collecting hits in five of his first six contests to raise his batting average to .292 through June 13.
- had season-best, four-game hitting streaks from June 2-10 and July 25-August 2.

Played in 60 games in 1997, which included 42 starts behind the plate.

- was also one of the club's top hitters off the bench, going 4x12 (.333) with no homers and five RBI... his pinch-hit RBI total tied for second on the club with Thomas Howard, trailing only Bill Spiers with 11.
- he was Houston's starting catcher in Game One of the NL Division Series against Atlanta and went 2x3 against Greg Maddux... in the fifth inning of that game, he singled, stole second base and scored Houston's only run on a two-out single by Astros' starting pitcher Darryl Kile.
- his stolen base against the Braves was the first he had ever stolen in a major league game.
- was behind the plate for 27 of Kile's 34 regular season starts, which saw the righthander finish with a 19-7 record... the Astros had an 18-9 mark in the games Kile started with Eusebio catching.
- underwent arthroscopic surgery to remove cartilage in his right knee on October 9 in Houston... Dr. David Lintner performed the procedure.

Injuries limited him to a .270 average and 19 RBI in just 58 games in 1996.

- was twice placed on the 15-day DL, the first time from May 7-June 17 following surgery to remove a cyst on his left wrist and the second time from June 22-August 7 after fracturing the hamate bone in his left hand in Los Angeles on June 21.
- hit his third career pinch-hit homer, a three-run blast, on April 5 off San Diego's Fernando Valenzuela.

- threw out 28-percent (9x32) of runners trying to steal.
- made just one error in 280 total chances for a sparkling .996 fielding percentage.
- lit up PCL pitchers for a .415 batting average (22x53) with 14 RBI during two separate rehabilitation assignments, the first from June 10-17 and the second from July 29-August 6.

Established career-highs in virtually every offensive category in 1995, including batting average (.299), homers (6) and RBI (58).

- notched a career-high 12-game hitting streak from July 7-21, batting .347 (17x49)...the 12-game streak tied for the club's longest of 1995 with Jeff Bagwell and Brian Hunter.
- he also hit safely in 10 straight games from April 28-May 12.
- after the trade of Scott Servais to Chicago and Rick Wilkins going on the DL due to neck surgery, he became the club's top receiver and started 60 of the final 90 games of the year.
- tied a club single season record by belting a pair of grand slams...both were in the Astrodome, the first on May 19 off Montreal's Reid Cornelius and the second on June 28 off Jeff Parrett of St. Louis.
- twenty-nine of 95 runners attempting to steal were caught while he was catching (31%).
- underwent arthroscopic surgery on his left knee in October to repair torn cartilage, which slowed him over the final month of the season.

Earned a spot on the 25-man roster after batting .606 (20x33) during spring training in 1994.

- split time with Scott Servais at catcher, starting 41 games.
- batted .426 (26x61) against lefthanded pitching and hit .338 (23x68) with all five of his homers when runners were on base.
- forty percent of the runners attempting to steal were caught while he was catching.
- blasted his first major league homer on April 13 at Florida off Chris Hammond in a 4-0 Astros win.
- hit his next two on June 16 in San Francisco to help the Astros prevail, 6-3.
- blasted a three-run, pinch-hit homer in the 12th inning on July 27 at Cincinnati to cap a six-run rally in a 7-1 victory.

Had his 1993 season end early when he suffered a pulled hamstring and was placed on the disabled list on August 24.

- finished his season with a 24-game hitting streak, which was interrupted by his injury...was hitting .457 (16x35) in August, and batted at a .347 clip over the second half.
- threw out 32-percent of baserunners attempting to steal against him (24-of-75).

Named to the Texas League's post-season All-Star team in 1992 after hitting a career-best .307 in 94 games for the Generals.

- ranked third in the league in batting and seventh in on-base percentage (.360).
- had a .996 fielding percentage in 75 games behind the plate, committing only two errors in 546 total chances...did not make his first error until August.
- threw out 47-percent of base runners attempting to steal against him (33-of-70).

Contract was recalled from Jackson on August 4, 1991, when Scott Servais was placed on the 15-day DL with a fracture of the fifth metacarpal bone on his right hand.

- played in 10 games in Houston, starting seven.
- his first appearance in the big leagues was as a starter on August 8 against San Diego...was 0x2 with a walk.
- collected his first major league hit on August 18 at Los Angeles, a sixth-inning double off Mike Morgan...his only other safely was a single against the Padres on September 10.

Had an impressive season cut short by an injury in 1990.

- broke his left thumb in a home plate collision on August 4...was hitting at a .283 clip for Double A Columbus with 90 hits in 92 games.
- led Southern League catchers with a .994 fielding percentage.
- caught five innings of the Southern League All-Star Game and was 1x1.

Opened the 1989 season at Double A Columbus before being sent back to Osceola.

- batted .286, including .308 over his final month, with Osceola.

Made the jump from the Gulf Coast League to Osceola in the Florida State League in 1988.

- stole a career-high 19 bases for the Astros.

First pro season in the United States came in 1987 at Sarasota.

Played in the Dominican Summer League in 1985 and 1986.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Houston has had only four home games postponed because of rain since its entrance into the National League in 1962. The first three were "rained out" and all occurred in the first season when games were played in Colt Stadium (April 23 vs. Philadelphia, June 13 vs. New York and July 16 vs. Chicago). The fourth game was a "rain in" and occurred on June 15 of 1976 when as much as 10 inches of rain fell in the Houston area virtually flooding the entire city.

Only members of the Houston Astros and the visiting Pirates were able to make their way to the Astrodome. Umpires, fans and stadium personnel were unable to reach the ballpark.

2001 ASTROS

2000 SEASON

Had a breakout year, posting career highs in games played (152), at-bats (558), runs (118), hits (175), doubles (42), home runs (44), and RBI (123).

- opened the year in dramatic fashion, going 3x4 with a career high five RBI on Opening Day (April 4) at Pittsburgh...hit the first Opening Day grand slam in franchise history.
- cracked the Astros' first homer at Enron Field with a solo shot to left center on April 7 vs. Philadelphia.
- was hit by pitches three times on April 19 at Los Angeles to tie a major league record (20th time).
- was a part of seven of Houston's 12 back-to-back home run combos, including a club record-tying back-to-back-to-back effort with Moises Alou and Tony Eusebio on June 14 at Colorado.
- tied the club record when he hit two home runs in consecutive days on September 9 and 10 at Chicago (NL)...Moises Alou also accomplished that feat in 2000 (August 13-14).
- was named co-Player of the Week with teammate Julio Lugo, during which he batted .483 (14x29) with five doubles and four homers...he scored 11 runs and recorded a 1.069 slugging percentage.
- ended the year on a 14-game hitting streak, during which he batted .509 (27x53) with six homers and 13 RBI.
- tied the Astros' individual season high and his career best with three doubles on September 12 vs. the Giants.
- tied his career high with four hits on September 15 vs. Pittsburgh.
- hit his 40th homer on September 19 at St. Louis (Hentgen) to join Jeff Bagwell as the only two players in franchise history to hit 40 longballs in a single season.
- had his fourth multi-homer game of the year and the fifth of his career on September 22 at Cincinnati.
- was named NL Player of the Month for an outstanding September, during which he batted .476 (49x103) with 11 homers and 31 RBI over 28 games played...he led the league with 49 hits in 103 at-bats, a .971 slugging percentage, a .533 on-base percentage, 36 runs scored and 14 doubles...hit safely in 28 of 29 games in September.
- joined Jeff Bagwell as the only two Houston players to ever record 40-or-more doubles and 40-or-more homers in a single season.
- is just the third Venezuelan-born player in Major League history (Andres Galarraga, Tony Armas Sr.) to reach the 40-homer plateau.
- is just the fourth player in franchise history to hit at least 30 homers, score at least 100 runs and record at least 100 RBI in a single season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Ranked among the league leaders with 15 outfield assists in 1999 before being placed on the disabled list on August 9 due to an injury to his left knee...remained on the DL for the remainder of the season.

- underwent surgery on August 26 to repair the bipartite patella in his left knee...team physician Dr. David Lintner performed the surgery.
- the surgical procedure necessitated making a small incision to remove the loose fragment in the kneecap...an arthroscope was used to complete the surgery.
- before his injury, he was second on the team with 15 homers, his last occurring on July 25 vs. San Diego (Ashby)...hit his 14th homer on July 6 at Arizona (Daal) and drove in all three Astros runs in a 3-1 win.
- tied his career-high (third time) with four RBI in a 3x4 performance on June 5 at Minnesota.
- was 3x5 with a career-best three doubles on May 25 vs. Colorado.
- his first three homers of 1999 were all part of back-to-back homer situations...his first home run on April 6 vs. the Cubs (Trachsel) was followed by a solo shot by Carl Everett...his second homer came on April 14 at San Francisco (Del Toro) after a solo blast by Ken Caminiti...his third home run on April 20 at Chicago (Karchner) was followed by a solo homer by Mitch Meluskey.

Opened the 1998 season by starting 30 of the club's first 53 games before an injury sidelined him for nearly seven weeks.

- he was 2x4 on May 29 at Colorado...in the eighth inning of that contest, he crashed into the centerfield wall at Coors Field attempting to make an over-the-fence grab of a home run and separated his right shoulder.

- was placed on the 15-day disabled list on May 30 and was not activated until July 16 when Billy Wagner went on the DL after suffering a concussion...he played in 10 games at Triple A New Orleans on a rehabilitation assignment before being reinstated, batting .250 (4x24) with no homers and one RBI.
- after going 1x4 in two games in July, he returned to form in August...he batted .306 (15x49) over 18 games with three home runs and 10 RBI.
- he went 3x5 with a double, home run and two RBI on August 21 at Milwaukee, then had the first two home run game of his career on August 30 in the Astrodome against Pittsburgh...he knocked in three runs in his first two-homer contest.
- on September 20, he hit solo home runs in the first and third innings at Pittsburgh to provide all the offense for Shane Reynolds, Jay Powell and Billy Wagner in a 2-0 win.
- his 11th inning sacrifice fly on the final day of the regular season scored Carl Everett for a 4-3 victory over the Cubs, sending Chicago and San Francisco into a one-game playoff for the final post season berth.

Spent most of the year at Triple A New Orleans in 1997, but was recalled to Houston on August 31 in time to be placed on the parent club's post season roster for the NL Division Series against Atlanta.

- an American Association All-Star, he batted .279 with 11 home runs and 78 RBI in 134 games for the Zephyrs...he led the Association with 37 doubles and also ranked among leaders in hits (4th-147), RBI (5th) and extra-base hits (T5-53).
- upon arrival in Houston, he stepped into the starting lineup in centerfield on September 1 at home against the Brewers...after flying out to right in his first big league plate appearance, he singled to left with one out in the fourth inning off Joel Adamson for his first major league hit.
- he hit safely in 13 of his first 17 major league games at a .333 (19x57) pace...he had a season-best, four-game hitting streak from September 20-24, which represented the last of those 17 contests.
- his first major league home run came on September 17 at Pittsburgh, a solo shot to open the top of the sixth inning off the Bucs' Clint Sodowsky.
- on October 8, six days following Houston's exit from the playoffs, he underwent surgery in Houston to repair a hernia...Dr. Wade Rosenberg performed the surgery.
- while playing winter baseball in Venezuela, he was hospitalized in Valencia with a hemorrhagic dengue fever, a potentially deadly tropical disease that lowers the level of human blood platelets and is transmitted by the native "white legs" mosquito.
- he was rated as the number one prospect in the Houston minor league system by Baseball America magazine in its December 22-January 4 editions.

Played in both the Texas League and Double A All-Star games after batting .294 with 14 home runs and 78 RBI for Jackson in 1996.

- finished ranked among league leaders in hits (2nd-151), doubles (3rd-34) and at-bats (T4-513).
- he led the Texas League with 39 hits in April and was batting .358.

Continued his rapid rise through the Houston organization in 1995 by slugging 14 home runs for Double A Jackson, which ranked fifth among Astros minor league players.

- he led the Generals with six triples, while his double (28), home run and RBI (59) totals were second...his 48 extra-base hits were tops among Jackson players and he had a .434 slugging percentage.
- named Texas League Player of the Week from June 26-July 2 when he batted .519 (14x27) with four doubles, two triples, two home runs and eight RBI...that stretch raised his season batting average from .248 to .274.

Set a Midwest League record with 47 doubles and paced the circuit with 65 extra-base hits for Quad City in 1994 to earn mid- and post-season All-Star honors.

- he led the River Bandits with 76 RBI in 124 games.
- had 23 outfield assists, including three on Opening Night.

Earned mid-season All-Star honors for Asheville in 1993.

- was one of four Tourists to steal 20-or-more bases (21) as the club swiped 176 for the season.

Finished seventh in the Gulf Coast League batting race in 1992 with a .310 average in his first season as a pro.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Signed by the Astros as a non-drafted free agent on July 2, 1991...signed by Andres Reiner and Rafael Cariel.

- named MVP of the Venezuelan League championship series, leading Magallanes to a berth in the Caribbean World Series prior to the 1997 season.
- he and wife Aleida have two sons: Richard Jose (October 11, 1993) and Ricky Jose (July 21, 1998).

HIDALGO'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Signed by Houston as a non-drafted free agent on July 2, 1991.
- On disabled list, May 30-July 20, 1998 (separated right shoulder).
- On disabled list, August 9-remainder of season, 1999 (inflamed patella - left knee).

Former Houston Colt .45 John Paciorek holds the distinction of having the most at-bats of any of the handful of players who have ended their careers with a perfect 1.000 batting average. His lone appearance in the majors came on September 29, 1963 for the Colts against the New York Mets and he went 3-for-3 with three RBI and four runs scored. However, a back injury prevented him from ever returning to the major leagues.

2001 ASTROS

2000 SEASON

Struggled through a career-high 16-loss season which included a franchise-record 13-game losing streak that lasted from April 10-July 4.

- entered the 2000 season having posted a 37-18 record in his first two full seasons as a starter.
- won his first start of the year on April 5 at Pittsburgh, 11-2...was winless in his next 16 starts.
- allowed club records of 12 runs and five homers en route to a 12-3 loss to the Cubs on April 27 at home...tied a major league record with four homers allowed in a single inning...had happened 15 previous times, including seven by National League pitchers.
- suffered the loss on May 2 at Chicago against Kerry Wood...allowed 10 runs (nine earned), marking the second consecutive game that he allowed 10-or-more runs.
- lost five consecutive starts before getting a no-decision on May 7 at Los Angeles...surrendered seven runs (four earned) – including three homers – over four innings in a game that Astros came back to win in 10 innings, 14-8...three unearned runs were scored on three errors.
- had a no-decision on May 31 at Colorado, his 100th major league start, in an 8-6 loss at Coors Field.
- lost consecutive starts to the Giants on June 17 and June 23...tied the club record for the most consecutive losses (11) in the 10-3 loss to San Francisco on June 23 at Enron Field...Barry Bonds' third-inning homer ended his 22-1-inning streak without allowing a longball.
- dropped his 12th straight decision on June 28 at Arizona to establish the club record for consecutive losses...Dick Drout lost 11 straight from May 26-September 4 in 1963.
- lasted just three innings in his start on July 4, losing for the 13th straight time...allowed seven runs on five hits in a 10-4 loss against Randy Johnson and the Arizona Diamondbacks.
- pitching on the final day before the All-Star break, snapped his losing streak on July 9 vs. Kansas City...tied his season-high with eight strikeouts.
- beat Florida on July 31, 4-2, for his season-high third straight victory...snapped a six-game road losing streak...had not won on the road since his first start of the year on April 5 at Pittsburgh.
- had a no-decision vs. Montreal in his 200th Major League game on August 5.
- pitching on three days' rest due to Chris Holt's eye injury, had his three-game winning streak snapped vs. the Mets on August 9...it was his first loss in five career starts (four with Houston) on three days' rest.
- notched a 3-2 win over Atlanta on September 1, allowing runs in the first and second inning before pitching four shutout frames...retired 10 of the final 12 batters he faced.
- pitched a season-high eight innings in a 13-5 win over Florida on September 6 in Houston...retired the first eight batters faced and 11 of the first 13.
- had a no-decision in the 8-7, 10-inning loss to the Giants on September 11...walked a career-high six batters...also had a no-decision in his 100th start as an Astro on September 16 vs. Pittsburgh at home.
- gave up three homers to the Reds on September 22, bringing his season total to a National League record 47 and breaking Robin Roberts' NL record of 46 homers (Philadelphia, 1956).
- lasted just two innings in that game at Cincinnati, tying his shortest stint as a big league starter.
- did not factor in the decision in his final start of the year on September 28 at Pittsburgh, despite allowing only one hit and one run over eight innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Was named to The Sporting News' National League All-Star team in 1999 after a career year during which he won 21 games and finished fourth in Cy Young Award balloting with six points, behind winner Randy Johnson, Mike Hampton and Kevin Millwood.

- he and Hampton are the first Houston hurlers to win 20 games in the same season...Houston's previous 20-game winners include Larry Dierker (20-13, 1969), J.R. Richard (20-15, 1976), Joe Niekro (21-11, 1979; 20-12, 1980) and Mike Scott (20-10, 1989).
- finished among the league leaders in ERA (9th-3.58), wins (2nd-21), games (1st-35), winning percentage (9th-.677), innings pitched (3rd-246.1), strikeouts (7th-187) and fewest walks per nine innings (3rd-1.6).
- allowed three earned runs-or-less in 27 of his 35 starts, including his last start of the regular season when he did not allow a Dodger run to score in 7.2 innings...Billy Wagner entered the game in the eighth inning to complete the combined shutout, 3-0.
- became the National League's first 20-game winner on September 11 in a 5-3 win over the Cubs at home...became the first Houston hurler to reach the plateau since Mike Scott went 20-10 in 1989.
- earned the win at Philadelphia in his start on September 6 to become the National League's first 19-game winner.
- became the NL's first 18-game winner on August 31 vs. the Mets at the Dome after three day's rest, beating New York, 6-2...pitched seven scoreless innings before allowing a two-run home run to John Olerud in the eighth inning...both runs were unearned after a two-out error.
- tied his career high with his 16th win on August 16 in the Dome against Milwaukee...his start against the Brewers was his first at home since losing to Arizona on July 22, 2-1...earned his first win in Houston since beating San Diego on June 12, 3-2.
- with his 10th win coming in his 12th start on June 7 at Chicago (AL), he reached the 10-victory mark faster than any Astro pitcher since Dick Farrell reached the plateau in his 11th start and 12th game in 1964.
- after dropping his first start of the year on April 8, he reeled off eight straight wins from April 14 to May 23 — tied for longest winning streak in the National League this season...won 11 of his first 13 starts.
- in his three complete games, he allowed five runs on 21 hits with just one walk and 16 strikeouts for a 1.67 ERA.
- one of four Astros named to the National League All-Star team...faced four batters in one inning pitched, allowing one hit and no runs.
- won two straight starts just prior to the All-Star break...wrapped up the season's first half with a 13-4 record by winning 7-3 at Kansas City on July 11...working on three days rest for the first time in 1999, earned his 12th win on July 6 at Arizona, 3-1.
- captured his career-best eighth consecutive win on May 23 at San Francisco...won his seventh straight start on May 18 at Los Angeles... gave up one home run, ending a four-game streak of not allowing a homer (April 26-May 12).

Spent his first full season in the majors in 1998 as a starter and had a breakthrough year.

- he and Shane Reynolds tied for the team lead in innings pitched with 233.1...his innings total in 1998 was higher than his entire career total (228.0) over three partial seasons with Detroit (153.0) and 1997 with Houston (75.0) combined.
- he began the year going 6-1 with a 2.82 ERA in his first eight starts (17ER/54.1IP)...that run included a four-game winning streak in consecutive starts from April 24-May 10.
- his final victory in the streak came against the Brewers on May 10 and made him the NL's first six-game winner in 1998...it also established a career, single-season best for him (6), topping his five victories for Detroit in 1996.
- from July 27 through September 14, he went 7-1 with a 2.78 ERA over 10 starts (24ER/77.2IP).
- this stretch started with consecutive complete game wins in the Astrodome on July 27 over Florida, 9-1, and on August 1 at Pittsburgh, 2-1...those outings earned him NL Player of the Week honors on August 3 as he allowed only two earned runs and had 16 strikeouts over his 18.0 innings pitched.
- he won a career-best, six straight decisions from July 27 through August 29, which included going 5-0 with a 3.15 ERA in his six August starts (16ER/45.2IP).
- he won his last regular season start on September 25 at home, 6-2 over the Cubs...he allowed Sammy Sosa's 66th home run in the fourth inning of that game and gave up 34 regular season roundtrippers.

Led Houston relievers in innings pitched (73.0) and ranked fourth on the staff in appearances by working in a career-high 52 games in 1997, while spending his first full season in the majors.

- made his first NL appearance on April 4 against St. Louis, using only three pitches to retire the two batters he faced to close the seventh inning in Houston's 3-2, 11-inning victory.
- he made one post-season appearance, tossing a scoreless inning in Game Two at Atlanta in Houston's 13-3 loss.

Spent the entire second half of the season with Detroit after beginning the year at Triple A Toledo in 1996.

- had two stints with the parent club, the first coming from April 25-May 24...started four-of-five games in the stretch, losing all four starts and posting an 8.02 ERA...returned to the Tigers for good on July 3, relieving in all of his 34 appearances.

Recalled from Triple A Toledo on July 13 and finished the 1995 campaign in Detroit.

- recorded his first major league win August 12 at Milwaukee, allowing just two runs (two-run home run by Valentin) and four hits in 6.0 innings pitched...went on to defeat Milwaukee again at Tiger Stadium (5-1) on September 12 and earned the victory at Boston on September 27 (7-5) to account for his entire Tiger win total.

Saw his first major league action as he pitched three games for the Tigers, but spent the majority of 1994 in Toledo.

- recalled from Toledo on April 19 and made his major league debut the following day versus Kansas City...went four innings in an 11-6 defeat in which he surrendered six runs in 4.0 innings pitched, while striking out four.
- pitched a 3-0 no-hitter for Toledo against Pawtucket on August 17.

In 1993 he played his first season at the Double A level and responded by leading the team in games started (27), innings pitched (177.0) and strikeouts (138), all career highs.

- represented the Dominican Republic in the Caribbean World Series.

Logged more games started (25), innings pitched (151.0) and strikeouts (137) in the 1992 season than any other pitcher on the Class A Lakeland staff.

• surrendered 14 home runs to top all Florida State League hurlers.
Spent the start of the 1991 year at Class A Fayetteville before earning a late-season move to Lakeland.
Began his professional career in 1990 playing for Bristol (Rookie) of the Appalachian League.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

He has one son, Jose Jr. (July 4, 1998)...lives in Houston during the offseason.
• attended Escuela Primaria Las Charcas High School.
• is an accomplished vocalist who has performed in restaurants and clubs.

2000 SEASON

Spent the majority of the season at Triple A, but did reach the majors for the first time, pitching for both San Francisco and Houston.

- made his Major League debut in April with San Francisco...allowed three runs over 2.1 innings for the Giants in three appearances before the July trade that sent Doug Henry to San Francisco.
- was on the Giants' 40-man roster for the first time...began the season at Triple A Fresno, where he appeared in 28 games.
- was optioned to Fresno on April 1 prior to the start of the season...recalled on April 14 and made his big league debut vs. Arizona, allowing two hits over one inning of relief...returned to Fresno on April 17 when Shawn Estes was taken off the disabled list.
- recalled from Fresno again on July 14...pitched on the road twice, July 23 at Los Angeles and July 29 at Wrigley Field against the Cubs.
- again optioned to Fresno on July 19 only to be recalled the next day...traded to Houston on July 30.
- did not appear in game for the Astros in his first stint with Houston prior to his option to Triple A New Orleans on August 6 when Jay Powell was removed from the disabled list.
- pitched in 11 games for the Zephyrs, going 2-0 with a 1.80 ERA (3ER/15IP) with 22 strikeouts and seven walks.
- recalled from Triple A on September 5 and spent the remainder of the season at Houston, working 9.2 innings over eight relief appearances...made his Astros debut on September 6 vs. Florida.
- did not allow a run in three consecutive outings September 20-26 over five innings...worked three scoreless frames on September 22 at Cincinnati.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Spent the first half of the 1999 season rehabbing from shoulder surgery before joining Double A Shreveport for the final part of the season.

- did not pitch until July 17...suffered through a three-game losing streak to open the campaign before logging his lone victory on August 3 vs. El Paso.
- pitched for Grand Canyon of the Arizona Fall League following the season.

Led Double A Shreveport with 10 wins and 128 strikeouts during the 1998 season.

- selected to the Texas League All-Star team during the season...was twice the Texas League Howe SportsData Pitcher of the week, earning honors May 11-17 and July 13-19.
- had season cut short after experiencing tenderness in his right shoulder...underwent arthroscopic surgery following the season, performed by Dr. Gary Fanton.

Opened professional career in 1997 at Rookie Salem-Keizer before earning promotion to Class A San Jose.

- was 2-1 with a 3.52 ERA over his first nine pro outings.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

A 1994 graduate of McNeil High School in Round Rock, Texas...attended Concordia Lutheran College.

- transferred to Southwest Texas State University, where he led the Bobcats to the 1997 NCAA Regional in Lubbock, Texas...earned All-Southland Conference honors.
- signed by Giants' scout Tom Korenek.

LINEBRINK'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by the Giants in the second round of the June 1997 draft.

The Astros tied the National League record for the biggest run deficit overcome to win a game on July 18 1994 against St. Louis in the Astrodome. Trailing 11-0, the Astros bounced back to win 15-12 on the strength of an 11-run sixth inning. The feat had been accomplished twice before (St. Louis 14, New York 12 on June 15, 1952; Philadelphia 18, Chicago 16 in 10 innings on April 17, 1976). Prior to the July 18 comeback, the largest deficit a Houston team had overcome to win was seven runs (three times):

- made 40 starts at second base, 57 at shortstop, one in centerfield and one in rightfield....was Houston's leadoff batter in 46 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Led the offensive attack for Double A Jackson, finishing the 1999 season with a team-best .319 batting average and 25 stolen bases...his average was sixth-best in the Texas League and his runs total (77) was second-highest on the Jackson club.

- garnered Baseball Weekly All-Star Honorable Mention recognition and was named to the mid-season Texas League All-Star team...also named as a post season All-Star.
- began the season on a tear, batting .324 (23x71) in April, but cooled off a bit in May, batting just .231 (15x65).
- snapped a 6-6 tie in the ninth inning with an RBI single as Jackson beat San Antonio, 9-6 on May 18...went 3x4 in that game and swiped three bases.
- had a tremendous second half of the season, batting .380 (27x71) in July and .365 (38x104) in August...ended the '99 campaign by hitting safely in 12 of his last 14 contests (23x60; 383), including eight multi-hit games.

A Florida State League All-Star in 1998, set a club record at Kissimmee with 223 total bases while leading the league with 14 triples.

- led all Astros minor league players and ranked fifth in the FSL with 51 stolen bases and also topped the team in runs (81), hits (154) and multiple-hit games (45)...ranked seventh in the Houston organization with a .303 batting average.
- hit safely in the first nine games from April 8-16 with a .333 average (13x39, 2 2B, 3 3B, 6 RBI).
- batted .484 (15x31, 3 2B, 6 RBI) from April 24-May 3.
- tallied consecutive three-hit games (3x5) May 25-26 against Brevard County.
- in the midst of an 11-game hitting streak from June 9-23 (.382; 11x47), finished the season's first half hitting .440 (11x25) over six games from June 12-18...collected a single and a double in the June 20 Florida State League All-Star Game.
- batted .467 (21x45) during his second 11-game hitting streak from July 3-15...went 4x5 with a homer and three RBI in a 12-8 win against Daytona on July 8.

Led the Florida State League in 1997 with 14 triples and ranked third with 89 runs scored.

- drove in 61 runs to rank second on the club.
- ranked first among Houston minor league players with 35 steals.

- batted .447 (21x47) during a 12-game hitting streak from June 26-July 7.
- collected league-leading 13th and 14th triples in 2-1 win over West Palm on August 26.

Spent second professional season at Quad City in 1996, ranking among Astros minor league leaders in batting average (9th-.295) and steals (T3-24).

- hit .396 (19x48) during a 12-game hitting streak from August 5-18, raising his average from .288 to .302.
- batted .318 (7x22, 2B, HR, 6 RBI) during Midwest League playoffs.

Began pro career at Auburn in 1995, swiping a club-high 17 bases.

- went 5x6 with a triple on August 29 at Batavia.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Recommended by Chuck Edmondson...Drafted in the 43rd round by the Astros...the lowest-round draft pick to come up through Houston's system and reach the majors.

- attended Connors State College.
- he and wife Mabel reside in Brooklyn, NY.

2000 SEASON

Was recalled by the Astros in time to make his major league debut on August 10...ended the year on a high note, winning four straight (September 5-27) and throwing his first career complete game in his final start of the 2000 season.

- began the year on the disabled list due to right shoulder tendinitis...made his first start for Double A Round Rock on April 17...promoted to Triple A on May 21.
- was 0-2 with a 4.78 ERA (17ER/32.0IP) at Round Rock over six starts from April 17-May 14...worked five-or-more innings in all six games.
- after enduring a three-game losing streak in July, he was 2-1 in August over five starts with a 3.94 ERA (14ER/32.0IP) for the Zephyrs...fanned 22 and walked 13.
- beat Memphis on August 5, 5-2, before being recalled by Houston for the first time...had no decision on July 5 in a 3-2, 11-inning loss to Albuquerque despite allowing only three hits and no runs.
- made his major league debut on August 10 vs. the Mets in a 10-3 loss...was recalled from Triple A to make a start due to Chris Holt's eye injury...was optioned back to the Zephyrs after the game.
- posted a 4-8 record with a 4.56 ERA (60ER/118.1IP) over 19 starts for Triple A...took a perfect game into the sixth inning in a 1-0 win at home over Memphis on August 31.
- recalled from New Orleans for the second time on September 1...earned his first major league win on September 5 vs. Florida, working five innings and allowing two runs.
- after his first two major league outings in Houston (1-1, 4ER/11.0IP), made his first road start and earned his second win on September 10 at Wrigley Field in a 7-6 victory...allowed five hits and three runs in the first two innings, but settled down and limited Chicago to three hits while retiring 17 of the final 23 batters he faced.
- was 4-0 over his final five starts...came back from his 1.1-inning stint vs. the Pirates on September 15 by winning his final start of the year on September 27 at Pittsburgh...threw a four-hit complete game in a 10-1 Astros win, striking out seven.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Was named to the mid-season Texas League All-Star team in 1999 and also garnered post-season All-Star honors as he tied for second on the team with nine wins and led the starting rotation with a 2.75 ERA.

- pitched seven scoreless innings in a 3-0 win over Arkansas on April 20...allowed just three hits in that outing while notching eight strikeouts...he allowed two runs or fewer in his first three starts April 9-20 (19.0IP), 8H, 3ER, 7BB, 17SO), going 1-1.
- lost three straight starts May 1-12 (9ER/18.2IP)...picked up the pace in June, allowing two hits and two runs while fanning seven batters over eight innings in a 4-2 win against Arkansas on June 28...allowed two earned runs or fewer in seven straight starts from June 3-July 11 and was 4-1 during that stretch.
- missed three starts in July due to a right shoulder ailment...allowed four hits over six scoreless innings upon his return on August 12 against Shreveport.
- dropped four straight decisions from August 17-September 1 but still ranked third in the league in ERA (2.75).

Overcame a six-game losing streak to tie for the club lead with career-highs in wins (11), games (28) and starts (28), playing the entire 1998 season at Class A Kissimmee.

- notched an 11-13 record with a 4.67 ERA...his 28 starts tied for first in the Florida State League.
- won his first three starts en route to a 6-1 record through the first month of the season.
- struck out career-high 11 in seven scoreless innings to pick up fourth win in a 13-1 victory over Jupiter on May 6...improved to 5-1 on May 11 against Brevard County, striking out eight over seven innings.
- lost his next six starts from May 16-June 11...snapped the losing streak by allowing one run on two hits in six innings to beat Clearwater on June 16.
- posted a 1.74 ERA while going 4-3 over 10 starts from June 30-August 18 (12ER/62.0 IP).
- allowed only six earned runs over five starts in July (2-2, 1.54 ERA, 6 ER/35.0IP)...beat Charlotte on July 28, allowing no earned runs over seven innings.
- pitched six scoreless innings (4 H, 0 BB, 2 SO) in a no-decision against Dunedin on August 8.

Posted a 4-9 record with a 4.68 ERA (60ER/115.1IP) while battling shoulder and elbow problems much of the 1997 season...on the disabled list from April 24-June 6 due to an elbow strain.

- rebounded from a three-game losing streaking by going 3-1 with a 1.85 ERA over five starts from June 19-July 10 (34.1 IP, 27 H, 11 R, 7 ER, 8 BB, 24 SO).
- began that stretch by fanning 10 batters over seven innings (5 H, 2 R) in a 2-0 loss against Fort Wayne on June 19.
- struck out 11 batters over 7.2 innings (6 H, 2 R) in a 2-1 loss at Cedar Rapids on August 5.

Began the 1996 season on the disabled list for the Gulf Coast League Astros.

- split time between starting rotation and the bullpen, posting a 2-1 record and 6.23 ERA...eight appearances included five starts.

Made three starts in his first pro season with the Gulf Coast Astros in 1995.

- posted a 1-1 record with a 3.86 ERA, allowing five runs over 11.2 innings.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Was the Astros' first-round selection (22nd overall) in the June 1995 draft...recommended by Chuck Edmondson.

2001 ASTROS

2000 SEASON

Emerged as a mainstay in the starting rotation after being recalled on July 5 from New Orleans...made 15 starts for the Astros and threw two complete games.

- the first Houston rookie since Donne Wall in 1996 to notch two complete games.
- pitched eight-or-more innings in five of his 15 Triple A starts in 2000...his longest outing of the year was on May 5 when he went 8.2 innings and combined with reliever Mark Hutton in a 1-0 shutout over Omaha...allowed six hits in that outing while striking out seven.
- his 81 strikeouts ranked fifth-highest in the Pacific Coast League...his 105.1 innings pitched was also among the league leaders (4th).
- was 4-5 (16 games, 15 starts) with a 3.67 ERA for the Zephyrs at the time of his recall (43ER/105.1IP)...allowed 95 hits, six home runs and 38 walks while recording 81 strikeouts.
- made his first Astros start of the year on July 8 vs. the Royals, taking the loss despite lasting seven strong innings...lost his next outing at Cleveland.
- earned his first major league win in his fourth career start on July 22 vs. the Cardinals, 10-5...posted a career-high nine strikeouts...also connected for his first big league hit in that game.
- made two starts on the Astros' 10-game road trip from July 24 to August 3...had no decision in Houston's 5-4 loss at Florida on August 2...lost to Atlanta on July 29 at Turner Field, 5-2.
- despite tying his career high with nine strikeouts and allowing only three runs, lost at Philadelphia on August 12, 3-2.
- took a no-hitter into the seventh inning on August 18 vs. Milwaukee, earning the 5-4 win...Geoff Jenkins ended the bid with a solo home run to lead off the seventh.
- facing the Cubs for the first time, tied the Astros' club record by allowing 12 runs in a 15-5 loss on August 23 at home...became the first Major League hurler since the Dodgers' Bill Singer (July 30, 1972) to allow 12 runs and no homers.
- notched his first Major League complete game and got his first big league road win on August 29 at New York (NL) in an 11-1 victory.
- beat Atlanta by a 9-3 margin on September 3...allowed runs in the second and fourth innings.
- a three-game winning streak including a 13-10 slugfest against the Cubs in his first start at Wrigley Field on September 8.
- pitched his second complete game on September 20, but lost 3-2 to the Giants at home...had a 2-0 lead entering the seventh inning before allowing a leadoff homer to Barry Bonds and an RBI double...touched for a solo homer in the ninth.
- had a no-decision in the Astros' 8-6 win at St. Louis on September 19 at Busch Stadium...took another no-decision on September 24 at Cincinnati after pitching eight innings in a 4-3 loss...the Reds scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth for the victory.
- ended the season on a positive note, earning the win in his last start of 2000 on September 30, beating the Brewers, 7-6...allowed four runs on seven hits with three walks and seven strikeouts over seven innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Spent most of the 1999 season with the Triple A New Orleans Zephyrs...was recalled twice by the Astros, the first on July 5 and the second on September 6.

- made a spot start on July 8 at Arizona...took the loss after allowing seven runs on seven hits over three innings, including three home runs.
- made the longest relief outing of his career on September 18 at St. Louis...worked 2.1 innings and allowed one hit and three walks while recording two strikeouts.
- was tied for third in wins among Pacific Coast League pitchers and ranked eighth in ERA at the time of his first recall...led New Orleans in wins and strikeouts and was second in innings pitched.

Was off to a sterling start at Double A Jackson in 1998 before tendinitis of the middle finger on his right hand ended his season.

- was 5-0 with a 2.32 ERA (16 ER/62.0IP) in 10 starts before going on the disabled list in early June...pitched two scoreless innings against Tulsa on May 31 in his final start.
- allowed only two earned runs or less in all but one of his 10 outings.

- led the Texas League in ERA (2.40) through May 27.
- picked up third win on May 2 against Tulsa, allowing only one hit and no earned runs over seven innings (3 BB, 8 SO).
- picked up win number four in his next outing on May 8 against Midland, giving up only one earned run over six innings.
- hurled eight strong innings (5 H, 1R, 2 BB, 5 SO) for his fifth victory in 9-1 win at Tulsa on May 26.
- allowed two runs or less in each game over his first five starts (34 IP, 23 H, 11 R, 8 ER, 13 BB, 20 SO).

Split season at Class A between Quad City and Kissimmee and led Houston minor league pitchers in wins (15) and ERA (2.38) in 1997.

- went 5-3 with a club-leading 3.36 ERA for Quad City...pitched the first of his two three-hitters on May 16 (9 IP, 0 BB, 7 SO) for Quad City in an 11-2 win at Clinton.
- won first seven starts for Kissimmee from June 11-July 31 (34.1 IP, 32 H, 14 R, 12 ER, 7 BB, 39 SO) after being promoted...posted a team-best 1.80 ERA, tied for the club lead in wins (10) and did not allow more than two runs in each of his first five outings.
- win streak hit seven with his second three-hitter on July 20 in a 4-2 win at St. Petersburg (7 IP, 0 BB, 4 SO).

Spent the majority of the 1996 campaign with the Gulf Coast Astros before finishing the season at Auburn, posting a combined 4-5 record in 13 games with 12 starts.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

- Selected by the Astros in the 20th round of the June 1996 draft...recommended by Mike Maggart.
- attended Alvernia (PA) College and Brandywine Heights High School.

2000 SEASON

Reached the majors for the second time in his career, making eight appearances, including five starts, for the Astros.

- began the season on the disabled list from April 6-22, recovering from right shoulder surgery...made 18 starts for Triple A New Orleans, posting a 4.95 ERA (57ER/103.2IP) with 57 strikeouts and 41 walks.
- recalled from Triple A New Orleans on August 1 when Shane Reynolds was placed on the disabled list.
- made his Astros debut on August 3 at Florida, getting no decision in a 4-3 loss...scattered nine hits and allowed three runs.
- became the first Houston pitcher to win his first start at Enron Field, beating the Mets on August 8, 9-3...allowed five hits and one run over seven innings in his first-ever outing against New York.
- lasted only 2.1 innings in his next start at Philadelphia, a 14-7 come-from-behind Houston win...it was his shortest Major League stint in 19 starts...missed his next start due to tightness in his right shoulder.
- returned to action on August 22, getting no decision in a 10-7 win over the Cubs at home.
- Dropped his final start of the season at Shea Stadium in a 4-2 loss to the Mets, allowing three runs over five innings.
- moved to the bullpen in September...his final four outings, including a 16-7 win over the Pirates on September 15, came in relief.
- was 1-1 with a 6.39 ERA (18ER/25.1IP) as a starter, 1-0 with a 3.00 ERA (2ER/6.0) as a reliever.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- was 3-0 in three starts at home with a 7.31 ERA (13ER/16.0IP).
- his last game before the surgery was on May 24 at Omaha...took the loss after allowing eight runs (five earned) on five hits over 3.2 innings.

Started the 1998 season at Double A and progressed to the big leagues in the span of three months, eventually making 16 starts for the Tigers in his first major league season.

- began the year at Double A Jacksonville for the first time in his career, where he made 14 starts and posted a 10-2 record with a 3.07 ERA.
- held lefthanded hitters to a .232 mark (42x181), the sixth-lowest average in the AL and tied for 11th-lowest in the majors.
- was recalled from Triple A Toledo on June 27 and made his major league debut that night with a start against the Reds at Tiger Stadium...allowed four runs on eight hits (including two home runs) in six frames of work as the Tigers fell in 13 innings.
- took the loss in his next start on July 2 at Pittsburgh for his first big league decision...allowed three runs in four innings.
- earned his first major league victory on July 17 versus Boston, 6-4...allowed four runs in six innings and surrendered three home runs.
- appeared in relief on August 22 at Oakland, tossing one scoreless frame...it marked his first relief outing in the majors and his first as a pro since 1996.
- dropped his last four decisions of the season after August 25 despite a 3.55 ERA (10ER/25.1IP) in his six games during that span.
- was promoted to Triple A Toledo where he made one start on June 20 before his recall to the big leagues.
- left Toledo tied for the overall minor league lead with 10 victories on the season.

Emergred as the workhorse of the Lakeland staff in 1997, his second season for the Tigers of the Class A Florida State League.

- had the fourth-best ERA (2.50) of any starter in the FSL (minimum 112IP).
- led the league in complete games (eight) and innings pitched (183.1) and finished tied for second in the FSL in wins (13).
- also topped the Lakeland staff in games started (27), strikeouts (122) and tied for the lead in shutouts (two).

- tossed his first complete-game shutout as a pro on June 8 against Brevard County.
- won seven consecutive decisions from June 3-July 12...won nine of 10 decisions from June 3-August 6.
- recorded complete-game wins in back-to-back starts on July 30 and August 6.

Compiled an 8-13 record with a 4.90 ERA in 1996 in his first season pitching for Lakeland.

- led the Florida State League with five complete games on the year.

Began his pro career in 1995, splitting the season between Short Season A Jamestown and Class A Fayetteville.

- posted a perfect 4-0 record in five starts at Fayetteville.
- struck out 52 batters in a combined 54.1 innings between Jamestown and Fayetteville.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

- his two-inning stint vs. the Mets on August 8 was his first duty since his win on June 18 at San Francisco.
- made only two more appearances, August 10 vs. New York and August 12 at Philadelphia – before he was placed on the disabled list for the third time on August 17.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Pitched in a club-high tying 67 games in 1999, his most appearances since 1997 with Florida...second on the club with four saves, equaling the total he had in 1998 for Houston.

- after struggling to a 7.36 ERA (6ER/7.1IP) in April, he rebounded to post a 2.45 (4ER/14.2IP) mark in May and a 2.16 (2ER/8.1IP) clip in June.
- pitched the final two innings at San Francisco on April 13 to earn his first save of the year in a 7-3 win.
- secured his first win of the year when he worked the eighth inning of the Astros' 8-4 come-from-behind win over St. Louis on April 18.
- allowed one hit and no runs in five innings over five games from September 6-15.
- was on the mound for the final regular season out in the Astrodome's 35-year history...struck out Raul Mondesi to seal a 9-4 Houston win over the Dodgers, sending the Astros to their third straight post season berth.

Stranded 85-percent of runners he inherited over his 29 appearances after joining the Astros (22-of-26) in 1998...he also retired 20-of-29 first batters he faced (69 percent).

- after allowing a run in his first appearance as an Astro on July 10 at St. Louis, he made eight straight appearances from July 12-30 without allowing a run...that stretch covered 10.1 innings over which he surrendered one hit and five walks, while striking out 12 batters.
- he lost on August 16 against the Cubs at home when a two-out, bases loaded pinch single by Manny Alexander in the 11th inning scored Mickey Morandini in the 2-1 game.
- he had a 4-4 record with a 4.21 ERA and three saves for Florida in 33 games.

Earned the win in Game Seven of the 1997 World Series (1 IP, 0 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 0 SO).

- led the club with 79.2 relief innings and 74 appearances.
- collected first Major League hit on April 28 vs. San Diego.
- was 3-0 with a 1.69 ERA and one save in 16.0 innings in August.
- had the lowest opponents' batting average against (.172) in May.
- recorded the lowest opponents' batting average against (.198) on the road (23x116).

Recalled from Triple A Charlotte on April 5, 1996 and earned his first Major League win on April 19 vs. Los Angeles, pitching one scoreless inning.

- made career-high and finished second on the club with 67 appearances, all out of the bullpen.
- made 16 relief appearances in August and allowed eight earned runs in 19.0 innings for a 3.79 ERA.
- gained his first Major League save May 13 vs. St. Louis.
- activated from 15-day DL, May 10...placed on DL April 20 with a strained left intercostal muscle.
- suffered the injury while he was in the process of picking up his first Major League victory vs. Los Angeles April 19.

Was the staff relief ace at Double A Portland prior to having his contract purchased on September 9, 1995.

- pitched one inning, allowing one run in his ML debut on September 10 vs. Atlanta.
- was selected as the Marlins Organizational Pitcher of the Year.
- returned to the bullpen after starting for two seasons in the Marlins organization and led the Eastern League with 24 saves.
- set a Marlins organizational season record with 24 saves...previous record of 17 was set by Doug Pettit in 1993...Don Perigny held the AA record with 11 in 1994.

Spent the entire 1994 season at Frederick of the Carolina League, finished with a 7-7 record and 4.98 ERA in 26 games (20 starts).

- after pitching out of the bullpen to open the season, he made 20 consecutive starts...his last five appearances were as a reliever...finished with 0-0 mark, one save and 3.72 ERA in six games out of the 'pen (4 ER/9.2IP).

Started his professional career in 1993 with Class A Albany.

- made his pro debut at Charleston (SC) on August 6 as a starter, hurling 2.0 innings in a game Albany eventually lost 6-5 in 16 innings.
- signed his pro contract on July 18 at Camden Yards before the Twins game that day and was introduced to a crowd of over 46,208.

2000 SEASON

Made the National League All-Star Team for the first time in his career, but missed most of the second half of the season due to degenerative disks in his lower back.

- the 22 starts and 131.0 innings were his fewest since 1994.
- made his fifth straight Opening Day start on April 4 at Pittsburgh...notched the win after allowing two runs on six hits over seven innings in the 5-2 Houston victory.
- tied the club record with five Opening Day starts...only J.R. Richard (1976-80) and Mike Scott (1987-91) have started as many as five straight openers in franchise history.
- represented the Astros and the National League as one of 10 pitchers named to the 2000 NL All-Star team by manager Bobby Cox...it was his first All-Star selection...did not pitch in the game.
- worked six-or-more innings in all but five starts...worked at least seven innings on nine occasions.
- was 4-0 with a 3.35 ERA (14ER/37.2IP) in April.
- at San Diego on April 14, allowed three earned runs on 10 hits with a walk and three strikeouts over five innings...added to the Astros' cause with his fourth career home run, a solo shot in the fifth inning that tied the game, 3-3.
- won three straight starts April 14-25, winning at San Diego and Los Angeles and at home over the Cubs.
- matched his career-long winning streak (sixth time) with his fifth straight victory on May 10 vs. Colorado, allowing one run over seven innings...his last five-game winning streak was from August 19-August 25 in 1998.
- did not walk a batter over 16 innings from May 16-27.
- made two consecutive starts (5/16-22) at Milwaukee, each a no decision ending in an extra-inning Houston loss...started the first game of the originally scheduled three-game series on May 16 at County Stadium in a 16-inning, 6-5 Astros loss...started the first game of the makeup doubleheader on May 22...left with a 7-2 lead after seven innings before Milwaukee came back to win 10-9 in 10 innings.
- suffered his first loss of the year on May 27 vs. Atlanta, ending his career-high tying five-game winning streak.
- at 5-1 through May, went 2-7 over his final 11 starts...won at Colorado on June 13 and beat St. Louis at home on July 23.
- made his final start of the year on July 29 at Atlanta, working only one inning before leaving with lower back pain.
- was placed on the disabled list July on July 30 and missed the rest of the season.
- suffered a knee injury in mid-December while jogging...tore the lateral meniscus in his left knee and underwent surgery (Dr. David Lintner) on December 19, 2000...estimated recovery time of three months.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Finished 1999 among the National League leaders in starts (T1st-35), innings (7th-231.2), strikeouts (5th-197), shutouts (T2nd-2), complete games (T5th-4) and strikeouts per nine innings (9th-7.7).

- led the NL in fewest walks per nine innings (1.4)...did not walk a batter over 18 innings from July 29-August 10.
- had a losing record in August (1-4), his first month with a sub-.500 mark since April 1998 when he was 1-2 in six games...with a 3-1 July record, he secured the ninth consecutive month at .500-or-better.
- lost to Pittsburgh on August 15 at home despite a career-high and Houston season-high 14 strikeouts.
- allowed one earned run over a 3-0 stretch to post an 0.38 ERA (July 24-August 5)...fanned 21 while walking one over the three-game streak.
- in blanking the Dodgers on August 5, he retired 16 of the final 17 batters...it was his third complete game of 1999 and the 16th of his career.
- had a strong outing on June 13 vs. San Diego, allowing one unearned run over eight innings before the game was suspended due to manager Larry Dierker's illness...the contest was completed on July 23 in a 4-3 Astros' victory, earning Reynolds his 11th win.
- entered the 1999 season as one of only 10 major league pitchers who have won 50 or more games for the teams that signed them: Tom Glavine (Atlanta), Bobby Jones (Mets), Steve Trachsel (Cubs), Mike Mussina (Baltimore), Pat Hentgen (Toronto), Andy Pettitte (Yankees), Kevin Appier (Kansas City), Brad Radke (Minnesota) and Chuck Finley (Anaheim).
- pitched no-hit baseball for 6.2 innings en route to an 11-0 win over Arizona on April 27 in Houston...combined with Brian Williams on a five-hitter...Luis Gonzalez broke up the no-hitter with a two-out single in the seventh inning.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Fell one game short of becoming a 20-game winner when he had a no-decision in his final start of the year on September 26, 1998 at home against Chicago.

- his 19 wins were a career-best, topping the 16 he won in 1996...he also struck out a career-high 209 batters.
- finished the season ranked among the league leaders in winning percentage (5th-.704), wins (T2nd-19), games started (T1st-35), innings pitched (T6th-233.1), strikeouts (4th-209), hits allowed (2nd-257), fewest walks per nine innings (110th-2.0) and strikeouts per nine innings (T7th-8.1).
- was Houston's Opening Day starter for the third straight year, but had no-decision in the club's 9-4, 13-inning loss at home against San Francisco on March 31.
- came up on the short end of Kerry Wood's 20-strikeout performance at Wrigley Field on May 6 in a 2-0 loss, despite allowing only one earned run and striking out 10 in a complete game.
- after that setback, he went 5-0 with a 1.89 ERA over his next six starts from May 11-June 7 (10ER/47.2IP).
- he lost consecutive starts on June 13 at Cincinnati and at home on June 18 against St. Louis before starting his second, five-game winning streak of the year...that run covered five outings from June 23-July 14.
- the streak marked the fourth time in his career he had won five straight decisions...he opened the 1996 season with a five-game winning streak (April 11-May 3), and also won five straight from July 22-August 24 that year.
- beginning with a 4-3 win at Philadelphia on August 19, he went 5-0 with a 2.72 ERA over his final eight starts (16ER/53.0IP).
- he finished August 5-1 (6 games) with a 3.76 ERA (17 ER/40.2IP)...it marked the first time in his career that he had won five games in a month.
- he won his 19th game on September 20 at Pittsburgh, 2-0...he scattered 10 hits over 7.0 shutout innings.

He was Houston's Opening Day starter in 1997 for the second consecutive season and beat John Smoltz and the Braves in the Astrodome on April 1, 2-1.

- he allowed only seven hits and one run over 8.0 innings while striking out seven batters in his season opening victory.
- including his Opening Day win, he started the year going 4-2 with a 2.45 ERA in his first eight starts (17ER/62.1IP).
- on May 12 at Florida, he worked only 3.1 innings in an 11-4 loss against the Marlins...in that game, he attempted to continue pitching following a one-hour, 38-minute rain delay and is thought to have injured his right knee.
- on June 11, he was placed on the 15-day DL, then underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair a torn meniscus and remove a cyst in his right knee.
- he made one rehabilitation start for Triple A New Orleans, then was reinstated from the DL on July 14 for a start at Chicago.
- he went 2-0 with a 5.00 ERA in the first five games he started after his return from the surgery (15ER/27.0IP)...the Astros were 5-0 in those five games.
- had a strong finish, going 3-0 with a 3.08 ERA in his last four regular season starts (9ER/26.1IP).
- he was the starter and loser in Game Three of the NL Division Series against the Braves in the Astrodome in a rematch of the season opener against Smoltz...despite working six innings and allowing only two runs, he took the loss in the 4-1 setback.

Had a breakthrough season in 1996, reaching career-highs in nearly every pitching category.

- he established then-career bests for wins (16), games (35), starts (35), complete games (4), innings (239.0) and strikeouts (204).
- ranked among NL leaders in wins (T5), winning percentage (10th-.615), starts (T2), complete games (T7), shutouts (T9-1), innings (3rd), strikeouts (6th), fewest walks per nine innings (4th-1.7) and strikeouts per nine innings (10th-7.7).
- was Houston's Opening Day starter for the first time in his career...he lost a 4-3 verdict to the Dodgers in the Astrodome on April 1.
- he fanned Kevin Brown in the fifth inning at Florida on September 20 for his 500th career strikeout.
- when he reached 200 strikeouts on September 25 against the Mets, he joined teammate Darryl Kile as the first Houston pitchers with 200-or-more strikeouts in the same season since Nolan Ryan (270) and Mike Scott (233) in 1987.

Ranked fourth in the NL with 175 strikeouts in 1995 in his second full season with the Astros.

- made eight consecutive starts without a loss from June 15-July 23.
- worked six-or-more innings in 22 of his last 28 starts, which included a shutout on July 1 vs. Pittsburgh and September 20 vs. Chicago and a complete game loss on July 28 at San Diego.

Ranked among 1994 NL leaders in ERA (5th-3.05), strikeouts per nine innings (T4-8.0) and fewest walks per nine innings (4th-1.5), despite splitting the season between the bullpen and starting rotation.

- his first 11 appearances were in relief...he worked three shutout innings against the Cubs on April 27 to earn an 8-5 win.
- he stepped into the starting rotation on May 11 at Los Angeles, retiring the first 15 batters in order and striking out eight.
- came out of the bullpen on July 17 at Pittsburgh and worked seven shutout innings to claim a 9-0 victory...he replaced Doug Drabek, who was forced to leave in the top of the third after being hit by a pitch on the right forearm by Paul Wagner.
- walked more than one batter in just four of his 33 appearances.

Appeared in five games during two stints with the Astros in 1993 and started the team's final game of the season.

- began the season at Triple A Tucson, but was recalled by the big league club on July 9.
- allowed no runs in two games before returning to Tucson on July 25.
- joined the Astros again on September 14 after Tucson claimed the Pacific Coast League title...was not scored upon in two additional relief outings on September 24 at Los Angeles (3.0IP) and September 29 at Atlanta (2.0IP).

Was promoted to Houston on two occasions in 1992 after the All-Star Break.

- recalled on July 17 and had no decision in his major league debut on July 20 vs. Pittsburgh, an 11-8 Houston win in the Astrodome...worked 3.2 innings and allowed six earned runs on eight hits.

- lost his only other two starts, vs. Chicago on July 26, 8-5, and at Los Angeles on August 4, 7-2, before being optioned to Tucson.
- recalled on September 18 and picked up a 4-2 win over Los Angeles in his final start on September 27 when he worked five innings and allowed two earned runs.

Led Jackson in 1991 in innings (151.0), starts (27), strikeouts (116), hits allowed (165), runs (93) and earned runs (75).

Led the Columbus staff in 1990 in wins (9), starts (27) and innings (155.1).

Was a combined 8-5 with a 3.13 ERA in his pro debut in 1989, with stops in Auburn (3-2, 2.31) and Asheville (5-3, 3.68).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

He, wife Pam, daughter Lauren Michelle (August 16, 1994) and son Ryan Shane (July 17, 1997) make their home in Sugar Land, TX in the off-season.

- graduated from Ouachita Christian High in Monroe, LA...attended Faulkner (AL) University before transferring to the University of Texas for his junior year.
- was 12-10 in two years at Faulkner, 7-0 with a 6.04 ERA in 17 games for the Longhorns...was left off the roster for the College World Series (Texas finished second).
- traveled overseas as part of the 1996 Major League Baseball Japan All-Star tour.
- actively involved in a variety of community projects...has hosted a golf tournament to benefit the Epilepsy Association for the past five years.

REYNOLDS' CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by Houston in the third round of the June 1989 draft.
- On disabled list, June 11-July 14, 1997 (torn meniscus, right knee).
- On disabled list, July 30-end of season, 2000 (degenerative disks, lower back)

2000 SEASON

Began the season with Kansas City, but was traded to Montreal on April 25 after pitching in four games with the Royals.

- notched his first career save on April 6 at Toronto, allowing two runs on four hits in 3.0 innings of work in a 9-3 Kansas City win.
- made his final appearance with Kansas City on April 21 vs. Seattle...made his Expos debut on May 1 at Colorado.
- optioned to Ottawa on May 3 after only two appearances...recalled on June 17 before going back to Triple A after four appearances.
- notched his first National League save and second in the big leagues on June 16 vs. the Cubs at Wrigley Field, retiring the last batter in the 11th inning in a 4-3 final.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Began the 1999 season with Oakland before being traded in a four-player deal that brought him to Kansas City.

- optioned to Triple A Vancouver on April 12 after three appearances for Oakland...recalled from Vancouver on April 22.
- had a solid month of May for the Athletics, going 2-1 with a 2.73 ERA in 10 games.
- longest outing of the season came on May 8 at the White Sox, when he tossed 5.2 scoreless innings of two-hit relief...also logged a 5.1-inning stint vs. Cleveland on May 8.
- tagged for seven runs in his first six outings and 8.1 innings for Kansas City...settled down and allowed just two earned runs over his next 12 appearances and 10.0 innings as he lowered his ERA with the Royals from 7.56 to 4.42.

Was on Oakland's 1998 Opening Day Roster, but was placed on the disabled list with a lower back strain before appearing in a game and never pitched in Oakland.

- activated from the DL on April 10 and optioned to Triple A Edmonton on April 13...spent the remainder of the season with the Trappers.
- went on the DL with a lower back strain on July 4 and did not make another appearance the rest of the season.

Played in his first season at the big league level in 1997 with the A's and had a 1-7 record and 4.87 ERA in 14 starts.

- took the loss in his Major League debut on June 28 against Texas despite allowing just two runs over a career-high eight innings.
- earned his first big league win on September 3 vs. San Francisco, as he struck out a career-best six batters.
- spent with first part of the year with Triple A Edmonton.

Spent the entire 1996 season at Double A Huntsville as a starter.

- led the Stars with 159.1 innings pitched and 127 strikeouts and tied for the team lead with nine wins and three complete games.
- led Class A Modesto in wins (11), innings (154.2) and strikeouts (145) in 1995.
- earned California League Pitcher of the Week honors twice.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Rigby and his wife, Lynne, and son Paxton (March 2, 1998) reside in Altamonte Springs, FL.

- graduated from Lake Brantley (FL) High School in 1991.
- attended Georgia Tech University, where he was 35-8 with a 3.02 ERA in three seasons...was second-team All-American as a junior after leading the nation with 184 strikeouts and finishing second with 14 wins.

RIGBY'S CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- Selected by Oakland in the second round of the June 1994 draft.
- On disabled list, August 8-23, 1997.
- On disabled list, March 26-April 10, 1998 (lower back strain)
- On disabled list, July 4-September 1998, (lower back strain)
- Acquired by Kansas City along with Blake Stein and Jeff D'Amico in exchange for Kevin Appier on July 31, 1999.
- Acquired by Montreal from Kansas City in exchange for Miguel Batista on April 25, 2000.
- Signed by Houston to a minor league contract on November 1, 2000.

2000 SEASON

Overcame shoulder injury to pitch in nine games for Class A Kissimmee before being promoted to Double A Round Rock.

- slowed by left shoulder tendinitis...did not make his first appearance at Class A until May 13, losing to Jupiter in a four-inning stint.
- was 1-3 with a 5.31 ERA (12ER/20.1IP) in May over five starts for the Cobras...was 2-2 with a 4.41 ERA (16ER/32.2IP) over five outings in June.
- began the season at Kissimmee at 1-4, but finished 2-1 from June 9-26 with a 3.90 ERA (12ER/27.2IP).
- beat Brevard County and Jupiter in back-to-back home starts, June 9-14...worked eight innings against Jupiter, allowing six hits and striking out nine.
- fanned 10 at Brevard on June 20 and followed that stint up with 12 strikeouts in his final start for the Cobras on June 26 at St. Lucie.
- made his first start for Round Rock on July 1 at Arkansas, allowing four hits over two runs six innings.
- made 11 starts for the Express, posting a 5.77 ERA (37ER/57.2IP).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Class A Kissimmee's co-MVP led the Florida State League in wins (15) and strikeouts (148) and opponent's batting average against (.199) by a starter...tied for first among the organization's minor leaguers in wins.

- the lefty ranked sixth in the FSL with a 2.88 ERA...earned All-Star Honorable Mention from Baseball Weekly.
- started in 24 of his 25 games, allowing a .202 opponents' batting average...fifth in the league with 8.84 strikeouts-per-nine-innings...ranked in a tie for third among the Astros' minor league pitchers in ERA and strikeouts.
- went 4-0 with a 3.09 ERA (12ER/35.0IP) over six games from April 20-May 12.
- became the league's first 10-game winner with back-to-back wins over Jupiter on July 8 and St. Lucie on July 14.
- fanned 11 over eight innings on July 24 in a 2-1 victory over Lakeland.

Finished fourth in the Midwest League with 170 strikeouts for Quad City in 1998.

- ranked fourth among Houston minor league pitchers with a 3.05 ERA...was second in strikeouts.
- struck out 12 batters in a no-decision at Clinton on May 8.
- punched out 10 West Michigan hitters over 6.2 innings on May 29 in a 2-0 win.
- won four consecutive starts July 4-20 for a 2.20 ERA (7ER/28.2IP).
- allowed one hit and struck out nine in a 5-2 win against Cedar Rapids on August 30.

Moved to the starting rotation for the first time in his pro career and earned team MVP honors for the Gulf Coast League Astros in 1997.

- tied for the league lead in wins (8) and led the GCL in innings pitched (68.0).
- notched three performances with 10-or-more strikeouts, ranking second in the league with 71 punch outs...was tied for second with 12 starts...fourth with 9.40 strikeouts per nine innings and tied for fourth with only 32 walks.
- won four consecutive starts June 26-July 14, posting a 1.57 ERA (4ER/23.0IP).
- went 4-0 with a 2.83 ERA (11ER/35.0IP) over his final six starts.

Made 18 relief appearances for the Astros summer league club in the Dominican Republic in 1996.

Played second base, shortstop, third base, left field and right field, starting at least one game at every spot except for right field.

- batted .386 (10x33) with four RBI as a pinch-hitter...made 36 starts at third and 23 at shortstop.
- hit .349 (15x43) in April...had 28 multi-hit games during the year.
- hit his first homer of the season (Mota) on May 20 at Montreal.
- connected for a game-winning RBI single in the 10th inning on May 26 in a 5-4 win over Atlanta.
- left the game on June 20 vs. Los Angeles with a strained left hamstring.
- returned to action on June 23 as a pinch hitter, but reaggravated the injury on June 25 vs. San Francisco...returned to action as a pinch hitter and shortstop on July 1 at San Francisco.
- hit safely in 29 of 33 starts from May 6-July 20, batting .336 (45x134).
- had a 10-game hitting streak (.395; 15x38, July 6-20).
- tied his career high with two home runs (second time) while notching a career-best six RBI on July 23 vs. St. Louis...hit his third career grand slam and his first since September 20, 1991.
- had a season-high tying three hits on September 3 vs. Atlanta (3x5) and in his next start on September 5 vs. Florida (3x5).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

One of only four major leaguers (St. Louis' David Howard, Minnesota's Denny Hocking, the Mets' Shawon Dunston) to start at six different positions...made starts at third base (55), left field (14), shortstop (9), right field (7), center field (4) and second base (2).

- ranked sixth among all National League pinch hitters with a .348 average (8x23) with a double, a triple and seven RBI.
- hit a pinch-hit single in the eighth inning on October 2 vs. LA to break open a close 1-0 game to put Houston ahead, 3-0...on the year, he was 8x23 (.363) with seven RBI in pinch-hit appearances.
- suffered from whiplash when he was attacked by a fan on September 24 at Milwaukee in right field during the sixth inning...returned to action the next night as a pinch-hitter.
- made his first career start in right field on September 12 vs. Chicago (NL) and went 2x4 with a steal and a run scored.
- tied his season high with three hits (3x5) on July 2 at Cincinnati.

The lefthanded hitting half of Houston's highly successful third base platoon with Sean Berry in 1998...the duo combined to hit .292 (199x682) with 17 home runs and 95 RBI.

- had his most at-bats (384) and hits (105) since he played in a career-high 133 games for Milwaukee in 1991...matched his career-best doubles total with 27, the same number he had in 1997.
- batted .313 in May (20x64), which included multiple hits in six games...had three straight multi-hit games from May 24-26 against San Diego and Los Angeles in the Astrodome (6x12) with a double, two triples and six RBI.
- collected a season-high four hits on June 14 at Cincinnati, matching his career-high which he had accomplished twice before...his four-hit effort included a pair of doubles, a home run and two RBI.
- hit the 32nd inside-the-park home run in the history of the Houston franchise on August 29 in the Astrodome off Pittsburgh's Jason Schmidt in the fifth inning...the two-run race around the pads erased a 2-0 deficit in a game the Astros went on to win 6-3.
- the inside-the-park homer was the first by an Astro since Tim Lincecum's on July 1, 1997 at home against Cleveland's Albie Lopez.
- suffered a laceration between the third and fourth fingers on his right hand on September 1 at Atlanta on a ball hit by Andruw Jones in the seventh inning...the cut required five stitches and kept him out of the lineup, except to pinch-run, until September 14.
- he reopened the cut on September 15 against the Mets and stayed out of action until the final weekend of the regular season.

Hit a career-high .320 in 1997 while playing in his most games (132) since his first full season in the majors in 1991 with Milwaukee.

- also established career-bests with 27 doubles and 61 walks, and had a .438 on-base percentage which was the best on the club.

- was the top pinch hitter in the major leagues of all players with 20-or-more pinch at-bats with a .455 average (15x33)...his on-base percentage off the bench was .550, while his slugging jumped to .727 on the strength of six pinch doubles and one home run.
- his 11 pinch RBI ranked third on the club's all-time single season list behind Ken Boswell, who knocked in 12 runs as a pinch hitter in 1976, and Derrick May with 12 in 1995.
- from June 3-5, he walked in six consecutive plate appearances, one short of matching the major league record of seven, which has only been done four times and not since Eddie Stanky of New York in 1950 in the NL (Oakland's Jose Canseco in 1992 is most recent in the AL)...he tied a club single-game record by walking four times on June 4 at Cincinnati.
- his run of walks was interrupted when he was hit by a pitch on June 5 at Cincinnati and he did not play again until June 9 at Los Angeles...he reached base safely in all four of his June 9 plate appearances on a walk and then three consecutive singles to extend his streak to 11.
- on June 10 at Dodger Stadium, he walked in the eighth inning as a pinch hitter to extend the streak to 12.
- on June 11, also in Los Angeles, he entered the game as a defensive replacement in the fifth inning and walked in the seventh inning in his first plate appearance to push the streak to 13...he opened the ninth inning against Todd Worrell and struck out looking to end the streak.
- the NL record for reaching base safely in consecutive plate appearances is 14, set by the Dodgers' Pedro Guerrero from July 23-26, 1985...the major league mark of 16 is held by Boston's Ted Williams from September 17-23, 1957.
- his only pinch hit home run was a three-run shot on July 15 at Wrigley Field with one out in the top of the ninth, which rallied the Astros from a 3-2 deficit to a 5-3 win.
- in the post-season, he was Houston's starting third baseman for all three games of the NL Division Series against Atlanta.

Was Houston's most versatile performer in 1996, appearing at all four infield positions and also playing in centerfield and rightfield.

- he started 39 games at third base, three at shortstop and two at second base...he also played four games at first and a pair of games in the outfield.
- had at least one hit in 16-of-21 games from August 7-September 10 (.367; 22x60) with two homers and nine RBI...that stretch raised his season batting average 39 points from .214 to .263.
- made only one error over his final 46 games and none in his last 25.
- had a combined fielding percentage of .969 at the four infield positions, making only five errors in 159 total chances.

Was on the disabled list twice in 1995 (May 15-June 5 and June 28-July 16) with a right rotator cuff strain.

- executed a successful suicide squeeze in the bottom of the ninth inning against the Dodgers at Shea Stadium on August 18 to give New York a 3-2 win.
- made six starts at third base and one at second...became the 102nd third baseman in Mets history when he played there July 23 at Colorado.

Was Milwaukee's Opening Day shortstop in 1994, going 2x4 with an RBI versus Oakland.

- played 35 games at short, 35 at third, two in the outfield and one game at first base.
- posted 10 pinch-hits to lead the club.

Played his first full season in 1993 since undergoing back surgery in the fall of 1991.

- started 92 games at short, one at second and one in the outfield...began the campaign as the Brewers starting second baseman.

Off-season back surgeries limited him to just 12 games in 1992.

- was placed on the DL April 7 and began a 20-day rehab program at Beloit on May 6...returned from the program on May 14 as back problems continued and was transferred to the 60-day DL on July 24.
- returned to Beloit for rehab on August 20 and appeared in 16 games...was restored to the active roster on September 2.

Set major league highs in 1991 in nine primary offensive categories, including batting average (.283), homers (8) and RBI (54).

- had the American League's second-highest average among starting shortstops behind the Orioles' Cal Ripken.
- made his first major league appearance in the outfield on June 10 at California as he played two innings in centerfield.
- underwent surgery on November 19 to repair a herniated disc in his lower back...had surgery again on December 9 to repair a small leak of spinal fluid.

Began the 1990 season on the DL while recovering from off-season shoulder surgery.

- began a rehab assignment on April 26 at Denver and was activated on May 15.

Earned Brewers Rookie of the Year honors in 1989.

- began the season with Milwaukee before being sent to Triple A Denver from June 20-July 14.
- made his major league debut on April 7 when he started at third at Detroit.
- his first hit came on April 10 against Texas, a seventh-inning single off Brad Amsberg.
- blasted his first homer, a grand slam, on April 17 at Texas (also off Amsberg)...became the first Brewer rookie in club history to hit a grand slam.

Divided the 1988 campaign between Stockton (A) of the California League and El Paso (AA) of the Texas League.

- was voted the California League's best defensive shortstop.

Batted a combined .307 for Helena of the Pioneer Rookie League and Beloit of the Midwest League in 1987.

- both clubs won championships in their respective leagues.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Attended Clemson University where he lettered in baseball and football.

- was inducted into the Clemson University Athletic Hall of Fame September 9, 1998.
- earned All-Conference honors in baseball and made The Sporting News' All-America Baseball Team as the shortstop in 1987.
- won Clemson's Sportsmanship Award in 1986 and 1987.
- led the Alaskan League in batting (.418) and won All-League honors as a shortstop.

2000 SEASON

Hit safely in 11 of his first 13 starts from June 16-July 2 after being recalled from Triple A New Orleans, including hitting safely in each of his first six major league games from June 16-24.

- became the Astros' primary third baseman after Ken Caminiti was placed on the disabled list...ranked among NL rookie leaders in homers (T4-11), RBI (4th-59), multi-hit games (T7-17), runs (10th-28), hits (7th-67), total bases (7th-123), grand slams (T2-1), doubles (T7-15), triples (T3-4) and extra-base hits (6th-30).
- made his major league debut in his start at third base on June 16 at San Francisco...tripled and scored in the ninth for his first major league hit and run scored.
- notched his first big league RBI with a fourth-inning single on June 20 vs. Los Angeles.
- hit his first major league home run (Embreay) on June 23 vs. the Giants.
- hit two homers on August 4 vs. Montreal to mark his first career multi-homer game...connected for his first career grand slam on August 6 vs. the Expos (Thurman), driving in a career-high six runs in that game.
- hit homers in three consecutive games from August 13-16.
- notched his first career pinch hit in the ninth inning at Montreal on August 26.
- tied the franchise record with two sacrifice flies on September 8 at Chicago (NL).
- batted .319 (22x69) over 22 games in August...had six doubles, six homers and 23 RBI.
- came within a single of the cycle on September 15 vs. Pittsburgh...tied his career high with three hits while driving in five runs.
- batted .284 (76x268) in 64 games for the Zephyrs at the time of his recall...recorded 11 doubles, three triples, two homers and 30 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Spent the 1999 year with Double A Jackson and was named team MVP after leading the Generals with 28 homers and 87 RBI, 78 runs scored and a .522 slugging percentage...his homer total was fourth-best in the Texas League.

- homered twice on June 1 in a 12-5 loss at Tulsa, capping an 11-game stretch during which he batted .366 with four homers and 12 RBI.
- homered with one out in the bottom of the ninth inning to lift the Generals to an 8-7 victory over Tulsa on July 4...reached base in all five of his trips to the plate, going 2x2 with three walks.
- the next night, he went 4x4 with a double, a homer and three RBI to give the Generals a 4-3 win over Tulsa...he flew out to left in the first inning, snapping his streak of reaching base at nine.
- collected five RBI on July 30 by hitting a three-run homer during a five-run first inning and capped a three-run fourth with a two-run single.

Led the Astros minor league organization in 1998 with 31 home runs and 112 RBI in a 137 combined games for Kissimmee (52), Jackson (80) and New Orleans (5).

- also led the Houston system in hits (162) and total bases (306).
- hit home runs in four consecutive games (7x15, 10 RBI) April 20-23 for Kissimmee.
- drove in six runs (3x5, 2 2B, 1 HR) against Lakeland on April 22 en route to being named the Florida State League Player of the Week (April 20-26).
- hit .384 (28x73 4 2B, 5 HR, 14 RBI) in 19 games from May 9-27, earning the Florida State League lead in extra-base hits (30) and slugging (.601).
- was leading Kissimmee with 14 home runs and 48 RBI before being promoted to Double A Jackson on May 31...slammed 16 home runs and collected 63 RBI for the Generals after promotion.
- hit a ninth-inning grand slam in a 10-9 come-from-behind win on July 2 against San Antonio.
- hit .344 (21x61, 7 2B, 2 3B, 4 HR, 14 RBI, 3 SB) in 16 games August 5-22...went 3x5, doubled twice and drove in four runs against Shreveport on August 7.
- batted .412 (7x17), doubled, tripled and homered in five games for Triple A New Orleans...batted a club-leading .484 (15x31) with three doubles in the Pacific Coast League playoffs.

Split time at Class A in 1997 between Quad City and Kissimmee.

- led Quad City with .280 batting average.
- hit a grand slam on May 1 against Peoria.

Spent second full season at Quad City in 1996.

- homered in consecutive games June 29-30 against Clinton.

Posted career highs in almost every category in 118 games for Quad City in 1995.

- ranked second among Astros minor league players with 27 stolen bases.
- hit a grand slam on July 9 against South Bend.

Named the New York-Penn League Most Valuable Player in 1994 after leading the league in runs (56), hits (91), RBI (61) and extra-base hits (30).

- was sixth in the NYPL with a .323 batting average.

Played the majority of his first professional season in 1993 with the Gulf Coast Astros, posting club highs with 24 RBI and 16 stolen bases.

- played 57 games for the GCL Astros and three with Osceola.

- at the time of his season-ending injury, he batted at a .290 clip (38x131) in a 34-game span to raise his average from .216 to .262 since May 16.
- his solo home run in the fifth inning off Denny Neagle on May 5 at Atlanta was the first time the switch-hitter connected off a left-handed pitcher in his career.
- appeared in 66 games at shortstop (65 starts) and committed four errors in 265 total chances for a .985 fielding percentage.

Batted .266 with five home runs and 50 RBI in 151 games for San Francisco in 1997...set career bests in at-bats (568), runs scored (77), home runs, walks (48) and strikeouts (87).

- made just one error in his last 40 games, including a 26-game errorless stretch from August 13-September 13...committed just seven miscues in his last 75 contests.
- ranked fifth among NL shortstops in total chances (647) and fielding percentage (.976).

Hit a combined .297 with one home run, 45 RBI, 17 doubles, and eight triples after splitting the 1996 season with the New York Mets and Cleveland.

- hit .303 with one home run, 32 RBI and 12 doubles in 144 games with the Mets before being traded with Jeff Kent to Cleveland for Carlos Baerga and Alvaro Espinoza on July 29.
- established a Mets' club record by getting hits in nine straight at-bats from April 23-25 (vs. Cincinnati on April 23 and at St. Louis from April 24-25).

- batted .333 (4x12) with one run, two doubles and one RBI in the AL Division Series against Baltimore.

Named the Mets' Player of the Year in 1995 after batting .287 with three home runs and 56 RBI in 135 games.

- led all NL shortstops with a .984 fielding percentage after making only 10 errors in 611 chances.
- tied for third in the NL with 13 sacrifice bunts.
- established a career high when he went five-for-five on September 23 at Florida.

Batted .256 with three home runs and 33 RBI with the Mets in 1994 after being acquired in a March 30 trade with Cubs for pitchers Anthony Young and Ottis Smith.

- tied his career best with a 16-game hitting streak from May 20-June 9, the fifth longest in the NL during the season.
- hit safely in 16 of his first 19 games with the Mets, going 24x75 (.320).

In 1993, set then-career highs in games played (151), batting average (.287), home runs (4) and runs scored (74) for the Cubs.

- appeared in 81 games at shortstop (79 starts), 44 games at third base (29 starts) and 34 contests at second base (27 starts).
- became the first middle infielder for the Cubs besides Ryne Sandberg to play in more than 150 games while batting .280 or better.

Appeared in 50 games at shortstop (41 starts), 29 games at third base (26 starts) and five games at second base in his second full season with the Cubs in 1992.

- committed just nine errors.
- slugged his first major league home run off the Mets' Tom Filer on August 1 at Shea Stadium...the homer came in his 446th at-bat and 207th game in the big leagues.
- was placed on the 15-day disabled list twice; from April 20-May 6 with a bruised left thumb and August 26-September 16 with a torn extensor tendon hood in his 3rd left finger...underwent surgery for his finger injury on September 2 and missed the remainder of the season.
- had a 29-game errorless streak from May 29-June 29.

Played his first full season in the major leagues in 1991, hitting .262 in with the Cubs after being acquired in a trade with the Dodgers for infielder Greg Smith before the season.

- became the 1,500th player to appear in a game with the Cubs when he made his season debut on April 16.

Spent majority of the 1990 season at Triple-A Albuquerque but had 3 separate stints with the Dodgers.

- had his contract purchased by the Dodgers on April 24 and appeared in three games before returning to the Dukes on May 1.
- was recalled again on June 21 and had a .282 batting average in 24 games with LA before being optioned on August 11.
- returned to the Dodgers when the rosters expended in September.
- batted .279 with two home runs and 38 RBI in 81 games for the Dukes...played 71 games at second base.

Batted .283 in 129 games at Albuquerque in 1989 before being called up to the big leagues for the first time in September.

- made his major league debut on September 10 at San Diego.
- registered his first big league hit off Houston's Mike Scott on September 14.
- led the Dukes with 129 games played and topped all Pacific Coast League shortstops in putouts (191), assists (390), total chances (611) and double plays (82)...had a .951 fielding percentage.
- named the seventh-best prospect in the Pacific Coast League by Baseball America.

Named to the California League All-Star team in 1988 after batting .291 in 122 games at Single-A Bakersfield...was third among league shortstops in putouts (185) and assists (340).

Batted .253 in 49 games in his first professional season in 1987 at Rookie Sarasota...finished third among league shortstops in assists (107), while leading shortstops in double plays (23).

2001 ASTROS

2000 SEASON

Missed the final three-and-a-half months of the season after suffering from a partially torn flexor tendon in his left elbow...underwent surgery on June 27 and remained on the disabled list for the rest of the year.

- surgery was performed in Los Angeles by Dr. Lewis Yocum with Astros Team Medical Director David Lintner assisting in the procedure...a partial tear in the flexor tendon was reattached to the bone....additionally, a buildup of scar tissue was removed.
- has converted 107 of 134 save opportunities (79%) in his career...ranks second to Dave Smith, who is the Astros' all-time save leader with 199.
- began the year in typical fashion, saving three of the Astros' first four wins while retiring 16 of the first 20 batters he faced in 2000.
- notched his first save of the year on Opening Day at Pittsburgh on April 4...also recorded saves on April 9 vs. Philadelphia and on April 12 vs. St. Louis...allowed just one run in his first six appearances.
- tagged with his first blown save and first loss of the year on April 23 after allowing the winning run to score in an 11-10 slugfest with the Padres.
- recorded a save on May 4, his fourth of the year, at Chicago (NL)...retired all four batters he faced.
- earned his first win of the year on May 7 at Los Angeles in a 14-8 victory, working 1.1 innings...retired the side after entering the game with the bases loaded and two out in the eighth inning.
- suffered back-to-back blown saves on May 12 and 13 vs. Cincinnati, his second and third of the year.
- his fourth blown save occurred in the first game of a May 22 doubleheader at Milwaukee...entered the game in the ninth inning with a 9-6 lead but allowed three runs as the Brewers overcame a seven-run deficit to win the game, 10-9, in 10 innings.
- suffered his fifth blown save and was charged with his third loss on May 24 in a 9-7 defeat vs. Philadelphia...gave up four, ninth inning runs including a go-ahead homer.
- yielded a game-tying run in the ninth inning in a 5-4, 10-inning victory over Atlanta on May 26...it was his sixth blown save and fifth in a row.
- notched his first save since May 4 on May 28 vs. Atlanta, preserving a 4-3 lead.
- suffered his seventh blown save on June 9 at San Diego but notched the win as Houston rallied for two runs in the ninth inning in a 7-6 victory.
- recorded his sixth save on June 13 at Colorado after pitching a scoreless ninth inning...his eighth blown save came at the hands of Todd Helton's ninth inning game-tying solo homer two days later.
- his last appearance was on June 17 at San Francisco when he walked four batters, allowing two inherited runners to score in addition to another run allowed via a walk...his failure to retire a batter in that outing marked only the second time in his career that he has not recorded an out in a single appearance (also: April 28, 1999 vs. Arizona).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Captured the National League Rolaids Relief Man Award in 1999 after recording a franchise single-season record 39 saves.

- is the first Houston closer to win the Rolaids Relief Man Award...narrowly edged out San Diego's Trevor Hoffman, whose 112 points were five shy of Wagner's 117.
- did not allow an earned run over his last 21 appearances.
- his save on June 11 vs. San Diego was his 77th, moving him past Fred Gladding for second-highest on the club's all-time saves list.
- his three third-place votes in Cy Young balloting made him the third Astros pitcher to garner votes for the award...joined Mike Hampton (second place) and Jose Lima (fourth) on the exclusive list.
- had more saves than hits allowed (35)...averaged 15.0 strikeouts per nine innings with a career-high 124 in 74.2 innings...struck out the side on 15 occasions, 11 times in order...struck out eight batters in a row from August 13-18...averaging 14.0 K's per nine innings (394SO/253.0IP) for his career.
- after posting six saves while not allowing a run over seven innings, he was touched for five runs on April 28 in a May 2 loss to Arizona for his only defeat of the year.

- went 8.1 innings without allowing a run until May 20 when he earned his first victory of 1999...gave up a pair of home runs (Cromer, Mondesi) at Los Angeles in a 4-3, 11-inning win.
- did not allow a run from May 23 through July 6, a total of 19.1 innings...the streak was halted however when he appeared in the resumption of the June 13 suspended game against San Diego on July 23...gave up two hits and two runs against the Padres, but earned his 24th save in the 4-3 win.
- notched 11 saves and fanned 38 while allowing seven hits and no runs over 23.0 innings and 21 games from August 13-October 2...did not allow a run in September, giving up only five hits over 11.2 innings over 11 appearances...notched five saves.
- allowed just one earned run from August 1 through the end of the season...over that stretch he tossed 25.1 innings, allowed just 10 hits and nine walks and fanned 40...his ERA in the second half was 0.80.
- notched his club-record 37th save on September 19 at St. Louis, surpassing Doug Jones' single-season mark of 36 set in 1992.
- pitched the ninth inning of a 4-1 win over Cincinnati on September 29 to earn his 100th career save and 38th of the year.
- fanned two batters and induced a ground out to capture his 39th save of the year on October 2 vs. Los Angeles.

Had the third-best single season for saves in club history with 30 in 1998...only Doug Jones in 1992 (36) and Dave Smith in 1986 (33) had higher single-season totals for Houston.

- he converted 19 consecutive save opportunities between his first blown save on April 12 at Los Angeles and his second on July 11 at St. Louis.
- rebounded from his blown save on July 11 to earn his 22nd on July 14 at Arizona...the next night at Bank One Ballpark, he was struck on the left side of his head behind the ear by a line drive off the bat of Kelly Stinnett in the bottom of the ninth while trying to hold onto an 8-7 Houston lead.
- he was alert and conscious on the field as his vital signs remained good...he was removed from the field on a stretcher after suffering a concussion.
- after being hospitalized overnight in Phoenix, he returned to Houston on July 16 and was placed on the 15-day disabled list that day.
- he worked on balance and coordination exercises before being cleared by doctors to go to Double A Jackson on a rehabilitation assignment...he pitched in three games for the Generals, working 3.0 innings with no walks and seven strikeouts.
- he was recalled from his rehab assignment and reinstated from the DL on August 6.
- on August 9 in the Astrodome, he returned to the mound working a scoreless inning in an 11-2 win over the Phillies.
- his 30th save came on September 20 at Pittsburgh when he pitched a scoreless ninth behind Shane Reynolds (7.0) and Jay Powell (1.0) in a 2-0 shutout.

In 1997, his first full season as a major league closer he converted 23 of his 29 save opportunities (79.3%), which tied for the ninth-best single season for saves in club history.

- he struck out 106 batters in 66.1 innings, which established a major league record for strikeouts per nine innings pitched (minimum 50.0 innings) at 14.4...the previous record was 14.1, which was set by Cincinnati's Rob Dibble in 1992 (110SO/70.1IP).
- he converted his first four save opportunities in May to run his season-opening streak to nine straight...his first blown save came on May 21 against Cincinnati when he allowed the game-tying run in the eighth, even though the Astros won the contest 4-3 in 14 innings.
- his month of July was similar to April in that he did not allow a run until his final appearance of the month on the 29th against St. Louis...he pitched 12.2 innings before a two-out single by Delino DeShields drove in a run in Houston's 5-4 victory.
- August proved to be his most difficult month of the year as he went 0-3 with a 9.72 ERA and failed to convert his two save opportunities...he allowed nine earned runs in 8.1 innings in August, which was as many earned runs as he had allowed over the first four months of the season combined.
- his combined numbers against league foes Pittsburgh and St. Louis were 1-0 with a 0.71 ERA and a perfect five-for-five on his save opportunities in 10 games...in 12.2 innings combined, the Bucs and Redbirds could manage only five hits and one earned run against him, while he walked only five batters and struck out 28.
- in the post-season, he pitched in only one game of the NL Division Series against Atlanta...he allowed three hits and two earned runs in one inning of Houston's 13-3 loss in Game Two at Turner Field.

Started his year as a Triple A starter and finished by becoming a major league closer in 1996.

- his contract was recalled on June 2 when the club asked for waivers for the purpose of granting an unconditional release to Greg Swindell.
- he joined the major league club to work in relief and came out of the bullpen on June 6 against Colorado in the Astrodome...he worked 3.1 innings in a 14-7 loss, following starter Doug Drabek, who lasted only 1.2 frames.
- earned his first major league decision in his next appearance on June 8 at home against the Phillies, a 7-3 win...he entered a 3-3 tie in the sixth and left after seven innings with the Astros ahead 7-3.
- his first major league save came on June 14 at San Francisco...he pitched three shutout innings in relief of Mike Hampton in a 9-1 Houston victory.
- he fanned five batters on August 4 against San Francisco in the Astrodome, including Barry Bonds and Matt Williams on a combined six pitches with the bases loaded in the ninth inning, for his eighth save.
- was placed on the 15-day DL on August 23 after suffering a strained left groin muscle at home on August 22 in an 8-6 loss to Pittsburgh...he was reinstated on September 7.
- named Astros Rookie of the Year by the Houston BBWAA chapter...also selected the lefthanded pitcher on the TOPPS-Rookie All-Star team, which is selected by major league managers.

Saw his first major league action in 1995 after being drafted by Houston in the first round of the 1993 June draft.

- after spending most of the season at Double A Jackson and Triple A Tucson, his contract was recalled by the Astros on September 12.

- made his major league debut the following night at New York, retiring the only batter he faced in a 10-5 defeat...it was his only appearance with the Astros.
- Led all of professional baseball in 1994 with 204 strikeouts at Class A Quad City, averaging 12 strikeouts per nine innings pitched.
- earned Midwest League Player-of-the-Week honors for July 17-23.
- Won just one of four decisions in 1993, his first season of pro ball, but fanned 31 batters in 28.2 innings pitched.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

- Compiled a three-year collegiate mark of 17-3 at Ferrum (VA) College.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS: Forty from September 1 to opening day; Twenty-five from opening day to August 31, although teams have the option to carry 24 players instead of 25.

TRADING REGULATIONS: For assignment from one major league club to another, waivers are necessary ONLY beginning August 1st and ending on the day following the close of the championship season. At all other times, no waivers are necessary for trades at the major league level.

WAIVER PERIODS: End of season to 30th day of season; 31st day of the season to July 31; August 1 to end of season. Players are available on waivers in reverse order of standings at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after start of season; otherwise in reverse order of standings at the close of previous season.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a major league roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

NIGHT GAME: Any game that starts at 5 p.m. or later.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, which include official times at bat, bases on balls, hit by pitch, sacrifice hits, sacrifice flies and times awarded first base due to interference or obstruction.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

SAVE RULE: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and (2) He is not the winning pitcher; and (3) He qualified under one of the following conditions: (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or (b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at-bats.

DETERMINING AN EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if a player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide hits plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitch by at-bats plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitch and sacrifice flies (for purposes of this percentage, ignore being awarded first base on interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING PERCENTAGE OF GAMES WON AND LOST: Divide the number of games won by the total number of games won and lost.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

OPPONENTS

The first home run ever hit by a Houston player in the National League came on Opening Day in 1962, April 10. Roman Mejias connected off Chicago pitcher Don Cardwell in the third inning with two men on base. Mejias also homered off Al Lary in the eighth inning with two more men on to account for the third Colt .45s home run of the game. Hal Smith had hit one in the third inning.

The first opposition home run came in the seventh inning of the same game when the Cubs' Ernie Banks hit one off Bobby Shantz.

RECORDS

2001 HOUSTON ASTROS MEDIA GUIDE

HOUSTON RETIRED NUMBERS

Jim Umbricht 1962-1963 Born: 9/17/30 in Chicago, IL B: R T: R

Jim Umbricht broke into the professional ranks with the Milwaukee Brewers farm system in 1953 and was traded to Pittsburgh by Milwaukee for outfielder Emil Ranko on April 6, 1959. He was purchased by the Houston Colt .45s in the 1961 National League player pool for $50,000 from Pittsburgh. Umbricht opened the 1962 season with the Colts and was one of the top relief pitchers in the National League. He posted a 4-0 record with a 2.01 ERA that year. He then made a remarkable comeback after a cancer operation in mid-March of 1963 and was once again one of the league's leading relievers with a 4-3 record and 2.61 ERA. Umbricht died April 8, 1964 at the age of 33. His number, 32, was officially retired on April 12, 1965.

Don Wilson 1966-74 Born: 2/12/45 in Monroe, LA B: R T: R

Don Wilson is the only player to hurl two no-hitters while wearing a Houston uniform. He pitched a no-hitter on June 18, 1967 vs. Atlanta (2-0) and May 1, 1969 at Cincinnati (4-0). Wilson established the club record for single-game strikeouts (18) on July 14, 1968 vs. Los Angeles. He compiled a 103-92 record in nine seasons with the Astros and won a career-high 16 games twice in 1969 (16-12), and 1971 (16-10). He was named to the 1971 All-Star team. Wilson died on January 5, 1975 and his number, 40, was officially retired on April 13, 1975.

Jose Cruz 1975-87 Born: 8/8/47 in Arroya, PR B: L T: L

Jose "Cheo" Cruz played in more games than any Astro and ranks in the top ten in every significant Astros career hitting category. He was the team's most valuable player four times (1977, 1980, 1983, 1984) and named a National League All-Star twice (1980, 1985). He started his career in the St. Louis organization but did not blossom until he was acquired by the Astros in 1975. Cruz made three trips into post-season play with the Astros, batting .400 in the 1980 NLCS against the Phillies and hitting .300 six times in his career. Cruz currently serves as the Astros' first base coach. His number, 25, was officially retired on October 3, 1992.

Mike Scott 1983-91 Born: 4/26/55 in Santa Monica, CA B: R T: R

Mike Scott is still remembered for doing the impossible: on September 25, 1986, he became the first pitcher ever to throw a no-hitter in a clinching situation when he shut down San Francisco 2-0 to wrap up the NL West title. Scott, who began his career with the New York Mets, was 110-81 with a 3.30 ERA as an Astro from 1983-90, winning the Cy Young Award in 1986 when he led the majors in strikeouts (306), innings pitched (275.1) and ERA (2.22). He will also be remembered for his feats in the 1986 NLCS. Scott twice beat the New York Mets, limiting them to one run in 18 innings and striking out 19 batters. He became the first player from a losing team to win NLCS MVP honors. In 1989, he became Houston's fourth 20-game winner when he posted a 20-10 record. His number, 33, was officially retired on October 3, 1992.

Nolan Ryan 1980-88 Born: 1/31/47 in Refugio, TX B: R T: R

The all-time strikeout king and 1999 inductee to the Baseball Hall of Fame played nine seasons for the Astros after signing as a free agent on November 19, 1979. Astros fans did not have to wait long to get a glimpse of Ryan magic. In his first game as an Astro, he hit a three-run homer off of Don Sutton as the Astros lost to the Dodgers 6-5 in 17 innings. He helped the Astros to their first National League West Division title in 1980. He tossed his fifth career no-hitter on September 26, 1981 against Los Angeles and posted one of the best post-World War II ERAs (1.69) in helping Houston to the second half title. On April 27, 1983, he surpassed Walter Johnson as baseball's all-time strikeout king when he fanned Montreal's Brad Mills. He led the league with a 2.76 ERA in 1987 despite an 8-16 record. He led the league in strikeouts in 1987 (270) and 1988 (228). Ryan made two all-star appearances while wearing Houston uniform (1981, 1985) and was the owner of 53 major league pitching records upon his retirement. His number, 34, was officially retired on September 29, 1996.

The first baseball game played in the Astrodome was Friday, April 9, 1965, an exhibition game between the Astros and New York Yankees. Houston won the game, 2-1 in 12 innings with Hal Woodeschick getting credit for the pitching win and Pete Mikkelsen the loss. A paid crowd of 47,876 watched the game and saw Mickey Mantle hit the first Astrodome home run in the sixth inning with the bases empty.

In an effort to link the past to the future, the Astros invited the Yankees to Houston to play the first-ever game in Enron Field, Houston's new downtown ballpark. The teams squared off in front of 40,624 fans in an exhibition on Thursday, March 30, 2000. Houston again won by one run, 6-5. Yankees outfielder Ricky Ledee hit a pinch-hit home run in the sixth inning for the first longball in the new park. But a two-run homer by Astros outfielder Daryle Ward capped a four-run eighth inning as Houston erased a 5-2 deficit. Righthander Jay Powell picked up the win, while lefty closer Billy Wagner got the save. Yankees reliever Jason Grimsley took the loss.

ASTROS HOME RUNS IN HOUSTON

On May 11, 1998, Jeff Bagwell hit his 98th Astrodome home run off of the Marlins' Livan Hernandez to put the first baseman one roundtripper ahead of outfielder Jimmy Wynn, whose 97 Houston homers was the most by any player in the history of the franchise. Bagwell eventually hit 126 home runs in the Astrodome before the Astros moved to Enron Field in 2000. Wynn hit 93 of his roundtrippers in the Astrodome and four in Colt Stadium during his 11-year career which lasted from 1963-73. And, speaking of Colt Stadium, the record for Houston homers in that facility stands at 21 by Bob Aspromonte.

HOUSTON MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

1962 - The Houston Colt .45s play their first major league game on April 10, defeating the Chicago Cubs 11-2.

1963 - Bob Bruce one-hits the Cincinnati Reds on April 26...Don Nottebart no-hits the Phillies on May 7.

1964 - Ken Johnson becomes the first major leaguer to lose a nine-inning no-hitter on April 23 with a 1-0 loss to the Cincinnati Reds.

1965 - The Houston Colt .45s become the Houston Astros and inaugurate indoor baseball with a 2-1 exhibition win over the New York Yankees on April 9 in the Astrodome...rookie Joe Morgan sets club marks for at-bats, runs, hits and triples.

1966 - Mike Cuellar sets a club mark with a 2.22 ERA...home attendance mark which stood for 22 years set on June 22 as 50,908 watch Sandy Koufax and the Dodgers down Houston 5-2.

1967 - Don Wilson fires a no-hitter vs. the Atlanta Braves, 2-0 on June 18, striking out Hank Aaron for final out...Jimmy Wynn sets club records with 37 home runs and 107 RBI.

1968 - Don Wilson strikes out 18 Cincinnati Reds in 6-1 win on July 14...four Houston hurlers win 10-or-more games: Don Wilson (13), Larry Dierker (12) Dave Guisti (11) and Denny LeMaster (10)...the Astros down the Mets 1-0 in 24 innings on April 15.

1969 - Cincinnati's Jim Maloney no-hits the Astros on April 30 and the next night, May 1, Don Wilson returns the favor by no-hitting the Reds 4-0...Larry Dierker becomes Houston's first 20-game winner...the club records its first .500 season (81-81).

1970 - Fred Gladding appears in 63 games, setting a club mark...three Astros hit over .300 (Cesar Cedeno, .310; Jesus Alou, .306; Denis Menke, .304).

1971 - Cesar Cedeno leads the league with 40 doubles and Roger Metzger and Joe Morgan share the league lead with 11 triples each...during the 1971 winter meetings, Houston acquires Lee May, Tommy Helms and Jimmy Stewart from the Reds for Joe Morgan, Jack Billingham, Denis Menke, Cesar Geronimo and Ed Armbrister.

1972 - Astros finish in second place with their best record ever (84-69)...Jerry Reuss and Larry Dierker hurl back-to-back one hitters on June 18 against Philadelphia and June 19 vs. New York, respectively...Cesar Cedeno hits for the cycle on August 2 vs. the Reds.

1973 - Cesar Cedeno becomes the first player in history to steal 50 bases and hit 20 home runs in successive seasons...Roger Metzger leads the league with 14 triples...Lee May hits safely in a club record 21 straight games.

1974 - Rookie Greg Gross leads the club with a .314 average, and sets club mark with 185 hits...Ken Forsch appears in a then-club record 70 games...Cliff Johnson has five pinch-hit home runs.

1975 - Bob Watson leads the Astros with a .324 average, 157 hits and 85 RBI...Dierker leads the staff with 14 wins.

1976 - J.R. Richard becomes Houston's second 20-game winner...Cesar Cedeno sets a club mark with 58 stolen bases and earns his fifth-straight Gold Glove.

1977 - Three Astros steal 40 bases (Cesar Cedeno, 61; Jose Cruz, 44; Enos Cabell, 42)...Watson sets a new club record with 110 RBI.

1978 - J.R. Richard strikes out 303 to become the first National League righthander to strike out 300 batters in a season...Cabell sets club marks for at-bats (660), games (162) and hits (195).

1979 - Houston finishes in second place, just a game-and-a-half behind the Reds...J.R. Richard improves upon his 1978 strikeout total by fanning 313...Joe Niekro sets a club mark with 21 wins...Ken Forsch no-hits the Braves on April 7...Bill Virdon is named Manager of the Year.

1980 - Houston claims its first title as the Astros win the NL West with a 93-70 record, defeating Los Angeles in a one-game playoff...Niekro wins 20 games again...Joe Morgan returns to Houston to add leadership in the pennant drive.

1981 - Houston gets off to a slow start, but takes advantage of the split season created by the player's strike to win the "second season" with a 33-20 mark, earning a spot in the playoffs...Nolan Ryan hurls his major league record fifth no-hitter, blanking the Dodgers on September 26...Ryan also leads the league with a 1.69 ERA...Art Howe establishes a club record with a 23-game hitting streak.

1982 - Ray Knight, an off-season acquisition from Cincinnati for Cesar Cedeno, remains among the league leaders in hitting for most of the season, finishing with a .294 mark...Bob Lillis takes over as interim manager on August 10 and the Astros finish 28-23 under Lillis.

1983 - After struggling to an 0-9 start, the Astros rebound with one of their finest seasons...Houston finishes at 85-77, the third-highest win total in club history...Jose Cruz battles for NL batting title to last day and finishes third...Nolan Ryan surpasses Walter Johnson's all-time strikeout mark.

1984 - The Astros bounce back from another slow start, finishing second in the NL West...1983 All-Star Dickie Thon is lost for the season in the fifth game after being hit in the head by a pitch from the Mets' Mike Torrez...Cruz repeats as the club MVP by posting a .312 average and a career-high 95 RBI.

1985 - The Astros celebrate the Astrodome's 20th Anniversary with a 2-1 opening day victory over the Dodgers in front of 42,876 fans...Niekro becomes Houston's all-time winningest pitcher with his 5-0 shutout of San Francisco on June 9th...Ryan becomes first player to record 4,000 strikeouts in a career when he fans Danny Heep on July 11 at the Astrodome...Cruz reaches the 2,000 hit plateau on September 15.

1986 - A Silver Anniversary season turns golden as the Astros win their second NL West title...Rookie skipper Hal Lanier guides the team to a club-record 96 regular season wins...Lanier earns Manager of the Year notice from four different press associations after the season...righthander Mike Scott becomes Houston's first ever Cy Young Award winner, leading the league in ERA (2.22) and strikeouts (306), and winning 18 games for the second straight year.

1987 - Houston finishes the season with the third-highest attendance total in baseball (1,909,902)...Nolan Ryan leads the majors in strikeouts with 270 and ties for the lead in ERA with a 2.76 mark...Mike Scott is named the NL starter for the All-Star game and throws two scoreless innings.

1988 - Houston wins its 2,000th game 6-3 over San Diego on opening night...Mike Scott comes within one out of his second career no-hitter on June 12 vs. Atlanta...Bob Knepper tosses a one-hitter on September 21 vs. the Braves.

1989 - Mike Scott becomes the fourth Houston pitcher to win 20 games and wins his second Astros MVP award...the Astros win 10 straight on the road from May 7-31 to set a club record...their 10-game winning streak from May 26 to June 4 tied another club mark...Glenn Davis hits a career-high 34 homers.

1990 - Danny Darwin had a league-leading 2.21 ERA, becoming the third Houston pitcher in five years to lead the NL in ERA...Franklin Stubbs sets club mark for lefthanders with 23 home runs...Houston ties a league record by playing in 27 extra-inning games...on May 17, Eric Anthony becomes the first Astro to hit an upper deck home run since 1970.

1991 - Jeff Bagwell becomes the Astros' first BBWAA Rookie of the Year after hitting .294 with 15 homers and club rookie record of 82 RBI...Craig Biggio leads the club in hitting for the second straight year (.295) and joins Pete Harnisch on the NL All-Star team.

1992 - Despite a grueling 26-day road trip made necessary when the Astrodome played host to the Republican National Convention, the Astros rallied in the second half to post the club's first non-losing season since 1989...Craig Biggio became the first player ever to make the All-Star team at both catcher (1991) and second base (1992)...Doug Jones was also named to the All-Star team and set the club single-season record with 36 saves.

1993 - The club established several franchise offensive records including batting average (.267), homers (136) and doubles (288)...paced by Craig Biggio's career-high 21 round-trippers, seven Houston players totaled double figures in homers for the first time in club history...Mark Portugal set a club record by winning his final 12 decisions...Darryl Kile posted a nine-game win streak and tosses the ninth no-hitter in Astros history on September 8 against New York.

1994 - Jeff Bagwell became the first Houston player ever to win the NL Most Valuable Player award...Bagwell was a unanimous selection for only the third time in league history after batting .368 and setting club records with 73 extra base hits, 39 homers and 116 RBI...Bagwell earns All-Star honors along with Craig Biggio, Ken Caminiti, Doug Drabek and rookie John Hudek...Rookie skipper Terry Collins guided the club to a 66-49 mark, one-half game behind Cincinnati, before a players' strike ended the season on August 12.

1995 - The Astros took the chase for the NL's first-ever Wild Card playoff berth to the final day of the season before finishing one game behind Colorado...Craig Biggio was voted the NL's starting second baseman in the All-Star Game and slugged a solo homer...he later was voted team MVP and wins a second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

1996 - A two-and-a-half game lead at the end of August slipped away and denied Houston a shot at the NL Central title...the Astros suffered through an 8-17 September, which included a nine-game losing streak, to fall out of the playoff chase...Jeff Bagwell slugged 31 homers and set single season record with 48 doubles and 120 RBI...Derek Bell knocked in 113 runs, marking the first time ever the club had two 100-plus RBI players in the same season...Craig Biggio collected his third consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award...Shane Reynolds won 16 games, while he and Darryl Kile each topped the 200-mark in strikeouts.

1997 - The Astros captured their first-ever NL Central title and their first division title in 11 years...Jeff Bagwell banged 43 homers and swiped 31 bases to become Houston's first "30-30" man...Bagwell set new single-season club records in homers (43), RBI (135), total bases (335) and extra-base hits (85)...Craig Biggio became the first player in major league history to have not grounded into a double play in a 162-game season...fans select Bagwell and Biggio to play in the 1997 All-Star Game, marking the first time that two Astros position players were selected to start in the Mid-Summer classic...Darryl Kile won a team-high 19 games and was also selected to the All-Star Team...Larry Dierker became one of only six skippers in major league history who won a division title in his first year as manager.

1998 - The Astros won their second consecutive NL Central title en route to a franchise-best 102-win season...the club drew a record 2.45 million fans and drew ten crowds of 50,000 or more...Larry Dierker was voted NL Manager of the Year by the BBWAA and Baseball America...General Manager Gerry Hunsicker was voted The Sporting News Executive of the Year...Craig Biggio joined Tris Speaker as the only two players in the century who have hit 50 doubles and stolen 50 bases in the same season...Biggio and Moises Alou were selected to represent the Astros in the 1998 All-Star Game in Denver...Biggio broke Cesar Cedeno's record for the most runs scored by an Astro...he and Alou each received Silver Slugger Awards for their offensive contributions and both finished in the top five in NL MVP voting...five Astros starting pitchers, including Randy Johnson who was acquired just minutes before the July 31 non-waiver trading deadline, finished the season with double figures in wins.

1999 - The Astros bid adieu to the Astrodome in dramatic fashion, clinching their third straight NL Central title on the final day of the regular season before a sold out crowd...standing-room only crowds were commonplace during the last year of baseball in the Dome as a record 2.7 million fans flocked to the Eighth Wonder of the World...despite an injury-riddled year that landed 14 players on the DL and sidelined three members of the coaching staff for significant periods of time, Houston won 97 games, only five victories fewer than its record-setting 102-win season of 1998...the pitching staff produced two 20-game winners for the first time in club history in Mike Hampton (22-4) and Jose Lima (21-10)...Hampton and Jeff Bagwell were recognized as the best offensive players at their respective positions as each was a recipient of the Silver Slugger Award...four Astros were selected to represent the National League in the 70th annual All-Star Game (Bagwell, Hampton, Lima, Billy Wagner)...Wagner was the recipient of the 1999 Rolands Relief Man Award.

2000 - History was made as the doors of sparkling-new Enron Field opened for the first time on March 30 before an exhibition game with the New York Yankees...a record 3,056,139 fans passed through the turnstiles during the Astros' inaugural season at their new ballpark...Houston finished the season at 72-90 to mark the club's first sub-.500 season since 1991...Jeff Bagwell set single-season franchise records with 47 homers and 152 runs scored...Bagwell ended the 2000 season having logged 310 career homers and became only the 87th major leaguer to reach the 300-homer plateau...the Astros set franchise records with 249 homers, 900 RBI and 938 runs scored...Tony Eusebio set a franchise record with a 24-game hitting streak that lasted nearly two months...Shane Reynolds was named to the All-Star team, marking his first career selection to the Mid-Summer Classic.

HISTORY & RECORDS

POST SEASON HISTORY

1980 NLCS

Philadelphia 3 games; Houston 2 games

In the tightest LCS yet, the Phillies took the opener 3-1 on the series only home run - Greg Luzinski's two-run blast in the sixth inning. It was the only game not to go into extra innings.

The Astros evened the series in Game Two - demolishing a 3-3 tie with four runs in the tenth - and took the series lead in a Game Three pitchers' duel that saw Astro Joe Niekro hurl ten scoreless innings. Reliever Dave Smith continued the shutout and took the win as Joe Morgan's triple and Denny Walling's sacrifice fly off ace Phillie reliever Tug McGraw scored the game's only run in the bottom of the eleventh.

The Phillies rebounded, though with their own set of extra-inning victories. In Game Four, a single and two doubles pushed across two go-ahead runs in the top of the tenth, and McGraw preserved the edge for his second series save. And in the finale - which saw the lead change hands three times - after Del Unser scored on Gary Maddox's tenth-inning double, Dick Ruthven held off Houston to bring the Phillies their first pennant in thirty years.

1981 Division Playoff Los Angeles 3 games; Houston 2 games

Due to a mid-season player strike which forced a complete shutdown of Major League Baseball for almost two months, a split-season format and a new tier of playoffs were created after the work stoppage ended. This new format pitted the Astros against the Los Angeles Dodgers for a best-of-five National League West Division Series.

Behind Nolan Ryan's superb pitching and Alan Ashby's two-run homer in the ninth inning, the Astros won Game 1, 3-1. They took a 2-0 lead in games with a 1-0 triumph in Game 2 when Denny Walling stroked a pitch-hit single with the bases filled and two out in the 11th inning.

Back in their familiar L.A. surroundings, however, the Dodgers managed to take control of the remainder of the series. They erupted for three first-inning runs in Game 3 and coasted to a 6-1 victory behind a Burt Hooton-Steve Howe-Bob Welch three-hitter.

Game 4 turned out to be a pitcher's battle. Neither the Dodgers nor the Astros put a runner on base in the first four innings as Fernando Valenzuela and Vern Ruhle were in complete command. Both pitchers begrudgingly permitted four hits in the game, but Pedro Guerrero belted a solo homer in the fifth and Bill Russell added an RBI single in the seventh, giving the Dodgers a 2-1 victory to even the series at two games apiece.

Another pitching struggle ensued in Game 5. Nolan Ryan dominated the Dodgers until the sixth inning, when L.A. put together a three-run rally. L.A.'s Jerry Reuss breezed to a 4-0 victory, yielding just five hits.

1986 NLCS New York 4 games; Houston 2 games

Houston pitcher Mike Scott overwhelmed the Mets in Games One and Four, and would have faced them a third time in Game Seven if the Astros had won Game Six. They tried, scoring three runs in the first as Bob Knepper shut out the Mets on two hits through eight innings. But in the top of the ninth New York tied the game and held on into extra innings. No one scored again until the Mets put a run across in the fourteenth. Astro Billy Hatcher tied it up again later in the fourth with a home run just inside the left field foul pole. Two innings later the Mets scored three runs. Again the Astros came back, scoring twice, but fell just short as Jesse Orosco struck out Kevin Bass with two men on base to win his third game of the series and give New York the pennant.

In the series opener Houston scored just one run off Dwight Gooden, but it was enough, as Mike Scott, fanning fourteen, shut out the Mets on five hits. New York came back with five runs in Game Two to win behind Bob Ojeda, who gave up ten hits but only one run. In Game Three, the Astros held the lead into the last of the sixth, when New York tied the score with four runs. Houston retook the lead in the seventh with a run, but Mets outfielder Lenny Dykstra won it for New York with a two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

The Astros' win in Game Four evened the series. Houston had scored three runs by the time Scott gave the Mets their only run in the eighth. Houston's Nolan Ryan gave up only two hits in the first nine innings of Game Five, striking out twelve. But New York's Gooden also yielded only one run in ten innings of work. Astros pitcher Charlie Kerfeld shut out the Mets in the tenth and the eleventh, and the Mets' Orosco stopped Houston in the eleventh and twelfth. But in the last of the twelfth, Mets catcher Gary Carter singled home a run off Kerfeld to end the game -setting the stage for the 16-inning-marathon the next day.

1997 DIVISION SERIES

Atlanta 3 games; Houston 0 games

After winning their first-ever National League Central title and their first divisional title in 11 years, the Astros could not stop the Atlanta Braves from sweeping Houston in the best-of-five series. Despite a two-hit effort by Darryl Kile in Game One, Houston fell victim to Braves ace Greg Maddux, who gave up only seven hits on his way to the 2-1 victory. Kenny Lofton's bloop double in the first inning that manufactured into a run after two fly outs, followed by Ryan Klesko's solo home run on the first pitch of the second inning, was all Atlanta needed to sneak away with the win.

In Game 2, a struggling offensive trio of Craig Biggio, Derek Bell and Jeff Bagwell, along with an uncharacteristic fit of wildness from starter Mike Hampton, led to a lopsided 13-3 Houston loss that put the Braves within one game of clinching the series. The Astros fell behind early, 3-0, but a two-run double by Brad Ausmus sparked a fourth-inning rally that temporarily tied the score. The Braves then scored a run after walking the bases loaded, which opened the floodgates to a huge Atlanta rally.

John Smoltz dominated the Astros with a three-hit performance in Game 3 to seal the Atlanta victory and the sweep of the series. He struck out 11 batters on his way to his 10th post-season win, tying Whitey Ford and Dave Stewart for the major league record in that category.

1998 DIVISION SERIES

San Diego 3 games; Houston 1 game

The Astros' 1998 season will be remembered as the most successful in the organization's 37-year history. The post season, however, was a different story. For the second year in a row the Astros failed to advance past the National League Division Series.

The club entered the playoffs as the most feared team in the NL, featuring the league's most prolific offense and newly acquired ace lefthander Randy Johnson. But four games later it was the San Diego Padres who moved on, while the Astros went home.

Johnson, who was 10-1 with a 1.28 ERA in 11 starts after being picked up in a July 31 trade with the Mariners, lost both of his post season starts despite a 1.93 ERA. The vaunted offense managed just eight runs in the series.

After Kevin Brown shut down the Astros' offense in Game One by striking out 16 batters, Houston bounced back in Game Two to beat San Diego 5-4, thanks to late-inning heroics by third baseman Bill Spiers. Games Three and Four, however, belonged to the Padres, who ended the series on their home field at Qualcomm Stadium to advance to the NLCS.

1999 DIVISION SERIES

Atlanta 3 games; Houston 1 game

The Astros billed 1999 as a season to remember, and granted, there were several moments and images that will live forever in the minds of Houston sports fans. But the final memory of baseball in the Astrodome faded to black amid the backdrop of a loss in the Division Series to the Atlanta Braves. After winning Game One in Atlanta, 6-1, the Braves returned the favor the next night behind a one-hit gem by Kevin Millwood en route to a 5-1 victory. A 12-inning, 5-3 heartbreaking loss to the Braves in Game Three gave Atlanta a two games to one lead entering the fourth and decisive game. Despite a valiant come-from-behind effort during which the Astros erased a 7-0 deficit to inch within two runs of the Braves, Houston fell just short of sending the series to a Game Five, as the final box score in the last game to ever be played at the Astrodome read Atlanta 7, Houston 5.

HISTORY & RECORDS

HOUSTON TAKES 23 IN EXPANSION DRAFT

After being awarded a National League franchise in October of 1960, the first step toward putting a Houston team on the field took place on October 10, 1961 at the Netherland-Hilton Hotel in Cincinnati. On that date, General Manager Paul Richards and his skipper Harry Craft made the Houston selections in the expansion draft to stock the rosters of the league's two newest teams - the Houston Colt .45s and the New York Mets.

Craft called "tails" to win the coin flip and begin the drafting process. A total of 45 players were chosen, 23 by the expansion Colts. Houston's selections cost the club $1,850,000 as it picked four players at the $125,000 level, 16 for $75,000 and three more for $50,000.

In something of a reverse process in the selections, the players from the $75,000 level were chosen first. Craft selected infielder Eddie Bressoud from the San Francisco Giants. Once the Colts and Mets had selected 16 players from the $75,000 pool, the price dropped to $50,000. Houston made three more selections, New York two.

That set the stage for the premium player selections in the $125,000 category. New York won the coin toss and took pitcher Bob Miller. The Colts opted for infielder Joe Amalfitano, also from the San Francisco Giants.

Five of Craft's 23 draft picks never played for Houston, including first pick Bressoud, who was traded shortly after the draft for infielder Don Buddin. Number 13 pick Sam Jones was swapped for Bob Bruce and Manuel Montejo. Bruce became one of the franchise's best hurlers in the early years, while Montejo never made it to the majors. Also never appearing in a Houston uniform from the original draft list were Jesse Hickman, Paul Roof and Ed Olivares.

- was inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame on November 18, 2000...became only the tenth sportscaster to be so honored.
- was presented with the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA on February 8, 2001.
- received the Ford C. Frick Award in 1992 from the Baseball Hall of Fame, an honor which is presented annually to a member of the broadcasting fraternity for major contributions to the game of baseball.
- was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame on November 21, 1994.
- entering his 56th year on the air, he has been broadcasting major league baseball since 1953...previous major league experience included stops with St. Louis, the Chicago Cubs and White Sox, Atlanta and Pittsburgh.
- has called nine no-hitters, Ernie Banks' five grand slams in a season, Stan Musial's five homers in a doubleheader, Roger Maris' 61st homer in 1961 and Henry Aaron's historic 715th in 1974.
- his list of baseball-related honors dates to 1962 when he was named Chicago's Sportsman of the Year by B'nai Brith...he was named Houston's "Mr. Sportsman" of 1991 by Interfaith Charities, winner of the inaugural Allen Russell Award for distinguished achievement in 1996 and the inaugural 1997 RBI Foundation honor for his charitable work.
- has helped raise more than $10 million for various charities as master of ceremonies at auctions, dinners and other fundraisers...charitable groups with which he has worked over the years include, March of Dimes, Epilepsy Association, City of Hope, American Cancer Society and Leukemia Society of America.

ALAN ASHBY

Alan Ashby returns for his fourth season as the radio color analyst for both home and road games.

- was a catcher for the first three of Houston's trips to the post-season and three Astros no-hitters. He played for the Astros from 1979-89 as part of a 17-year major league career, which also included stops in Cleveland and Toronto.
- in 1999, a panel of experts chose an all-time Astrodome team and selected Ashby as the franchise's all-time catcher...he was also elected into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in January of 2000.
- prior to taking his post in the Astros' radio booth, Ashby spent the 1997 season serving as Houston's bullpen coach.
- upon finishing his playing career, he served as Sports Director for Houston's KHTV, Channel 39.
- Ashby and his wife, Kathryn, reside in Houston. He has six children: Kristen, Jared, Kelly, Justin, Kimberly and Kara.

BILL BROWN

Bill Brown returns for his 15th season as the club's primary play-by-play voice on television.

- he joined the Astros in 1987 after working as senior producer and anchor of the Financial News Network's SCORE program...prior to that assignment, he was Sports Director of the Sports Time Cable Network, which televised selected games of the Reds, Royals and Cardinals.
- Brown spent one year with HSE in Pittsburgh and was the television voice of the Cincinnati Reds from 1976-82.
- Brown and his wife, Diane, reside in Houston. They have one daughter, Allison.

JIM DESHAIES

Jim Deshaies returns for his fifth season to serve as an analyst on television.

- he was a 21st round draft selection of the New York Yankees in the 1982 June free agent draft. He came to the Astros in a trade on September 15, 1985, which sent Joe Niekro and Dody Dener to the Yankees.
- he had an immediate impact on the 1986 West Division championship team by setting a club rookie record for victories with 12 and finished seventh in NL Rookie of the Year balloting. Deshaies set a modern-day major league record on September 23, 1986 when he fanned the first eight batters he faced in a start against the Dodgers.
- his finest season in the majors was with Houston in 1989 when he fashioned a 15-10 record with a 2.91 ERA over 225 innings pitched. His 61 wins for the Astros are third-most by a lefthander to Mike Hampton's 69 and Bob Knepper's 93.
- an 84-95 lifetime record also included major league time with San Diego, Minnesota, San Francisco and Philadelphia.
- was on the ballot in 1999 as one of the starting pitchers on the Astros All-Astrodome Team.
- Deshaies and his wife, Lori, reside in Houston with their three daughters: Libby, Molly and Kelly.

BILL WORRELL

A 29-year veteran of the Houston sports scene, Bill Worrell is back for his 17th year as color analyst on Fox Sports Net's coverage of the Astros.

- he has also been the voice of the Houston Rockets since the 1986-87 season and has been the host of the Golf Texas series since the series debuted in 1995. He has broadcast play-by-play for the Houston Oilers and college football, basketball and baseball.
- during his career, Worrell has covered numerous national sports events, including the Super Bowl, the Kentucky Derby, the Indianapolis 500, the AFC Championship, the National League playoffs and the NCAA basketball tournament. He was the recipient of six "Best Sportscast" awards presented by UPI and the Texas Association of Broadcasters while he was sports director at KPRC Radio.
- a civic leader as well as a broadcaster, he donates his time to numerous charities and organizations as master of ceremonies...he has co-anchored telethons and worked on fundraising for the Olympic Fund Drive, the Muscular Dystrophy Campaign, and the local United Negro College Fund Drive.

FRANCISCO ERNESTO RUIZ

Francisco Ernesto Ruiz enters his ninth season as play-by-play and color commentator for the Astros' Spanish radio broadcasts.

- a 26-year veteran of the broadcasting industry, he spent four years with KXMG-FM as play-by-play announcer for Hispanic broadcasts of the Tucson Toros. He hosted a weekly news program featuring the Toros on KHRR-TV in Tucson.
- Ruiz served as news director for radio stations KXEW and KOHT in Tucson. He was a disc jockey from 1972-81 on XETM in Naco Sonora, Mexico.

ALEX TREVINO

Alex Trevino returns for his sixth season of analysis on the Astros Spanish radio network.

- a native of Monterrey, Mexico, he spent 13 seasons in the majors, primarily as a catcher, which included the 1988-90 seasons with the Astros. He also spent time with the Mets, Reds, Braves, Giants and Dodgers.
- Trevino played in 939 major league games and had a .249 lifetime average.
- he attended the University of Nuevo Leon in Mexico before starting his professional baseball career.

MIKE CANNON

Mike "The Loose" Cannon begins his seventh season as the Astros' Broadcast Producer/Engineer.

- he is responsible for all technical aspects of the Astros Radio Network as well as producing the game broadcasts and the Astros' off-season live talkshow, "Astroline."
- he produces all of the team's promotional radio spots and is the voice of many of the Astros' radio, TV and in-stadium commercials and announcements.
- Cannon began his broadcast career at KENR Radio in 1972 while attending John H. Reagan High School...he was at that time the youngest D.J. on the air in a major market station.
- an active member of the USAF Auxiliary Civil Air Patrol, he also enjoys flying, Ham Radio, radio controlled airplanes and model rocketry.
- Cannon, his wife, Karen and daughters Courtney and Lindsey reside in Houston.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known as "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes who truly understands the value of helping others.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash on New Year's Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team will be asked to submit three candidates to MLB. A local panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services and made up of local community representatives will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. "Bud" Selig, will then select a winner from the list of 30 nominees. The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award will receive a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

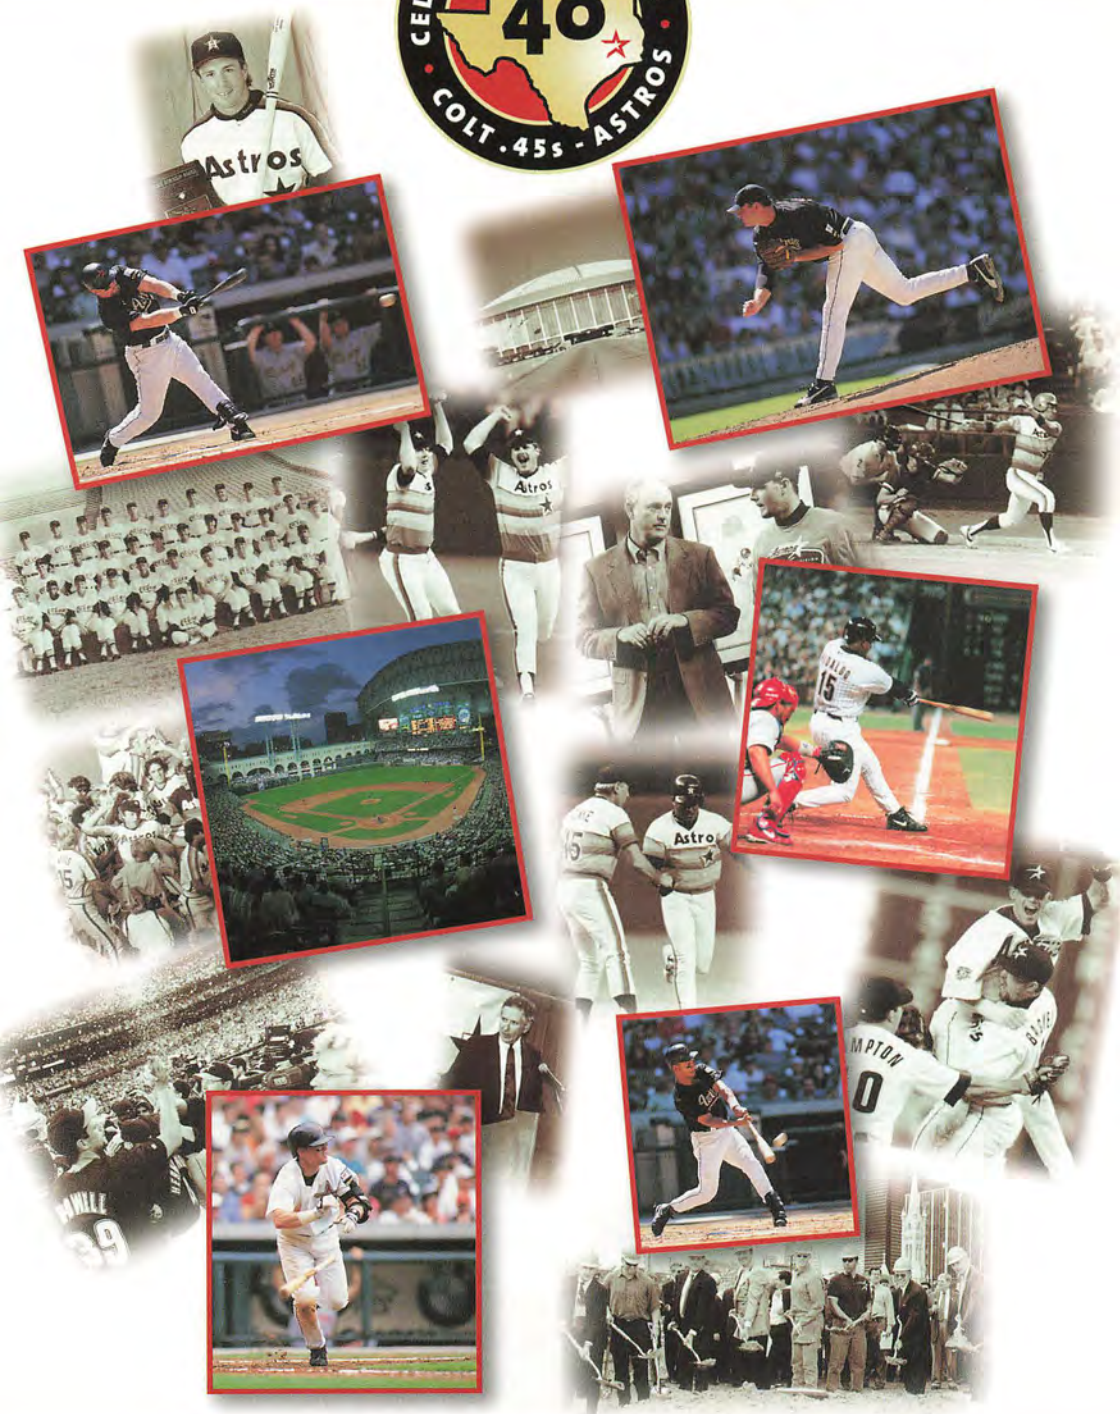

Past winners include Al Leiter (2000), Tony Gwynn, Sammy Sosa, Willie Mays, Lou Brock, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr. and Kirby Puckett.

The Astros have made six trips into post season play and have lost to the eventual World Champions three of six times. Houston fell to Philadelphia three games to two in 1980 and the Phillies went on to defeat the Royals. In 1981, the Astros met the Dodgers in the Western Division Championship Series and again fell 3-2. Los Angeles then went on to defeat Montreal and the New York Yankees for the title. In 1986, Houston dropped the NLCS to the New York Mets four games to two and the Mets went on to edge the Red Sox for the World Championship. The three times the Astros have not lost to an eventual World Series winner occurred in 1997, 1998 and 1999. In '97, the Atlanta Braves swept Houston in a three-game division series and then lost the NLCS to the Florida Marlins, who beat the Cleveland Indians in a seven-game World Series. In '98 the Padres beat the Astros, three games to one, and then went on to be swept by the New York Yankees in the World Series. The Braves experienced a similar fate in '99, beating the Astros in the division series, three games to one, only to be swept by the Yankees in the Fall Classic.

J.J. CANNON

Manager, Lexington

J.J. Cannon, a former first round draft pick of the Astros, returns to the Houston organization as the first manager of the Lexington Legends. Cannon, 48, was Houston's first selection (16th overall) in the January 1974 draft out of Pensacola (FL) Junior College. He played in 148 Major League games with the Astros (1977-78) and Blue Jays (1979-81) over a 10-year professional career.

For the past two seasons, Cannon has been the skipper of Advanced Rookie Danville in the Atlanta Braves system. Prior to joining the Braves, Cannon spent 20 years with the Toronto Blue Jays organization as a player, coach, and manager. He had managerial stints at Medicine Hat (1991), St. Catharines (1992-95), Hagerstown (1996-97), and Knoxville (1998). In 1993, he was named the New York-Penn League Manager of the Year, while in 1997 he was named as a coach to the South Atlantic League All-Star team.

Cannon broke into the coaching ranks as a player/coach for Kinston in 1983 before becoming a full-time coach with the team in 1984. He then moved on to a six-year coaching stint at Knoxville (1985-1990).

JOHN MASSARELLI

Manager, Michigan

Former Houston Astros minor league catcher and outfielder John Massarelli rejoins the Michigan Battle Cats after managing Short Season Auburn last season. The Doubledays finished 32-42 in 2000 under Massarelli's guidance, his first year as a skipper in the Astros system. Massarelli began coaching in the Astros system in 1999 as the hitting coach at Michigan, helping the Battle Cats become the Midwest League's top-ranked offense.

Prior to coaching in the Astros system, the 35-year-old Massarelli was as an assistant baseball coach at Walsh University in Canton, Ohio. He received his bachelor's degree in business finance from the University of Akron in 1990.

The Ohio native finished his professional playing career in 1997 in the Taiwan Major League. Drafted by the Astros in the eighth round of the June 1987 draft, Massarelli played in the Houston (1987-93), Florida (1994-95), Cleveland (1995) and San Diego (1996) organizations. He reached the Triple A level with Tucson in 1991 as a catcher before converting to the outfield in 1992.

He was selected to the 1990 Florida State League All-Star team after finishing sixth in the batting race (.295) and third in steals (50) in 120 games. He was a .271 lifetime hitter with 288 career stolen bases.

JACKIE MOORE

Manager, Round Rock

Jackie Moore returns for a second season as the skipper of the Round Rock Express. The 2000 season was a storybook year for the former manager of the Oakland Athletics as Moore guided the Express to the Texas League championship in the franchise's inaugural season. Moore was named the Texas League Manager of the Year for his efforts. He also led the Texas League All-Stars to two victories in mid-season matchups with the Mexican League All-Stars. During its first season, Round Rock drew 660,110 fans to shatter the Double A attendance record and was named Baseball America's Minor League Team of the Year.

A graduate of Bellaire High School in Houston, Moore guided the A's from 1984-86. He most recently served as an assistant coach for the silver medal-winning Pan American team last summer in Winnipeg. As manager of the A's, he was at the helm of the club over the course of three seasons, taking over in 1984 with 118 games left. He worked the entire 1985 campaign, followed by a 73-game stint in 1986.

Moore has been involved in baseball as a manager or coach since his playing career ended in 1967. Moore was the bench coach for the Rockies from 1996-98 and has also coached with Milwaukee (1970-72), Texas (1973-76, 1980, 1993-94), Toronto (1977-79), Montreal (1987-89) and Cincinnati (1990-92). He was the dugout coach for the 1990 World Champion Reds.

His 11-year playing career included stints as an outfielder and a catcher with the Detroit and Boston organizations. Moore's playing days began in 1957. He had one stint in the big leagues, spending the majority of the 1965 season with the Tigers. His lone year in the Red Sox system was 1967 with Toronto, topping the International League catchers with a .944 fielding percentage.

JORGE ORTA

Manager, Martinsville

Jorge Orta enters his fifth year with the Astros' organization, his first as a manager. For the past four seasons, he has served as a hitting coach in the Astros farm system at Quad City (1997), Jackson (1998), New Orleans (1999), and Auburn (2000). Orta managed the Winter League Mexican Pacific League Culiacan club in 1998 and 1999.

Orta is a 15-year major league veteran and produced a .279 lifetime average which included stints with five clubs (White Sox, Indians, Dodgers, Blue Jays and Royals). In 1974, he finished second in the AL batting race to Rod Carew with a .316 batting average, three times collecting five hits in a game. He participated in two American League Championship series with the Royals (1984-85) and batted .333 for Kansas City in the 1985 World Series.

Orta began his professional career in the Mexican League in 1968. In 1980 with Cleveland, Orta tied a major league record of six hits in a game (June 15 vs. Minnesota). He is the son of Pedro Orta, known as the Babe Ruth of Cuban baseball.

TONY PENA

Manager, New Orleans

Five-time National League All-Star catcher and former Houston Astro Tony Pena is in his third season as manager of the Triple A New Orleans Zephyrs. He is in his fourth year as a minor league skipper after retiring as a player following the 1997 campaign.

Pena managed the Chicago White Sox' Rookie Tucson team in the Arizona League in 1998. He also served as the club's Coordinator of Dominican Operations and guided the Aguilas Dominican team to the '98 Caribbean Series title.

Pena, 43, finished his major league career in a Houston Astros' uniform in 1997 after being acquired from the White Sox on August 15 of that year. He played in nine regular season games for the Astros and two more for the NL Central Division champs against the Atlanta Braves in the Division Series.

A .260 lifetime hitter and four-time winner of the Rawlings Gold Glove Award, Pena played in 1,988 games over his 18 major league seasons for the Pittsburgh Pirates, St. Louis Cardinals, Boston Red Sox, and Cleveland Indians in addition to the White Sox and Astros.

MINOR LEAGUE STAFF

MANNY ACTA

Coach, New Orleans

Manny Acta moves to New Orleans as a coach after serving the past three seasons as the manager of the Kissimmee Cobras. Acta earned Florida State League Manager of the Year honors in 1999 after leading Kissimmee to its first-ever Florida State League championship.

Prior to his time in Kissimmee, Acta served as manager at Quad City in 1997. He made his managerial debut in 1993 with short-season Auburn of the New York-Penn League from 1993-96. A native of the Dominican Republic, the 31-year-old Acta, managed three years in Auburn (1993-96). The 1994 club advanced to the NYPL championship series.

Acta was signed by the Astros as a non-drafted free agent infielder in 1986. He played seven seasons in the Houston minor league system and served the 1992 season as a player-coach for Asheville.

RICARDO APONTE

Pitching Coach, Dominican Summer League

Rick Aponte is entering his 21st season as an instructor and scout in the Astros' minor league system. In 2001 he will serve as the pitching coach for Houston's Dominican Summer League affiliate in San Pedro de Macoris.

Aponte began his coaching career at Sarasota in 1981 after pitching six seasons in the Astros' minor league system. He also coached at Auburn (1987), Gulf Coast (1988-89) and Burlington (1992) before moving on to manage in the Dominican in 1993.

JESUS ARISTIMUNO

Hitting Instructor, Venezuelan Summer League

Jesus Aristimuno has served as a scout and instructor with the Houston Astros' minor league system since 1989. He works for the Astros' organization in Venezuela.

Originally signed by San Francisco in 1966, Aristimuno played nine years in the minor leagues. He was an infielder with the Giants (1966-70) and Dodgers (1971-74) before signing as player-coach with the Pirates (1975-76).

MARK BAILEY

Coach, Round Rock

Former Astros catcher Mark Bailey is in his third season as a coach on the Double A level with the Astros, spending 1999 in Jackson and 2000 in Round Rock with the Texas League Champion Express. Bailey was a coach at Kissimmee in 1998 when the Class A Cobras established club records in home runs (96), RBI (611), doubles (221) and slugging percentage (.394).

Drafted by Houston in the sixth round of the 1982 free agent draft out of Southwest Missouri State, Bailey played for the Astros from 1984-88 and was part of the NL West championship team in 1986. His best season came in 1985 for the Astros, playing in 114 games and batting .265 with 10 homers and 45 RBI.

He finished his big league career with the San Francisco Giants in 1990 and 1992, before going into private business. Bailey batted .220 with 24 homers and 101 RBI in 340 major league games.

BILL BALLOU

Pitching Coach, Pittsfield

Veteran minor league pitching coach Bill Ballou moves to Pittsfield for the 2001 season after working at Short Season Auburn last year. This season marks his sixth year with the Astros' organization.

Ballou served as pitching coach for Michigan in 1999 and Quad City in 1998 when the River Bandits claimed both halves of the Midwest League Western Division. He had worked the two previous seasons (1996-97) as pitching coach at Auburn.

A minor league player with the Yankees and Cubs (1957-64), Ballou served as a scout for the Cubs from 1979-82 before becoming a coach in their system in 1983 at Geneva. In 1987, Ballou joined the White Sox player development staff, coaching at Sarasota (1987, 1993-94), Utica (1988-92) and Hickory (1995).

Ballou graduated from Baldwin (NY) High School and earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Ithaca (NY) College before beginning his professional playing career.

JACK BILLINGHAM

Pitching Coach, Martinsville

Jack Billingham makes the move to Martinsville this season after serving the past 15 seasons as a pitching coach with the Astros' Class A affiliate in Kissimmee. A veteran of 13 major league seasons, Billingham won a total of 145 major league games, including consecutive 19-win campaigns with Cincinnati in 1973 and 1974. He didn't miss a turn in 1973 as he led the National League with 40 starts, 293 innings pitched, and seven shutouts.

The 57-year-old Billingham, who won 10-or-more games through 10 consecutive seasons, pitched with the Astros from 1969-71 before being traded to the Reds in December of 1971. He was a mainstay in the rotation of the "Big Red Machine," winning 15 games in 1975 and 12 in '76 for the back-to-back World Champions.

A native of Orlando, FL, he finished his career with Boston in 1980. Billingham is a distant relative of pitching great Christy Mathewson.

STAN BOROSKI

Pitching Coach, Michigan

A versatile member of the Astros' organization, Stan Boroski will serve as pitching coach at Michigan this season. Boroski, 37, has worked as both a scout and a coach for the Astros over the past nine-plus years. He served as a scout for the Astros from 1991-93 and in 1997, while he had on-the-field coaching duties from 1994-96 and 1998-2000 with the Gulf Coast Astros and Martinsville Astros.

The Milwaukee Brewers in the 20th round of the June 1981 draft selected the Ohio native as a catcher. Boroski, who attended Ohio University, played two seasons for the Milwaukee organization. He signed with the Royals in 1985 and finished his playing career as a pitcher in Kansas City's system.

CESAR CEDENO

Manager, Venezuelan Summer League

One of the greatest players in the history of the Houston franchise, four-time National League All-Star Cesar Cedeno serves as the manager in the Venezuelan Summer League.

Cedeno, who has also served as a coach for the Astros' affiliates at Quad City and Gulf Coast, etched his name into the Houston record book from 1970-81. A .285 lifetime hitter, Cedeno was named the team's MVP in 1972 when he hit .320 and set club records with 69 extra-base hits and a .537 slugging percentage.

Cedeno, 49, won five consecutive Rawlings Gold Gloves in centerfield from 1972-76. He was a member of the National League All-Star team from 1972-74 and in 1976. A 17-year major league veteran, Cedeno also played for the Cincinnati Reds (1982-85), St. Louis Cardinals (1985) and Los Angeles Dodgers (1986).

MIGUEL DE LA CRUZ

Coach, Hitting and Catching Instructor, Dominican Summer League

Miguel De La Cruz serves as the coach for the Astros in the Dominican Summer League.

De La Cruz, 44, was signed as an outfielder by the Baltimore Orioles organization in October of 1975. The former minor league catcher played one season at Pulaski (1976) prior to short stints with Atlanta Braves' affiliates at Bradenton (1978), Kinston (1978) and Savannah (1978-79).

KEVEN EICHORN

Athletic Trainer, Lexington

Keven Eichorn, a graduate of Southern Mississippi, begins his first season at Lexington after spending the past two seasons as the athletic trainer at Martinsville. Before joining the Astros, Eichorn served as a certified athletic trainer at the Louisiana Sports Medicine Center at Cabrini in Alexandria, LA. He was previously a graduate assistant trainer for his alma mater from 1994-95.

Eichorn has also worked with the Alexandria Aces of the Texas-Louisiana Professional Baseball League, Louisiana College, and the Alexandria Warhogs of the Western Professional Hockey League.

MIKE FREER

Athletic Trainer, New Orleans

Mike Freer, the athletic trainer at Triple A New Orleans, is in his 12th season with the Houston Astros' minor league system.

He has worked his way up in the organization, beginning at Class A Kissimmee (1990-93) and continuing with Double A Jackson (1994-96) and now with New Orleans (1997-00). The 48-year-old Freer joined the organization in 1990 after serving as head athletic trainer at the University of Richmond. He was also previously the head athletic trainer for the New York Mets' Triple A affiliate at Norfolk.

Freer is a 1976 graduate of Baylor University where he also earned a master's degree.

MARIO GONZALEZ

Manager, Venezuelan Summer League

Mario Gonzalez, in his third season with the Houston organization, is the manager for the Astros in the Venezuelan Summer League. He has also served as a scout and an instructor with the infielders in the Venezuelan Summer League.

The 27-year-old Gonzalez played parts of four seasons in the Texas Rangers' organization (1992-95). The switch-hitting infielder began his minor league career with the Rangers' Rookie Gulf Coast club in 1992 and '93. A native of Bolivar, Venezuela, he batted .284, collected 10 doubles and swiped 21 bases for the '94 league champions.

He played 58 games for Yucatan in the Mexican League in 1994 before a 24-game stint with Charleston (SC), where he hit .324. Gonzalez finished his career at Charleston by playing in 11 games in 1995.

JIM HICKEY

Pitching Coach, New Orleans

Former Astros minor league player Jim Hickey is in his 11th season as pitching coach in the Houston organization and his fourth year with Triple A New Orleans.

Hickey's New Orleans staff recorded 10 shutouts in 1998 to rank second in the Pacific Coast League en route to the Zephyrs claiming the first-ever Triple A World Series. In 1997, his Jackson staff led the Texas League with 939 strikeouts.

Hickey, 38, played for eight years in the minor leagues, spending time with the White Sox, Dodgers and the Astros. Hickey concluded his career in 1989 with the Astros' Double A team at Columbus.

GREGG LANGBEHN

Coach, Martinsville

Gregg Langbehn will join the staff at Martinsville as a coach this season. During the first half of last year he split his time between Triple A New Orleans and Double A Round Rock as bullpen coach. He served as the pitching coach at Class A Michigan during the second half of the season and helped the Battle Cats win the Midwest League title. In the collegiate coaching ranks for two years, he moved to the professional level as the pitching coach at Auburn in 1999.

Langbehn served as an assistant baseball coach at the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse in 1997 and 1998. A former minor league pitcher, the 31-year-old Wisconsin native played from 1988-94 in the New York Mets' system before finishing his career in 1995 for both the Boston and Milwaukee organizations. The lefthander had a career minor league record of 48-43 with a 3.32 ERA in 264 games including 71 starts. The Mets selected Langbehn in the 11th round of the 1988 draft.

JOHNNY LEWIS

Minor League Hitting Coordinator

A longtime hitting instructor in the St. Louis Cardinals' system and a former major league outfielder, Johnny Lewis is in his third year with the Houston Astros as their minor league hitting coordinator.

The 61-year-old Lewis had previously served as the Cardinals' minor league hitting coordinator (1990-98). He was an instructor for the St. Louis system from 1982 to 1984 and managed for five years at Calgary (1977-78), Gastonia (1979), and Johnson City (1980-81). He served two coaching stints at the major league level with the Cardinals from 1973-76 and 1984-89. He also coached at St. Petersburg in 1995.

Lewis, signed as an outfielder by St. Louis in 1959, broke into the majors with the Cardinals in 1964. He spent the next three years with the New York Mets. Lewis, who played in four big league seasons, retired as a player after the 1968 campaign.

OMAR LOPEZ

Hitting and Infield Instructor, Venezuela Summer League

Omar Lopez is a hitting and infield instructor in the Astros' Venezuelan program and is a full-time scout.

A native of Edo Carabobo, Venezuela, Lopez played three seasons of minor league baseball in stints with the Chicago White Sox (1996-97) and Arizona Diamondbacks (1998).

Lopez played his first season of pro baseball with Rookie Bristol in 1996, leading the club in walks over 55 games. The third baseman played in 49 games in '97 at Bristol, hitting .276 with 23 RBI and setting career highs in almost every category. He finished his career in '98 with Arizona's Class A affiliate at South Bend.

NATHAN LUCERO

Athletic Trainer, Round Rock

Nathan Lucero, with the Astros organization since 1993, continues on the Double A level in the Houston system this year. Last season with the Express, Lucero earned recognition as the Texas League Trainer of the Year. Prior to coming to Round Rock, the 30-year-old Lucero also worked at Gulf Coast (1993-94), Quad City (1995-97), Kissimmee (1998), and Jackson (1999). He is a 1993 graduate of New Mexico State.

GORDY MacKENZIE

Minor League Roving Instructor

In his 43rd season of professional baseball, Gordy MacKenzie is in his third year as a member of the Houston Astros' organization. Last year he was the Astros Assistant Minor League Field Coordinator.

MacKenzie came to the Astros' system in 1999 after nine years in Cleveland which included serving as the first base coach for the Indians in 1991. He was the organization's minor league hitting coordinator in 1998. A coach on the major league level for seven years, MacKenzie was the third base coach for Kansas City (1980-81) and the Chicago Cubs (1982) and was also a coach for San Francisco (1986-88).

His 16-year managerial and coaching career began in 1966 as a player-manager with the Senators organization. The St. Petersburg native compiled more than 1,000 wins in minor league stints for Washington (1966-67), the New York Mets (1970-73), Montreal (1974-76), Kansas City (1977-79), Detroit (1983-85), San Francisco (1989) and Cleveland (1995).

An 11-year playing career as an infielder/catcher began in 1956 when he was signed by the Kansas City A's after a spring tryout. He played in the A's system (1956-62), Los Angeles (1963-65) and Washington (1966). He made his only major league appearance in 1961, playing in 11 games for the A's as a catcher.

MIKE MADDUX

Pitching Coach, Round Rock

Former major league pitcher Mike Maddux begins his first full season as the pitching coach at Round Rock. Maddux began the 2000 season as a member of the Astros bullpen. He was named the Express pitching coach shortly after being released by Houston on July 5, replacing Burt Hooton who was promoted to the Astros pitching coach. Under Maddux's guidance, the Express staff finished second in the Texas League in ERA (4.11) as the squad went on to win the league championship.

Maddux, 38, spent 15-years in the major leagues with nine teams. During his career, he played for the Phillies (1986-89), Dodgers (1990), Padres (1991-92), Mets (1993-94), Pirates (1995), Red Sox (1995-96), Mariners (1997), Expos (1998-99), Dodgers again (1999), and Astros (2000). Maddux compiled a 39-35 record with a 4.05 ERA and 20 saves in 472 major league games.

CARLOS MALDONADO

Pitching Instructor, Panama

Former major league pitcher Carlos Maldonado is a scout and the pitching instructor for the Astros' Panamanian baseball operation.

Maldonado originally signed with the Royals as a non-drafted free agent in 1986. He played seven years with the Kansas City organization, including stints with the big league team in 1990 and 1991. He pitched in four games for the Royals in '90 and five contests during the '91 campaign.

The 34-year-old Maldonado played for the Milwaukee organization in 1993, which included 29 games for the Brewers that season. He was 2-2 in 29 relief appearances with a 4.58 ERA and one save.

Maldonado finished his career in 1994 with Triple A Tacoma in Oakland's farm system.

Maldonado enjoyed his finest minor league campaign in 1987 for Baseball City (A), where he was 11-3 with nine saves and a 1.17 ERA over 28 games and 76.2 innings.

JAYHAWK OWENS

Coach, Lexington

Jawhawk Owens makes the move to Lexington this year following one year as the coach at Michigan. During his first season as a coach, Owens helped the Battle Cats capture the Midwest League title.

Owens, 32, played parts of four seasons (1993-96) in the major leagues as a catcher for the Colorado Rockies. In 130 big league games, he batted .232 with 11 home runs and 36 RBI. Originally a second round draft pick of the Minnesota Twins in the June 1990 draft, Owens played for three seasons in the Twins system before being selected by Colorado in the first round of the 1992 expansion draft. He then spent the 1993-96 seasons at Triple A Colorado Springs before ending his career in the farm systems of the Twins (1998) and Reds (1998-99). In 669 minor league games over 10 years, Owens batted .258 with 64 home runs and 323 RBI.

OSCAR PADRON

Pitching Coach, Venezuela Summer League

Oscar Padron, a former minor league pitcher in the Astros organization, serves as Houston's pitching coach in the Venezuelan Summer League.

Also a scout in the Houston minor league system, the Valencia native played from 1993-94 for the Astros' affiliates at Gulf Coast, Osceola and Auburn. Padron signed with the Astros as a non-drafted free agent on November 22, 1991.

He posted a 3-2 record and 3.09 ERA in 15 games for the Gulf Coast Astros in 1993. Padron pitched in two games at Class A Osceola in '93. During the 1994 campaign, Padron split time between the Gulf Coast League and Auburn. He was a combined 2-3 with a 4.24 ERA in his final professional season.

JIM PANKOVITS

Minor League Defense Coordinator

Former Astros infielder Jim Pankovits moves to the expanded role of Minor League Defense Coordinator this season after serving as the Minor League Infield Coordinator last year.

Pankovits has had two stints as a minor league manager with the Houston organization. He spent two seasons (1995-96) as manager at Class A Quad City of the Midwest League and two seasons as manager at Double A Jackson (1998-99). As skipper of Quad City, he guided the River Bandits to two Midwest League Western Division crowns, advancing to the second round of the playoffs each season. He also managed the Venezuelan League's Caracas club in 1998.

Prior to managing Quad City, he spent the 1992-94 seasons guiding Boston's Double A affiliate in New Britain (CT).

Pankovits, 45, was drafted by the Astros in the fourth round of the June 1976 draft. He spent six years in the Houston organization before being traded to San Diego in 1982. In 1983, he rejoined the Astros organization and made his big league debut with the club in 1984. Pankovits spent parts of five seasons in Houston, compiling a .250 average in 318 games.

Following his years with Houston, the infielder played in the Pittsburgh and Los Angeles organizations. He signed a minor league contract with Boston in 1990 and made a brief appearance with the parent club.

MIKE RA

Coordinator of Athletic Training, Conditioning and Rehabilitation

Mike Ra, M.Ed., ATC, who worked for two years at Jackson (1997-98), was named the Houston organization's Coordinator of Athletic Training, Conditioning and Rehabilitation in the off-season after the 1998 campaign. Currently in his tenth year with the Houston minor league system, Ra was honored in 1998 as the Texas League Athletic Trainer of the Year.

He is responsible for implementing various conditioning programs for the Astros' minor league players in conjunction with Astros strength and conditioning coach Dr. Gene Coleman. Ra coordinates the in-season and off-season rehabilitation programs and is in charge of budgeting and ordering all medical supplies, overseeing spring physicals and arranging workman's compensation and drug testing protocol.

He began his career at Auburn in 1991 after graduating from Tulane University in 1990. He worked two short-season campaigns so that he could earn his master's degree from Temple University in 1994. Ra, 32, worked 1995 and part of the 1996 seasons in Kissimmee and also worked on the sports medicine staff at Temple University.

RAFAEL RAMIREZ

Manager, Dominican Summer League

A 13-year veteran of the major leagues and a former Astro, Rafael Ramirez scouts and serves as the manager of the Houston Astros' affiliate in the Dominican Summer League.

Ramirez, 43, played for the Atlanta Braves from 1980-87 and was named to the All-Star Game in '84. After being traded to the Astros after the 1987 season, Ramirez played five years for Houston (1988-92).

Signed as a free agent by the Braves in 1976, Ramirez made his major league debut for Atlanta in 1980. The shortstop led the club in hits (169) and posted career highs in games (157), home runs (10) and steals (27) for the National League Western Division champions in 1982.

In his first year with the Astros in 1988, Ramirez notched a 12-game hitting streak and had career highs with 30 doubles and 59 RBI. For his career, Ramirez batted .261 with 53 homers, 484 RBI and 112 steals.

WOLFGANG RAMOS

Coach, Venezuela Summer League

A foreign scout for the Houston Astros since 1990, Wolfgang Ramos also works as a coach with the Venezuelan Summer League.

Ramos played in the minor leagues during the early 1980s after signing with the Boston Red Sox. He played three combined seasons at Elmira (1980), Winter-Haven (1981), Winston-Salem (1981) and Bristol (1982). Ramos hit .258 in 87 games at Winston-Salem in '81 with 12 doubles, six home runs and 34 RBI.

PETE RANCONT

Coach, Michigan

Pete Rancont joins the professional ranks this season as a coach for Michigan after nearly 30 years coaching at the high school and college levels in Alabama. Most recently, Rancont spent 13 years as the head baseball coach at the University of Alabama-Birmingham (1987-99) following a five year stint as the associate baseball coach at the school. During Rancont's tenure as head coach, UAB won three conference titles and participated in an NCAA regional. He was named the 1992 Great Midwest Coach of the Year after leading his squad to the conference title.

Rancont, 53, was a four-year letterman and a two-time All-SEC shortstop for Auburn during his college playing days. He was also an outstanding prep player at Woodlawn High School in Birmingham and was named the MVP of the Alabama High School All-Star Game during his senior season.

ANIBAL RELUZ

Coordinator of Panamanian Operations

A scout for the Astros organization since 1992, Anibal Reluz coordinates Houston's baseball operations in Panama. A baseball legend in Panama, Reluz played first base for 10 years with the Panamanian National squad. He currently serves as the vice president of the country's National Commission of Baseball.

DEWEY ROBINSON

Minor League Pitching Coordinator

Dewey Robinson, the Astros' Player Development Man of the Year in 1998, is in his fifth season as Houston's minor league pitching coordinator. He joined the Astros in 1997 after spending 10 years in the White Sox' organization. He served two years as the White Sox' bullpen coach from 1993-94. Robinson was the pitching coach at Class A Peninsula of the Carolina League in 1987 and coached at Class A Tampa in 1988 before becoming a minor league coordinator.

Robinson coached collegiately at Northwestern (1982-83) and Missouri (1984-86) after finishing his pro career in 1982. He compiled a 2-2 record with a 4.08 ERA in 30 games with the White Sox.

MARC RONAN

Coach, Pittsfield

Former Astros minor league catcher Marc Ronan joins the coaching ranks for the first time as the coach at Pittsfield. Ronan played in 820 games during an 11-year minor league career, primarily in the St. Louis Cardinals system. He batted .235 with 24 home runs and 245 RBI in the minors. He appeared in six major league games with the Cardinals in 1993 and got his lone major league hit off Curt Schilling.

Ronan, 31, played on the Astros Triple A World Series championship team at New Orleans in 1998. He spent a year in the farm systems of the Marlins (1996), Mets (1997), and Phillies (1999). Ronan was originally drafted by St. Louis in the third round of the June 1990 draft following an All-America and All-ACC career at Florida State.

MIKE SMITH

Athletic Trainer, Pittsfield

Mike Smith joins the inaugural staff at Pittsfield this season after spending last season as the athletic trainer for the Auburn Doubledays. Prior to joining the Astros system last year, he worked for a year as an athletic trainer with the Concorde Therapy Group.

Smith received a Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Medicine from Mount Union College in Alliance, OH. He then went on to earn a Masters of Science degree in Athletic Training from Indiana State University. While at Indiana State, Smith treated the baseball, softball, football, track, and basketball teams in addition to serving as the Head Athletic Trainer at South Vermillion High School in Clinton, IN.

JAMEY SNODGRASS

Athletic Trainer, Michigan

Jamey Snodgrass makes the move to Class A Michigan this season after spending the past two seasons as the athletic trainer at Class A Auburn.

A graduate of Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio, Snodgrass previously worked for the Concorde Therapy Group, performing athletic training duties for high school student-athletes. He also worked with student trainers as an instructor for Mount Union's athletic training program. In his final year at Mount Union, he was honored as the Senior Athletic Trainer of the Year.

CHARLEY TAYLOR

Pitching Coach, Lexington

A former Astros minor league hurler, Charley Taylor is in his 20th season with the Houston system. Taylor, 53, will be the first pitching coach of the Lexington Legends after two seasons at Jackson (1998-99) and one at Michigan (2000). He has been pitching coach for four different championships clubs including last season's Midwest League champion Michigan Battle Cats. His other champion teams include the 1984 South Atlantic League champion Asheville, the 1986 Southern League champion Columbus, and the 1993 Texas League champion Jackson.

Taylor retired as a player after the 1975 season and worked Cincinnati's front office from 1977-81. His coaching career began at Asheville in 1982 and includes stops at Osceola (1985), Columbus (1986, 1990) and again at Asheville (1987-89). He had two stints as the Generals pitching coach from 1991-95 and again from 1998-99. Taylor also served as pitching coach at Tucson (1996) and Quad City (1997).

TONY TORCHIA

Coach, New Orleans

Tony Torchia enters his second season as coach at Triple A New Orleans after seven campaigns in the Colorado Rockies' minor league system.

In his 38th year of pro baseball, Torchia spent the four seasons (1996-99) coaching with the Triple A Colorado Springs Sky Sox. He spent 1995 as a coach at Class A Salem after managing Class A Asheville in 1994. He also coached four seasons at San Diego's Triple A affiliate in Las Vegas.

Torchia has managed 13 seasons at the minor league level, claiming five league titles and going 19-7 in postseason while never losing a playoff series. His first managerial duty came in 1976 when he guided Winston-Salem to a Carolina League title.

Originally signed by Los Angeles in 1962, he was named the Midwest League Player of the Year that summer after batting .338 and driving in 94 runs. He was acquired by the Red Sox at the end of that campaign and spent the next 24 years in the Boston system, both as a player and a minor league staff member. He posted a lifetime .294 average in more than 1,400 minor-league games over 13 seasons.

PABLO TORREALBA

Coordinator of Venezuelan Operations

Former major leaguer Pablo Torrealba is the coordinator of the Astros' baseball operations in Venezuela.

Torrealba, 52, pitched in the major leagues in five seasons, making stops with Atlanta (1975-76), Oakland (1977) and the Chicago White Sox (1978-79). The lefthander posted a career record of 6-13 with a 3.27 ERA, appearing in 111 games.

The native Venezuelan was signed by Atlanta on December 15, 1966. The Sporting News named Torrealba the top Triple A lefthander in 1975. He spent nine seasons in the Braves' minor league system before making his big league debut with Atlanta in 1975. In 1977, Torrealba led the Oakland A's with a 2.77 ERA.

TOM WIEDENBAUER

Director of Minor League Instruction

Tom Wiedenbauer begins his first season as the Director of Minor League Instruction after spending last season as the Astros Special Assignment Scout. Wiedenbauer, 42, has the unique distinction of having been a player, coach, manager, scout, roving instructor, and minor league field coordinator during his 25 years with the Astros.

Wiedenbauer was drafted by Houston as an outfielder in 1976 and spent the entirety of his eight-year minor league career in the Astros system. He played in four major league games with the Astros in 1979. In 1983, he retired as a player and accepted his first coaching job with Houston at Daytona Beach in 1984. He later served four years as a minor league manager, guiding Osceola in 1986 and Columbus from 1987-89.

JASON YU

Athletic Trainer, Martinsville

Jason Yu joins the Astros farm system this season as the athletic trainer for Martinsville. Last season, Yu completed a minor league baseball internship with the Gulf Coast Red Sox after receiving his Master of Science in Physical Education-Athletic Training from Ohio University. He also did a summer internship with the Chicago Cubs during the 1998 season.

Yu did his undergraduate course work at Penn State, graduating with a Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology-Athletic Training. During his time with the Nittany Lions, he served as head student athletic trainer with the baseball team. He also was the student athletic trainer for several college tournaments and national championship meets in wrestling, men's and women's gymnastics, and women's soccer.

NEW ORLEANS ZEPHYRS

Pacific Coast League - AAA

(68-74 overall)

New Orleans weathered through a tough season after lending many of its players to the Houston Astros. The Zephyrs finished the 2000 season with a 68-74 overall record claiming third place in the Pacific Coast League East Division, 14 games out of first place. The second half of the season proved to be a struggle for the Zephyrs after many of their all-stars were shipped to Houston.

AT THE PLATE: The Zephyrs wrapped up their season with a .258 team batting average. Omar Ramirez received the Astros honor of Class AAA MVP by leading his team with a .320 batting average while scoring 73 runs and driving in 53. Shortstop Adam Everett led the Zephyrs in doubles (25) and runs scored (82), in addition to displaying outstanding defensive skills. The talented 23-year-old Everett also earned a spot on the Triple A All-Star Team and helped the U.S. Olympic Team earn a Gold Medal in Sydney, Australia.

ON THE MOUND: Righthander Kip Gross maintained a 3.94 ERA throughout the season, ranking him among the top ten pitchers in the Pacific Coast League and the entire Astros Minor League system. Righthander Travis Driskill racked up 12 wins through 179.0 innings pitched to rank second among Pacific Coast League pitchers. The Zephyrs bullpen had a strong core with righties Jason Green and Rick Huisman compiling over 25 saves together; Green with 16 and Huisman with 10.

ROUND ROCK EXPRESS

Texas League - AA

(83-57 overall; 43-27 1st half, 40-30 2nd half)

The Express concluded a storybook season by winning the Texas League Championship and being named the Minor League Team of the Year by Baseball America. The Round Rock squad celebrated its move into beautiful brand new Dell Diamond by drawing 660,110 fans, breaking the Texas League and the 20 year-old All-Time Double A attendance records. Express skipper Jackie Moore was named the Texas League Manager of the Year and second baseman Keith Ginter was named the Texas League Player of the Year.

AT THE PLATE: The Express led the Texas League in batting average (.281) and homers (147). Team MVP, Keith Ginter led the league in hitting (.333), finished fifth in homers (26) and fourth in RBI (92). Ginter, a Astros September call-up, also led the league in on-base percentage (.457) and finished second in slugging percentage (.580). Joining Ginter on several All-Star teams was third baseman Morgan Ensberg. Also a Astros September call-up, Ensberg hit .300, belted a team-high 28 longballs and drove in 90 runs. Rounding out the trio of heavy hitters was outfielder Eric Cole. Cole finished first in the Texas League in doubles (46), second in hits (158) and third in RBI (94). Ginter and Cole became just the 36th and 37th players in Texas League history to have 20 stolen bases and 20 home runs, and just the second set of teammates.

ON THE MOUND: The Round Rock pitching staff finished second in the league in team earned run average (4.11) while leading the league in shutouts (11). The top pitcher on the squad, righthander Roy Oswalt, was a starter on the 2000 USA Olympic Gold Medal team. Oswalt posted an 11-4 record while leading the Texas League in ERA (1.94) and finishing second in strikeouts (141). Eric Ireland ended the season with an 11-9 record and a 3.41 ERA while finishing second in the league in innings pitched (179.2). Round Rock's top closer was righthander Jason Green, who was 8-2 with 15 saves and 1.98 ERA before getting called up by the Astros in August.

KISSIMMEE COBRAS

Florida State League - A

(73-66 overall; 38-32 1st half, 35-34 2nd half)

The Cobras ended the first half of the season in third place in the Florida State League East Division and finished in second place in the second half of the season. They got out of the gates quickly, running off a 17-6 record to start the season, including a stretch in which they won 12 out of 14 games. Kissimmee could not maintain that pace, but managed to finish the season with a respectable winning percentage of .525. Following last season the Astros ended a 15-year relationship with Kissimmee and the Florida State League, and will debut a new Class A team in Lexington, KY in the South Atlantic League.

AT THE PLATE: Kissimmee finished the season with 87 homers and a .253 team batting average. Infielder Royce Huffman, the team MVP, earned mid-season and end-of-season Florida State League All-Star honors. Huffman led the Cobras in batting average (.298), runs scored (82), hits, (134), walks (84), on-base percentage (.410) and stolen bases (31/35). Infielder J.J. Thomas' 19 longballs tied the team's single season home run record set in 1998 by Kevin Burns and was fifth amongst all Astros minor leaguers.

ON THE MOUND: The Cobra pitching staff had a successful year, finishing with a respectable 3.84 team earned run average. Tim Redding, the ace of the staff, was the inaugural winner of the Florida State League Most Valuable Pitcher Award in addition to his mid-season and end-of-season All-Star honors. Redding led the FSL in strikeouts (170), was third in ERA (2.68) and finished tied for second in the league in wins (12). The righty was promoted to Class AA Round Rock for the post-season and was 2-0 with a 0.00 ERA in 16.2 innings of work. RHP Travis Wade, the top reliever on the team, joined Redding on the Florida State League All-Star team and recorded the victory in the mid-season classic. Wade was 4-1 with a team-high 18 saves and allowed just four earned runs in 48.2 innings pitched (0.74 ERA), including a 35.0 inning scoreless streak from 4/16-6/21.

MICHIGAN BATTLE CATS

Midwest League - A

(82-56 overall; 34-34 1st half, 48-22 2nd half)

The Battle Cats concluded their outstanding season with a 7-1 post season record to capture the Midwest League Championship. After finishing the first half of the season in fourth place with a 34-34 record (nine games out of first place), the Battle Cats fought back in the second half to claim the second half championship in the Midwest League East Division. The Michigan Battle Cats also posted the highest winning percentage (.594) of all the Astros Minor League teams.

AT THE PLATE: The Michigan Battle Cats led the Midwest League in batting average (.269), runs scored (747) and hits (1245). Outfielder Jason Lane earned the Battle Cats MVP honor by leading his team in runs scored (98), hits (153), doubles (38), home runs (23) and RBI (104). Lane's superior offense also placed him among prestigious company outside of his teammates. Lane's 104 RBI tied him for first place in the Midwest League and tops amongst all other Astros Minor Leaguers. His 23 home runs not only more than doubled his nearest teammate John Buck, who knocked out 10, but ranked Lane in the top five in the Midwest League. Other outstanding offensive Battle Cats were Derek Nicholson who hit .311 for the season and ranked third in the Midwest League, Jon Topolski, who led the Midwest League with 12 triples and Donaldo Mendez, whose 39 stolen bases were the most by an Astros Minor Leaguer.

ON THE MOUND: The Battle Cats pitching staff also enjoyed a successful season, posting a 3.76 team ERA. Righthander Ryan Jamison recorded the lowest ERA (2.10) of all the Astros Minor League pitchers. Righty Nick Roberts tied for second most wins in the Midwest League with 13 while also tossing two complete games, including a shutout. Righthander Derek Stanford led his team and was fourth among Astros Minor League pitchers with 133 strikeouts. The Battle Cats bullpen was strong as well with closer Chris George tying for fourth place in the Midwest.

AUBURN DOUBLEDAYS

New York-Penn League - Short Season A

(32-42 overall)

The Doubledays finished the 2000 season in sixth place in the New York-Penn League Pinckney Division, 15 games out of first place. Auburn finished strong, winning four of their last six games. Despite a 32-42 record, the short-season Class A Doubledays drew over 50,000 fans in their final season in Auburn. The Class A team will move to Pittsfield next season before moving into a new stadium in Troy, NY in 2002.

AT THE PLATE: The Auburn Doubledays finished their season with a .239 batting average and 27 home runs. Their batting average earned them tenth place in the New York-Penn League out of 14 teams. Infielder T. J. Soto led the team in home runs (9), triples (4) and runs scored (40). Soto's nine home runs ranked him fourth in the New York-Penn League. Third baseman Joe Lydic batted .273 and led the team in doubles (16) and total bases (111) while maintaining the highest slugging percentage on the team (.427).

ON THE MOUND: The Doubledays pitching staff recorded the lowest team ERA (3.49) of all the Astros Minor League teams. The Astros Class A MVP, Juan Campos, maintained a 1.92 ERA to rank third in the New York-Penn League and first on the Doubledays. The righthanded Campos also racked up the second most strikeouts on his team with 59, behind righthander Rodrigo Rosario's 67. The Astros' first round draft pick, ex-catcher Robert Stiehl, struck out 19 batters in only 9.2 innings pitched. Righthander Miguel Saladin had a 0.68 ERA through 40 innings pitched while leading the staff with 16 games finished. Overall, Auburn's team ERA of 3.49 ranked the club fifth out of 14 teams in the New York-Penn League.

MARTINSVILLE ASTROS

Appalachian League - Rookie

(30-36 overall)

Martinsville finished the season with a sub-.500 winning percentage, but enjoyed some success at the end of the season. The Astros ran off six wins in the final eight games to finish the season on a hot streak. The team finished in fourth place in the Appalachian League East Division, seven games out of first place. Martinsville can boast the second highest attendance total in the 10-team Appalachian League, drawing 40,533 fans throughout the course of the season.

AT THE PLATE: Martinsville ended the season with a .252 team batting average and 36 home runs. The star of the squad was first baseman Ramon German who led the team in batting average (.320), home runs (7), RBI (44), runs scored (42) and hits (72). His 24 doubles also led the team and was the third highest total in Appalachian League history. German was named the Martinsville MVP and was elected to the 2000 Appalachian League All-Star team along with his teammate, outfielder Anthony Acevedo. Acevedo hit .295 and drove in 43 runs, finishing second on the team to German in both categories.

ON THE MOUND: Martinsville had some promising individual efforts from its pitching staff, despite finishing in the bottom half of the Appalachian League with a 4.36 team earned run average. Righthander Jimmy Barrett led the team on the hill with a 6-2 record and 72 strikeouts (fourth in the league) in 66.2 innings of work. Another righthander, Monte Mansfield, emerged as the top relief pitcher on the squad, finishing a team-high 15 games. Mansfield had the team's best ERA (2.22) and tied for the team-high in saves (3) while fanning 32 batters in 24.1 innings pitched.

Osceola County Stadium has been the spring home of the Astros since it opened in 1985.

ASTROS SET FOR SPRING IN KISSIMMEE THROUGH 2016

The Astros return to Kissimmee in 2001 to begin their 17th Grapefruit League season at the Osceola County Stadium Complex. In December of 2000, the Osceola County commissioners approved a new lease agreement that will keep the Astros spring training home there through 2016.

On December 18, 2000, the Board of Osceola County Commissioners unanimously approved a new lease with the Houston Astros that will keep them at Osceola County Stadium for Spring Training through the year 2016. On January 1, 2001, the State of Florida awarded a $7.5 million grant to help fund a major renovation project at the complex.

The Astros moved to their state-of-the-art facility in 1985 after spending the previous 21 years in Cocoa, FL. When it opened, the complex was hailed as the best of its kind in Florida, and its unique "cloverleaf" design has served as host to many local civic events. The playing field at Osceola County Stadium was recognized by Sports Turf Magazine and the Beam Clay Company as its Baseball Field of the Year for 1990-91.

The Astros opened their facility on March 3, 1985 when a record crowd of 7,210 saw the Astros defeat the Yankees. The Astros surpassed the 500,000 mark in total attendance in Kissimmee in 1993.

Houston first conducted spring training in Apache Junction, AZ in 1962 and 1963 before moving to Cocoa in 1964.

IT'S THE THINGS YOU DON'T SEE THAT HAVE THE BIGGEST IMPACT.

THE HOME TEAM ADVANTAGE™

While the Astros are focused on winning the World Series, Enron Energy Services remains behind the scenes making sure that Enron Field is in top form. As the nation's leading energy outsource provider, we're delivering a well-operated facility to the Astros every day, 365 days a year. Providing a world-class ballpark to fans and players helps create the right atmosphere on game day.

We like to think of it as The Home Team Advantage™
